Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law regulates the activities of certain mortgage lending professionals who provide counseling, assistance and advice to homeowners whose homes are subject to an outstanding notice of the pendency of an action for foreclosure. (NRS 645F.300-645F.450) The Federal Trade Commission similarly regulates the activities of persons who provide mortgage assistance relief services. (16 C.F.R. Section 2 of this bill prohibits a person who performs any covered service for compensation, a foreclosure consultant or a loan modification consultant from requesting or receiving any compensation before a homeowner executes a written agreement that incorporates an offer of mortgage assistance.

Section 3 of this bill requires a person who performs any covered service for compensation, a foreclosure consultant or a loan modification consultant to maintain certain records for not less than 24 months. Section 3 provides that such records are subject to inspection and audit by the Commissioner of Mortgage Lending. Section 3 also requires a person who performs any covered service for compensation, a foreclosure consultant or a loan modification consultant to take reasonable steps to ensure that any of his or her employees or independent contractors comply with the laws and regulations governing persons who perform covered services for compensation, foreclosure consultants and loan modification consultants.

Section 4 of this bill requires a person who performs any covered service for compensation, a foreclosure consultant or a loan modification consultant to make certain disclosures in connection with any commercial communication relating to the provision of any covered service.

Section 6 of this bill prohibits a person who knows or reasonably should know that a person who performs any covered service for compensation, a foreclosure consultant or a loan modification consultant is not in compliance with the laws and regulations governing covered services from providing substantial assistance or support to the person who performs any covered service for compensation, the foreclosure consultant or the loan modification consultant.

Section 9 of this bill prohibits a person who performs any covered service for compensation, a foreclosure consultant or a loan modification consultant from making certain express or implied representations relating to the provision of covered services, including any representation that: (1) a homeowner cannot or should not contact or communicate with his or her lender; or (2) the covered service is affiliated with or endorsed by the Federal Government, the State of Nevada or any department, agency or political subdivision thereof. Section 9 also prohibits a person who performs any covered service, a foreclosure consultant or a loan modification consultant from obtaining or attempting to obtain from a homeowner a waiver of any provision of this bill or existing law. Any such waiver is void and unenforceable. A violation of any provision of section 9 constitutes mortgage lending fraud and is punishable as a category C felony.
