AN ACT relating to property; requiring the Housing Division of the Department of Business and Industry to annually calculate and publish a cost-of-living increase; establishing certain requirements relating to increases in rent; providing certain remedies for a violation of certain requirements relating to increases in rent; revising provisions relating to notices of increases in rent; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law establishes the Residential Landlord and Tenant Act, which governs rental agreements for dwelling units. The Act establishes certain obligations for landlords and tenants and provides certain remedies for landlords and tenants for violations of such obligations. (Chapter 118A of NRS) Section 4 of this bill prohibits, with certain exceptions, a landlord from increasing the rent payable by an existing tenant: (1) during the first year of a tenancy; and (2) during any 12-month period by an amount that exceeds the cost-of-living increase published by the Housing Division of the Department of Business and Industry pursuant to section 3 of this bill. Section 4 also prohibits, with certain exceptions, a landlord from charging a prospective tenant: (1) if there was an existing tenant in the dwelling unit, a rent that exceeds the maximum amount the landlord was authorized to charge the existing tenant; and (2) if there was not an existing tenant, a rent that exceeds the amount for which the dwelling unit was advertised. Section 4 exempts certain dwelling units from these requirements.

Section 5 of this bill provides that if a landlord violates the requirements of section 4, the tenant may: (1) apply to the court for relief; (2) withhold any rent that becomes due without incurring late fees, charges for notice or any other charge or authorized fee; and (3) recover actual damages and receive an amount equal to 3 months’ rent in addition to such actual damages. Under existing law, the tenant is also entitled to certain other remedies if the landlord engages in retaliatory conduct

21 against the tenant for a good faith complaint regarding a violation of section 4.
22 (NRS 118A.510)

23 Section 3 requires the Housing Division to annually determine and publish on 24 the Internet website of the Division the maximum cost-of-living increase for that 25 calendar year, which must be equal to 5 percent plus the increase in the consumer
26 price index for the region where the dwelling unit is located and must not exceed 10
27 percent. Section 3 also requires the Division to: (1) issue a press release containing 28 the maximum cost-of-living increase for that calendar year; and (2) maintain on its 29 Internet website information relating to each such cost-of-living increase for at least 30 2 years.

31 Section 2 of this bill defines "cost-of-living increase" to mean the cost-of-
32 living increase published by the Division. Section 6 of this bill makes a conforming
33 change to indicate the proper placement of section 2 in the Nevada Revised 34 Statutes.

35 Existing law prohibits a landlord from increasing the rent payable by a tenant
36 unless the landlord serves the tenant with written notice of the increase: (1) for a
37 periodic tenancy of 1 month or more, 60 days in advance of the first rental payment 38 to be increased; or (2) for a periodic tenancy of less than 1 month, 30 days in 39 advance of the first rental payment to be increased. (NRS 118A.300) Section 7 of 40 this bill instead requires such notice for a periodic tenancy of 1 month or more to be 41 served 90 days in advance of the first rental payment to be increased. Section 7
42 further requires that such notice include: (1) the amount of the increase; (2) the total 43 amount of the new rent; (3) if the increase exceeds the cost-of-living increase, the 44 reason the landlord is exempt from the requirements of section 4; and (4) the date
45 on which the increase becomes effective.
