AN ACT relating to criminal procedure; requiring an incarcerated person to exhaust all available administrative remedies before filing a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus challenging the computation of time the person has served pursuant to a judgment of conviction; requiring a court to dismiss such a petition upon determining that the petitioner has not exhausted all available administrative remedies; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law authorizes a person convicted of a crime and under sentence of 2 death or imprisonment who claims that the time the person has served pursuant to 3 the judgment of conviction has been improperly computed to file a postconviction 4 petition for a writ of habeas corpus to challenge the computation of time that the 5 person has served. (NRS 34.724) Section 1 of this bill requires a person to exhaust
6 all administrative remedies available for resolving a challenge to the computation 7 of time that he or she has served as set forth in regulations adopted by the 8 Department of Corrections before the person may file such a petition. Section 2 of 9 this bill requires a court to dismiss such a petition if the court determines that the 10 petitioner has not exhausted all available administrative remedies. Section 3 of this 11 bill provides that the amendatory provisions of this bill do not apply to a 12 postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus which challenges the 13 computation of time that a petitioner has served that is filed on or before the 14 effective date of this bill.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

- 1 Section 1. NRS 34.724 is hereby amended to read as follows:
2 34.724 1. ~~[Any]~~ Except as otherwise provided in subsection
3 3, any person convicted of a crime and under sentence of death or 4 imprisonment who claims that the conviction was obtained, or that 5 the sentence was imposed, in violation of the Constitution of the 6 United States or the Constitution or laws of this State, or who claims 7 that the time the person has served pursuant to the judgment of 8 conviction has been improperly computed, may, without paying a
9 filing fee, file a postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus 10 to obtain relief from the conviction or sentence or to challenge the 11 computation of time that the person has served.
12 2. Such a petition:
13 (a) Is not a substitute for and does not affect any remedies which 14 are incident to the proceedings in the trial court or the remedy of 15 direct review of the sentence or conviction.
16 (b) Comprehends and takes the place of all other common-law, 17 statutory or other remedies which have been available for 18 challenging the validity of the conviction or sentence, and must be 19 used exclusively in place of them.
20 ~~[(c) Is the only remedy available to an incarcerated person to~~ 21 ~~challenge]~~
22 3. Before a person may file a petition pursuant to this section
23 that challenges the computation of time that the person has served 24 pursuant to a judgment of conviction ~~[]~~, the person must exhaust 25 all administrative remedies available for resolving a challenge to 26 the computation of time that the person has served as set forth in 27 regulations adopted by the Department of Corrections.
28 Sec. 2. NRS 34.810 is hereby amended to read as follows:
29 34.810 1. The court shall dismiss a petition if the court
30 determines that:
31 (a) The petitioner's conviction was upon a plea of guilty or 32 guilty but mentally ill and the petition is not based upon an 33 allegation that the plea was involuntarily or unknowingly entered or 34 that the plea was entered without effective assistance of counsel.
35 (b) The petitioner's conviction was the result of a trial and the 36 grounds for the petition could have been:
37 (1) Presented to the trial court;
38 (2) Raised in a direct appeal or a prior petition for a writ of 39 habeas corpus or postconviction relief; or 40 (3) Raised in any other proceeding that the petitioner has 41 taken to secure relief from the petitioner's conviction and sentence,

1 ↳ unless the court finds both cause for the failure to present the 2 grounds and actual prejudice to the petitioner.

3 2. A second or successive petition must be dismissed if the 4 judge or justice determines that it fails to allege new or different
5 grounds for relief and that the prior determination was on the merits
6 or, if new and different grounds are alleged, the judge or justice
7 finds that the failure of the petitioner to assert those grounds in a 8 prior petition constituted an abuse of the writ.

9 3. Pursuant to subsections 1 and 2, the petitioner has the 10 burden of pleading and proving specific facts that demonstrate:

11 (a) Good cause for the petitioner's failure to present the claim or 12 for presenting the claim again; and

13 (b) Actual prejudice to the petitioner.

14 ↳ The petitioner shall include in the petition all prior proceedings in 15 which the petitioner challenged the same conviction or sentence.

16 4. The court shall dismiss a petition that challenges the 17 computation of time which a petitioner has served pursuant to a
18 judgment of conviction if the court determines that the petitioner 19 has not exhausted all administrative remedies available for 20 resolving a challenge to the computation of time which the 21 petitioner has served as required pursuant to subsection 3 of 22 NRS 34.724.

23 5. The court may dismiss a petition that fails to include any 24 prior proceedings of which the court has knowledge through the 25 record of the court or through the pleadings submitted by the 26 respondent.

27 Sec. 3. The amendatory provisions of this act do not apply to a 28 postconviction petition for a writ of habeas corpus that challenges
29 the computation of time which a petitioner has served pursuant to a 30 judgment of conviction that is filed on or before the effective date of 31 this act.

32 Sec. 4. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.
