

Assembly Bill No. 431–Assemblyman Frierson

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to convicted persons; revising provisions governing the right to vote for convicted persons, and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law requires the restoration of certain civil rights, including the right to vote, for persons who have been convicted of certain felonies and discharged from probation or parole or released from prison. Existing law restores the right to vote immediately upon such persons as of the date of their discharge from probation or parole or release from prison, except for persons who have previously been convicted of certain offenses. If the person was convicted of a category B felony involving the use of force or violence under certain circumstances, existing law provides that the person’s right to vote is automatically restored 2 years after his or her discharge from probation or parole or release from prison. If the person was convicted of: (1) a category A felony under certain circumstances; (2) a category B felony that resulted in substantial bodily harm to the victim under certain circumstances; or (3) a felony two or more times under certain circumstances, existing law authorizes that person, after his or her discharge from probation or parole or release from prison, to petition a court to restore his or her civil rights, including the right to vote. (NRS 176A.850, 213.155, 213.157)

Sections 1 and 2 of this bill maintain the right to vote of a person who has been convicted of a crime but is not in prison. Section 3 of this bill immediately restores the right to vote to a person who has been released from prison. Section 7 of this bill provides for the restoration of the right to vote to certain residents of this State who: (1) have not had their right to vote restored; (2) are not serving a sentence of imprisonment on July 1, 2019; and (3) before July 1, 2019, were discharged from probation or parole or released from prison after serving their sentences.

Existing law requires a county clerk to cancel a person’s registration to vote if the person was convicted of a felony unless the person: (1) was convicted of a felony in this State and his or her right to vote has been restored; or (2) was convicted of a felony in another state and his or her right to vote has been restored under the laws of that state. (NRS 293.540) Section 5 of this bill removes the requirement that the county clerk cancel the registration of a person who has been convicted of a felony and is not currently serving a term of imprisonment, thereby maintaining the right to vote of such a person.

Existing law also authorizes an elector who was previously convicted of a crime and whose preregistration to vote has been cancelled by the county clerk to reregister to vote if the elector’s: (1) conviction has been overturned; or (2) civil rights have been restored pursuant to the laws of the state in which the person was convicted. (NRS 293.543) Section 6 of this bill authorizes such an elector who was convicted of a felony to reregister to vote if the elector is not incarcerated.
