EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets [omitted material] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to employment; clarifying that the relationship between a person who agrees to provide services for certain programs and a person with a disability or mental retardation who is participating in such a program does not constitute employment for the purposes of provisions governing the minimum wage; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law governs the minimum wage that must be paid to an employee.
2 (Chapter 608 of NRS; Nev. Const. Art. 15, § 16) Existing law also provides that 3 certain relationships do not constitute employment and are therefore not subject to 4 these provisions. The relationships are: (1) the relationship between a rehabilitation 5 facility or workshop and an individual with a disability who is participating in a 6 training or rehabilitative program pursuant to chapter 615 of NRS; and (2) the 7 relationship between a provider of certain jobs and day training services and a 8 person with mental retardation or person with related conditions participating in a 9 jobs and day training services program. (NRS 608.255) Section 1 of this bill 10 clarifies that a person who agrees with an entity conducting one of these programs 11 to provide training, rehabilitative services or jobs or day training services is
