

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to crimes; extending the period during which criminal records may not be sealed if the crime is related to certain crimes involving Medicaid; revising provisions relating to incentives for bringing certain actions for false or fraudulent Medicaid claims; revising provisions governing the distribution of amounts collected to private plaintiffs in actions for false claims; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law provides that a person convicted of a crime may, after the passage of specified periods, petition the court in which he or she was convicted for the sealing of all records of the conviction. Upon receiving such a petition, the court is required to notify the law enforcement agency that arrested the petitioner and the prosecuting attorney for the city or county who prosecuted the petitioner that the petitioner is seeking to have the records of the conviction sealed. The prosecuting attorney is authorized to testify and present evidence at any hearing concerning the petition. (NRS 179.245) Section 2 of this bill provides that a person who is convicted of a misdemeanor or gross misdemeanor for fraud or certain other offenses committed in connection with the State Plan for Medicaid is not entitled to file a petition for the sealing of records relating to his or her conviction until at least 7 years after the date of the person’s release from actual custody or from the date when the person is no longer under a suspended sentence, whichever occurs later. Section 2 also requires the court to provide notice of such a petition to the Attorney General if he or she was the prosecuting attorney who prosecuted the person for the crime.

The federal Deficit Reduction Act of 2005, Public Law 109-171, enacted certain provisions concerning state plans for Medicaid. Section 6031 of the Act provides financial incentives for states that enact laws establishing liability for false or fraudulent claims made to the State Plan for Medicaid. (42 U.S.C. § 1396h) To be eligible for these financial incentives, the laws of a state must contain provisions that are at least as effective at rewarding and facilitating certain qui tam actions for false or fraudulent claims as those described in the federal False Claims Act. (31 U.S.C. §§ 3730-3732) Sections 3-8 and 10 of this bill amend existing law concerning the filing of false or fraudulent claims so that the laws of this State are at least as effective at rewarding and facilitating such actions as the provisions described in federal law.

Under existing law, a private plaintiff who initiates a civil action against a person for filing a false claim or otherwise defrauding the State or one of its political subdivisions, commonly called a qui tam action, is entitled to receive a percentage of the amount of any penalty recovered from the defendant according to the extent of the private plaintiff’s contribution to the conduct of the action or an amount the court trying the action otherwise determines to be reasonable. (NRS 357.210) Section 9 of this bill reduces from 33 percent to 25 percent the maximum share of any recovery to which a private plaintiff is entitled in certain qui tam actions if the Attorney General or the Attorney General’s designee intervenes in the action at its outset. Section 9 also reduces from 50 percent to 33 percent the maximum share of any recovery to which a private plaintiff is entitled in certain qui tam actions if the Attorney General or the Attorney General's designee does not intervene in the action at its outset.

A finding of guilty or guilty but mentally ill in a criminal proceeding charging false statement or fraud, whether upon a verdict of guilty or guilty but mentally ill or a plea of guilty, guilty but mentally ill or nolo contendere, estops the person found guilty or guilty but mentally ill from denying an essential element of that offense in an action pursuant to this chapter based upon the same transaction as the criminal proceeding.

Sec. 9. NRS 357.210 is hereby amended to read as follows:

357.210 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, if the Attorney General or a designee of the Attorney General pursuant to NRS 357.070 intervenes at the outset in an action pursuant to NRS 357.080, the private plaintiff is entitled to receive not less than 15 percent or more than ~~33~~ 25 percent of any recovery, according to the extent of his or her contribution to the conduct of the action.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, if the Attorney General or the Attorney General's designee does not intervene in the action at the outset, the private plaintiff is entitled to receive not less than 25 percent or more than ~~50~~ 30 percent of any recovery, as the court determines to be reasonable.

3. Regardless of whether the Attorney General or the Attorney General's designee intervenes in the action, if the court finds that the action was brought by a private plaintiff who planned or initiated the violation of NRS 357.040 upon which the action is based, the court may reduce the recovery to which the private plaintiff is otherwise entitled pursuant to subsection 1 or 2. The court shall consider the role of the private plaintiff in advancing the action and any other relevant circumstances. If the private plaintiff is convicted of criminal conduct arising from his or her role in the violation of NRS 357.040, the private plaintiff must be dismissed from the civil action and must not receive any share of the recovery pursuant to subsection 1 or 2. Any such dismissal does not prejudice the right of the Attorney General or the Attorney General's designee to continue the action.

Sec. 10. NRS 357.250 is hereby amended to read as follows:

357.250 1. If an employee, contractor or agent is discharged, demoted, suspended, threatened, harassed or discriminated against in the terms and conditions of employment as a result of any lawful act of the employee, contractor, ~~or~~ agent or associated others in furtherance of an action brought pursuant to this chapter ~~or~~ or any other effort to stop a violation of this chapter, the employee, contractor or agent is entitled to all relief necessary to make the employee, contractor or agent whole, including, without limitation, reinstatement with the same seniority as if the discharge, demotion, suspension, threat, harassment or discrimination had not occurred or damages in lieu of reinstatement if appropriate, twice the amount of lost compensation, interest on the lost compensation, any special damage sustained as a result of the discharge, demotion, suspension, threat, harassment or discrimination and punitive damages if appropriate. The employee, contractor or agent may also receive compensation for expenses recoverable pursuant to NRS 357.180, costs and attorney's fees.

2. A civil action brought pursuant to this section may not be brought more than 3 years after the date on which the discharge, demotion, suspension, threat, harassment or discrimination occurred.

Sec. 11. NRS 357.225 is hereby repealed.

Sec. 12. This act becomes effective upon passage and approval.
