AN ACT relating to domestic violence; establishing provisions relating to the proper venue for filing an application for an order for protection against domestic violence; revising provisions relating to the information included in an application for an order for protection against domestic violence; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law authorizes a person to file an application for a temporary or 2 extended order for protection against domestic violence but does not specify which 3 county is the proper venue for filing such an application. (NRS 33.020) Section 1
4 of this bill authorizes an applicant to file an application in the county in which: (1)
5 the applicant resides; (2) the applicant is temporarily located, away from the county 6 in which he or she resides, to avoid the threat of domestic violence from the 7 adverse party; (3) the adverse party resides; or (4) the act of domestic violence 8 against the applicant by the adverse party occurred or there exists a threat of 9 domestic violence against the applicant from the adverse party. Section 2 of this 10 bill makes a conforming change to indicate the placement of section 1 within the 11 Nevada Revised Statutes.

12 Section 3 of this bill authorizes an applicant for a temporary or extended order
13 for protection against domestic violence to decline to disclose his or her address
14 and contact information in an application under certain circumstances. Section 3
15 provides that if the applicant reasonably believes that disclosing his or her address 16 and contact information in the application would jeopardize his or her safety, the 17 applicant may decline to disclose such information. If the applicant declines to 18 disclose such information, then such information: (1) must be disclosed to the court 19 and, for criminal justice purposes, to any other authorized agency of criminal 20 justice; (2) must be maintained in a separate, confidential, electronic document or

21 database which is not publicly accessible; and (3) must not be released, disclosed or 22 made accessible to the public, except as authorized by the court.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Chapter 33 of NRS is hereby amended by adding 2 thereto a new section to read as follows:

17 against domestic violence.

18 2. "Temporary order" means a temporary order for protection
19 against domestic violence.

20 Sec. 3. NRS 33.020 is hereby amended to read as follows:

21 33.020 1. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court from 22 specific facts shown by a verified application that an act of domestic 23 violence has occurred or there exists a threat of domestic violence, 24 the court may grant a temporary or extended order. A court shall 25 only consider whether the act of domestic violence or the threat
26 thereof satisfies the requirements of NRS 33.018 without 27 considering any other factor in its determination to grant the 28 temporary or extended order.

29 2. A temporary or extended order must not be granted to the 30 applicant or the adverse party unless the applicant or the adverse 31 party has requested the order and has filed a verified application that 32 an act of domestic violence has occurred or there exists a threat of 33 domestic violence. If the applicant reasonably believes that 34 disclosing his or her address and contact information in the 35 application would jeopardize his or her safety, the applicant may 36 decline to disclose his or her address and contact information in 37 the application. If the applicant declines to disclose his or her 38 address and contact information in the application, then such 39 information:

2 purposes, to any other authorized agency of criminal justice to 3 allow the agency of criminal justice to carry out any duty required
4 pursuant to NRS 33.017 to 33.100, inclusive, and section 1 of this 5 act;

6 (b) Must be maintained in a separate, confidential, electronic 7 document or database which is not publicly accessible; and

8 (c) Must not be released, disclosed or made accessible to the 9 public, except as authorized by the court.

10 3. The court may require the applicant or the adverse party, or 11 both, to appear before the court before determining whether to grant 12 the temporary or extended order.

13 4. A temporary order may be granted with or without notice to 14 the adverse party. An extended order may only be granted after 15 notice to the adverse party and a hearing on the application.

16 5. A hearing on an application for an extended order must be 17 held within 45 days after the date on which the application for the 18 extended order is filed. If the adverse party has not been served 19 pursuant to NRS 33.060 or 33.065 and fails to appear at the hearing, 20 the court may, upon a showing that law enforcement, after due 21 diligence, has been unable to serve the adverse party or that the 22 adverse party has sought to avoid service by concealment, set a date 23 for a second hearing which must be held within 90 days after the 24 date on which the first hearing was scheduled.

25 6. If the adverse party has not been served pursuant to NRS
26 33.060 or 33.065 and fails to appear on the date set for a second 27 hearing on an application for an extended order pursuant to 28 subsection 5, the court may, upon a showing that law enforcement, 29 after due diligence, has been unable to serve the adverse party or 30 that the adverse party has sought to avoid service by concealment, 31 set a date for a third hearing which must be held within 90 days after 32 the date on which the second hearing was scheduled.

33 7. The court shall rule upon an application for a temporary 34 order within 1 judicial day after it is filed.

35 8. If it appears to the satisfaction of the court from specific 36 facts communicated by telephone to the court by an alleged victim 37 that an act of domestic violence has occurred and the alleged 38 perpetrator of the domestic violence has been arrested and is 39 presently in custody pursuant to NRS 171.137, the court may grant a 40 temporary order. Before approving an order under such 41 circumstances, the court shall confirm with the appropriate law
42 enforcement agency that the applicant is an alleged victim and that 43 the alleged perpetrator is in custody. Upon approval by the court, the 44 signed order may be transmitted to the facility where the alleged 45 perpetrator is in custody by electronic or telephonic transmission to

1 a facsimile machine. If such an order is received by the facility
2 holding the alleged perpetrator while the alleged perpetrator is still 3 in custody, the order must be personally served by an authorized
4 employee of the facility before the alleged perpetrator is released.
5 The court shall mail a copy of each order issued pursuant to this 6 subsection to the alleged victim named in the order and cause the 7 original order to be filed with the court clerk on the first judicial day 8 after it is issued.

9 9. In a county whose population is 52,000 or more, the court
10 shall be available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including 11 nonjudicial days and holidays, to receive communications by 12 telephone and for the issuance of a temporary order pursuant to 13 subsection 8.

14 10. In a county whose population is less than 52,000, the court
15 may be available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, including 16 nonjudicial days and holidays, to receive communications by 17 telephone and for the issuance of a temporary order pursuant to 18 subsection 8.

19 11. The clerk of the court shall inform the protected party upon 20 the successful transfer of information concerning the registration to 21 the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History as 22 required pursuant to NRS 33.095.

23 12. As used in this section, "agency of criminal justice" has 24 the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 179A.030.

25 Sec. 4. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2021.
