EXPLANATION – Matter in bolded italics is new; matter between brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to partnerships; exempting, under certain circumstances, certain persons from liability as a partner by estoppel and liability as a purported partner; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law sets forth various provisions governing partnerships, including the 2 formation of such business associations and the rights and obligations of partners in 3 a partnership. (Chapter 87 of NRS) Under existing law, partnerships are governed 4 either by the provisions of the Uniform Partnership Act, which were enacted in 5 1931, or the more recent provisions of the Uniform Partnership Act, which were 6 enacted in 1997, depending on the date of the partnership’s formation. (NRS
7 87.025, 87.4314) Also under existing law, a person who is not an actual partner of a 8 partnership may be held liable as a partner under certain circumstances and as a
9 result of the words or conduct of the person. (NRS 87.160, 87.4332) This bill 10 provides that those provisions do not apply to a person who announces an 11 association of persons for the sole purpose of a business development, regardless of 12 whether such an announcement uses, or the association is described by, certain 13 terms, so long as the business development is undertaken by one or more 14 corporations or limited-liability companies.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 87.160 is hereby amended to read as follows:
2 87.160 1. When a person, by words spoken or written or by 3 conduct, represents himself or herself, or consents to another
4 representing him or her to anyone, as a partner in an existing

1 partnership or with one or more persons not actual partners, the 2 person is liable to any such person to whom such representation has 3 been made who has, on the faith of such representation, given credit
4 to the actual or apparent partnership, and if the person has made
5 such representation or consented to its being made in a public 6 manner the person is liable to such person, whether the 7 representation has or has not been made or communicated to such 8 person so giving credit by or with the knowledge of the apparent
9 partner making the representation or consenting to its being made.

10 (a) When a partnership liability results, the person is liable as 11 though the person were an actual member of the partnership.

12 (b) When no partnership liability results, the person is liable
13 jointly with the other persons, if any, so consenting to the contract
14 or representation as to incur liability, otherwise separately.

15 2. When a person has been thus represented to be a partner in 16 an existing partnership, or with one or more persons not actual 17 partners, the person is an agent of the persons consenting to such 18 representation to bind them to the same extent and in the same 19 manner as though he or she were a partner in fact, with respect to 20 persons who rely upon the representation. Where all the members of 21 the existing partnership consent to the representation, a partnership 22 act or obligation results; but in all other cases it is the joint act or 23 obligation of the person acting and the persons consenting to the 24 representation.

25 3. This section does not apply to any person who, by words 26 spoken or written or by conduct, announces an association of 27 persons for the sole purpose of a business development, regardless
28 of whether such an announcement uses, or the association of 29 persons is described by, the terms "partnering" or "joint
30 venturing" or any other similar term, so long as the business
31 development is undertaken by one or more corporations or 32 limited-liability companies.

33 Sec. 2. NRS 87.4332 is hereby amended to read as follows:

34 87.4332 1. If a person, by words or conduct, purports to be a 35 partner, or consents to being represented by another as a partner, in 36 a partnership or with one or more persons not partners, the 37 purported partner is liable to a person to whom the representation is 38 made, if that person, relying on the representation, enters into a 39 transaction with the actual or purported partnership. If the 40 representation, either by the purported partner or by a person with 41 the purported partner's consent, is made in a public manner, the 42 purported partner is liable to a person who relies upon the purported 43 partnership even if the purported partner is not aware of being held 44 out as a partner to the claimant. If partnership liability results, the 45 purported partner is liable with respect to that liability as if the

1 purported partner were a partner. If no partnership liability results, 2 the purported partner is liable with respect to that liability jointly 3 and severally with any other person consenting to the representation.

4 2. If a person is thus represented to be a partner in an existing 5 partnership, or with one or more persons not partners, the purported 6 partner is an agent of persons consenting to the representation to 7 bind them to the same extent and in the same manner as if the 8 purported partner were a partner, with respect to persons who enter 9 into transactions in reliance upon the representation. If all of the 10 partners of the existing partnership consent to the representation, a 11 partnership act or obligation results. If fewer than all of the partners
12 of the existing partnership consent to the representation, the person 13 acting and the partners consenting to the representation are jointly 14 and severally liable.

15 3. A person is not liable as a partner merely because the person
16 is named by another in a statement of partnership authority.

17 4. A person does not continue to be liable as a partner merely 18 because of a failure to file a statement of dissociation or to amend a 19 statement of partnership authority to indicate the partner's
20 dissociation from the partnership.

21 5. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 1 and 2, persons 22 who are not partners as to each other are not liable as partners to 23 other persons.

24 6. Subsections 1 and 2 do not apply to any person who, by 25 words spoken or written or conduct, announces an association of 26 persons for the sole purpose of a business development, regardless
27 of whether such an announcement uses, or the association of
28 persons is described by, the terms "partnering" or "joint
29 venturing" or any other similar term, so long as the business
30 development is undertaken by one or more corporations or
31 limited-liability companies.

32 Sec. 3. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.
