AN ACT relating to criminal offenders; revising provisions relating to certain allowable deductions from the period of probation or sentence of a person; authorizing the Governor to grant certain deductions from the period of the sentence of a person under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

1 Existing law requires that a person who is sentenced to serve a period of 2 probation for a felony or gross misdemeanor be allowed for the period of probation
3 a deduction of a certain number of days from that period for each month the person
4 serves if he or she is in compliance with the terms and conditions of the probation 5 and is: (1) current with any fee to defray the costs of the person's supervision and 6 any fines, fees and restitution ordered by the court; and (2) actively involved in 7 employment or enrolled in a program of education, rehabilitation or another 8 program approved by the Division of Parole and Probation of the Department of 9 Public Safety. (NRS 176A.500) Existing law similarly requires that certain persons 10 who are on parole or released on parole be allowed for the period the person is on 11 parole a deduction of a certain number of days from the person's sentence for each 12 month served if the person is current with any fee to defray the costs of his or her 13 supervision and any payment of restitution required by the State Board of Parole
14 Commissioners. (NRS 209.4475)

15 Section 1 of this bill revises the requirements that a probationer must satisfy to 16 be allowed a deduction from his or her period of probation. Section 1 removes the 17 requirements that the probationer be in compliance with the terms and conditions of 18 the probation and be current on the payment of fines and fees ordered by the court, 19 thereby making the requirements for probationers to be allowed a deduction more 20 similar to the existing requirements imposed on parolees. Section 1 also removes 21 the requirement that a probationer, to be allowed a deduction, must be both: (1)

22 current with any fee to defray the costs of his or her supervision and any payment 23 of restitution; and (2) actively involved in employment or enrolled in a program 24 approved by the Division, and instead provides that a probationer is allowed a 25 separate deduction for satisfying each such requirement.

26 Existing law provides that under certain circumstances an offender may earn 27 credits to reduce his or her sentence of imprisonment for each month the offender 28 serves. (NRS 209.4465) Section 1.5 of this bill authorizes the Governor, by 29 executive order, if the Governor determines it is necessary, to grant additional 30 credits to reduce an offender's sentence by not more than 5 days for each month an 31 offender serves.

32 Sections 1 and 2 of this bill, respectively, provide that for the purpose of 33 determining whether a probationer is allowed a deduction from his or her period of 34 probation for being current with any fee to defray the costs of his or her supervision 35 and any payment of restitution or whether a parolee is allowed a deduction from his 36 or her sentence, the probationer or parolee shall be deemed to be current with any 37 fee to defray the costs of his or her supervision and any payment of restitution for 38 any given month if, during that month, the probationer or parolee makes at least the 39 minimum monthly payment established by the court, the Division or the Board, as 40 applicable.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 176A.500 is hereby amended to read as 2 follows:

3 176A.500 1. The period of probation or suspension of 14 4. A parole and probation officer or a peace officer may 15 immediately release from custody without any further proceedings
