AN ACT relating to sales of residential property; providing that a seller’s agent may not complete a disclosure form regarding the residential property; providing that a seller’s agent is not liable to the purchaser under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Under existing law, at least 10 days before residential property is conveyed to a 2 purchaser, the seller is required to complete and serve upon the purchaser a 3 disclosure form which provides an evaluation of the condition of any electrical,
4 heating, cooling, plumbing and sewer systems on the property, and of the condition
5 of any other aspects of the property which affect its use or value. The seller must 6 indicate whether any of those systems or other aspects of the property has a defect
7 of which the seller is aware. (NRS 113.120, 113.130) This bill provides explicitly 8 that a seller’s agent may not complete the disclosure form on behalf of the seller.
9 This bill also provides that a seller’s agent is not liable to the purchaser if: (1) the 10 seller is aware of a defect and fails to disclose the defect to the purchaser on the 11 disclosure form as required; or (2) after service of the completed disclosure form 12 but before conveyance of the property to the purchaser, the seller discovers a new 13 defect in the residential property that was not identified on the completed disclosure 14 form or discovers that a defect identified on the completed disclosure form has 15 become worse than was indicated on the form and fails to inform the purchaser or 16 the purchaser’s agent of that fact as required.
