AN ACT relating to public safety; revising the period for the mandatory arrest of a person suspected of committing certain crimes against certain persons; revising the list of acts that constitute domestic violence when committed against certain persons; authorizing a court to include in certain orders for protection a provision authorizing the recording of certain communications; revising the penalties for the commission of certain crimes in violation of certain orders for protection; prohibiting a court from granting probation to or suspending the sentence of a person charged with committing a battery which constitutes domestic violence under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 With certain exceptions, existing law requires a peace officer to arrest a person 2 when the peace officer has probable cause to believe that the person to be arrested 3 has, within the preceding 24 hours, committed a battery which constitutes domestic 4 violence. (NRS 171.137) Existing law also requires a peace officer investigating an 5 act of domestic violence to provide a person suspected of being the victim of an act 6 of domestic violence with a written statement setting forth the circumstances under 7 which the peace officer is required to arrest the person suspected of committing the 8 act of domestic violence. (NRS 171.1225) Section 2 of this bill extends the period 9 during which a peace officer is required to arrest a person suspected of committing 10 a battery which constitutes domestic violence from within 24 hours after the alleged 11 battery to within 14 days after the alleged battery. Section 1 of this bill makes a

12 conforming change to the written statement a peace officer must provide to a 13 suspected victim of domestic violence.

14 Existing law authorizes a peace officer, whether or not a warrant has been 15 issued, to arrest a person when the peace officer has probable cause to believe that 16 the person to be arrested has, within the preceding 24 hours, committed a battery 17 upon a person with whom he or she is actually residing or upon a sibling or cousin, 18 if the person is not the custodian or guardian of the sibling or cousin.
19 (NRS 171.1375) Section 3 of this bill extends that period for such a discretionary 20 arrest from within 24 hours after the alleged battery to within 14 days after the 21 alleged battery.

22 Existing law sets forth a list of certain unlawful acts that constitute domestic 23 violence when committed against or upon certain persons. (NRS 33.018) Section 5 24 of this bill expands the list of acts that constitute domestic violence to include an 25 attempt to commit any of those acts. Sections 4, 9-13, 19 and 20 of this bill make a 26 conforming change to include in the definition of domestic violence an attempt to 27 commit any of those acts.

28 Existing law authorizes a court to issue a temporary or extended order for 29 protection against domestic violence if it appears to the satisfaction of the court that 30 an act of domestic violence has occurred or there exists a threat of domestic 31 violence. (NRS 33.020, 33.030) Existing law also makes it unlawful, with certain 32 exceptions, for a person to record his or her own telephone call without the consent 33 of the other person on the call. (NRS 200.620; Lane v. Allstate Ins. Co., 114 Nev.
34 1176 (1998), cited, McLellan v. State, 124 Nev. 263 (2008)) Section 6 of this bill 35 provides that a court issuing a temporary or extended order for protection against 36 domestic violence may, after considering certain factors, include a provision in the 37 order authorizing the person who applied for the order to record any 38 communication with the adverse party for the purpose of obtaining evidence 39 reasonably believed to relate to a violation of the order. Sections 7, 8, 15 and 17 of 40 this bill provide that a court may make a similar authorization regarding the 41 recording of communications for a person who applies for a temporary or extended 42 order: (1) for protection against harassment in the workplace; (2) for the protection 43 of a child; (3) to restrict the conduct of a person who may have committed sexual 44 assault; or (4) to restrict the conduct of a person who may have committed the 45 crime of stalking, aggravated stalking or harassment. Section 18 of this bill makes 46 a conforming change to provide an exception to the general prohibition on 47 intercepting or attempting to intercept a wire communication if such an interception 48 has been authorized by a court in its order pursuant to section 6-8, 15 or 17.

49 Existing law provides that a person who commits a crime that is punishable as a 50 felony in violation of certain orders for protection must, in addition to the term of 51 imprisonment for the underlying crime, be punished by imprisonment for a 52 minimum term of not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 20
53 years. However, if the underlying crime is punishable as a category A or B felony, 54 the person must be additionally punished by imprisonment for a minimum term of 55 not less than 1 year and a maximum term of not more than 5 years. (NRS 193.166)
56 Section 14 of this bill provides instead that if the underlying crime is punishable as 57 a category A or B felony, the additional period of imprisonment must be for a 58 maximum term of not more than 20 years, but if the underlying crime is not 59 punishable as a category A or B felony, the additional period of imprisonment must 60 be for a maximum term of not more than 5 years.

61 Existing law provides that a court may not grant probation to or suspend the 62 sentence of a person who is charged with committing a battery which constitutes 63 domestic violence that is punishable as a misdemeanor, except that: (1) a justice 64 court or municipal court may suspend the sentence of such a person under certain 65 circumstances; and (2) a court may suspend the sentence of such a person to assign 66 the person to a program for the treatment of veterans and members of the military.

67 Existing law does not expressly prohibit a court from granting probation to or 68 suspending the sentence of a person who is charged with committing a battery 69 which constitutes domestic violence that is punishable as a gross misdemeanor or 70 felony. (NRS 200.485) Section 16 of this bill maintains such existing law with 71 respect to a person who is charged with committing a battery which constitutes 72 domestic violence that is punishable as a misdemeanor, but prohibits the granting of 73 probation to or suspension of sentence of a person who is charged with committing 74 a battery which constitutes domestic violence that is punishable as a gross 75 misdemeanor or felony.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. NRS 171.1225 is hereby amended to read as 2 follows:

3 171.1225 1. When investigating an act of domestic violence, 4 a peace officer shall:

5 (a) Make a good faith effort to explain the provisions of NRS 6 171.137 pertaining to domestic violence and advise victims of all 7 reasonable means to prevent further abuse, including advising each 8 person of the availability of a shelter or other services in the 9 community.

10 (b) Provide a person suspected of being the victim of an act of 11 domestic violence with a written copy of the following statements:

12 (1) My name is Officer (naming the 13 investigating officer). Nevada law requires me to inform you of the 14 following information.

15 (2) If I have probable cause to believe that a battery has been 16 committed against you, your minor child or the minor child of the 17 person believed to have committed the battery in the last ~~[24 hours]~~ 18 14 days by your spouse, your former spouse, any other person to 19 whom you are related by blood or marriage, a person with whom 20 you have had or are having a dating relationship or a person with 21 whom you have a child in common, I am required, unless mitigating 22 circumstances exist, to arrest the person suspected of committing the 23 battery.

24 (3) If I am unable to arrest the person suspected of 25 committing the battery, you have the right to request that the 26 prosecutor file a criminal complaint against the person. I can 27 provide you with information on this procedure. If convicted, the 28 person who committed the battery may be placed on probation, 29 ordered to see a counselor, put in jail or fined.

30 (4) The law provides that you may seek a court order for the 31 protection of you, your minor children or any animal that is owned 32 or kept by you, by the person who committed or threatened the act 33 of domestic violence or by the minor child of either such person

1 against further threats or acts of domestic violence. You do not need 2 to hire a lawyer to obtain such an order for protection.

3 (5) An order for protection may require the person who 4 committed or threatened the act of domestic violence against you to:

5 (I) Stop threatening, harassing or injuring you or your 6 children;

7 (II) Move out of your residence;

8 (III) Stay away from your place of employment;

9 (IV) Stay away from the school attended by your 10 children;

11 (V) Stay away from any place you or your children 12 regularly go;

13 (VI) Avoid or limit all communication with you or your 14 children;

15 (VII) Stop physically injuring, threatening to injure or 16 taking possession of any animal that is owned or kept by you or 17 your children, either directly or through an agent; and

18 (VIII) Stop physically injuring or threatening to injure 19 any animal that is owned or kept by the person who committed or 20 threatened the act or his or her children, either directly or through an 21 agent.

22 (6) A court may make future orders for protection which 23 award you custody of your children and require the person who 24 committed or threatened the act of domestic violence against you to:

25 (I) Pay the rent or mortgage due on the place in which 26 you live;

27 (II) Pay the amount of money necessary for the support of 28 your children;

29 (III) Pay part or all of the costs incurred by you in 30 obtaining the order for protection; and

31 (IV) Comply with the arrangements specified for the 32 possession and care of any animal owned or kept by you or your 33 children or by the person who committed or threatened the act or his 34 or her children.

35 (7) To get an order for protection, go to room number 36 (state the room number of the office at the court) at the court, which 37 is located at (state the address of the court). Ask the 38 clerk of the court to provide you with the forms for an order of 39 protection.

40 (8) If the person who committed or threatened the act of 41 domestic violence against you violates the terms of an order for 42 protection, the person may be arrested and, if:

43 (I) The arresting officer determines that such a violation 44 is accompanied by a direct or indirect threat of harm;

1 (II) The person has previously violated a temporary or 2 extended order for protection; or

3 (III) At the time of the violation or within 2 hours after 4 the violation, the person has a concentration of alcohol of 0.08 or 5 more in the person's blood or breath or an amount of a prohibited 6 substance in the person's blood or urine, as applicable, that is equal 7 to or greater than the amount set forth in subsection 3 or 4 of 8 NRS 484C.110,

9 ➔ the person will not be admitted to bail sooner than 12 hours after 10 arrest.

11 (9) You may obtain emergency assistance or shelter by 12 contacting your local program against domestic violence at 13 (state name, address and telephone number of local 14 program) or you may call, without charge to you, the Statewide 15 Program Against Domestic Violence at (state toll-16 free telephone number of Statewide Program).

17 2. The failure of a peace officer to carry out the requirements
18 set forth in subsection 1 is not a defense in a criminal prosecution 19 for the commission of an act of domestic violence, nor may such an 20 omission be considered as negligence or as causation in any civil 21 action against the peace officer or the officer's employer.

22 3. As used in this section:

23 (a) "Act of domestic violence" means any of the following acts 24 committed by a person against his or her spouse, former spouse, any 25 other person to whom he or she is related by blood or marriage, a 26 person with whom he or she has had or is having a dating 27 relationship, a person with whom he or she has a child in common, 28 the minor child of any of those persons or his or her minor child:

29 (1) A battery.

30 (2) An assault.

31 (3) Compelling the other by force or threat of force to 32 perform an act from which he or she has the right to refrain or to 33 refrain from an act which he or she has the right to perform.

34 (4) A sexual assault.

35 (5) A knowing, purposeful or reckless course of conduct 36 intended to harass the other. Such conduct may include, but is not 37 limited to:

38 (I) Stalking.

39 (II) Arson.

40 (III) Trespassing.

41 (IV) Larceny.

42 (V) Destruction of private property.

43 (VI) Carrying a concealed weapon without a permit.

44 (VII) Injuring or killing an animal.

45 (6) False imprisonment.

1 (7) Unlawful entry of the other's residence, or forcible entry 2 against the other's will if there is a reasonably foreseeable risk of 3 harm to the other from the entry.

4 (b) "Dating relationship" means frequent, intimate associations 5 primarily characterized by the expectation of affectional or sexual 6 involvement. The term does not include a casual relationship or an 7 ordinary association between persons in a business or social context.

8 Sec. 2. NRS 171.137 is hereby amended to read as follows:

9 171.137 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, 10 whether or not a warrant has been issued, a peace officer shall, 11 unless mitigating circumstances exist, arrest a person when the 12 peace officer has probable cause to believe that the person to be 13 arrested has, within the preceding ~~[24 hours,]~~ 14 days, committed a 14 battery upon his or her spouse, former spouse, any other person to 15 whom he or she is related by blood or marriage, a person with 16 whom he or she has had or is having a dating relationship, a person 17 with whom he or she has a child in common, the minor child of any 18 of those persons, his or her minor child or a person who is the 19 custodian or guardian of his or her minor child.

20 2. If the peace officer has probable cause to believe that a 21 battery described in subsection 1 was a mutual battery, the peace 22 officer shall attempt to determine which person was the primary 23 physical aggressor. If the peace officer determines that one of the 24 persons who allegedly committed a battery was the primary physical 25 aggressor involved in the incident, the peace officer is not required 26 to arrest any other person believed to have committed a battery 27 during the incident. In determining whether a person is a primary 28 physical aggressor for the purposes of this subsection, the peace 29 officer shall consider:

30 (a) Prior domestic violence involving either person;

31 (b) The relative severity of the injuries inflicted upon the 32 persons involved;

33 (c) The potential for future injury;

34 (d) Whether one of the alleged batteries was committed in self-35 defense; and

36 (e) Any other factor that may help the peace officer decide 37 which person was the primary physical aggressor.

38 3. A peace officer shall not base a decision regarding whether 39 to arrest a person pursuant to this section on the peace officer's 40 perception of the willingness of a victim or a witness to the incident 41 to testify or otherwise participate in related judicial proceedings.

42 4. Nothing in this section shall be construed to impose liability
43 upon a peace officer or his or her employer for a determination
44 made in good faith by the peace officer not to arrest a person
45 pursuant to this section.

1 5. The provisions of this section do not apply to:

2 (a) Siblings, except those siblings who are in a custodial or 3 guardianship relationship with each other; or

4 (b) Cousins, except those cousins who are in a custodial or 5 guardianship relationship with each other.

6 6. As used in this section, "dating relationship" means
7 frequent, intimate associations primarily characterized by the 8 expectation of affectional or sexual involvement. The term does not 9 include a casual relationship or an ordinary association between 10 persons in a business or social context.

11 Sec. 3. NRS 171.1375 is hereby amended to read as follows:

12 171.1375 1. Whether or not a warrant has been issued, a 13 peace officer may arrest a person when the peace officer has 14 probable cause to believe that the person to be arrested has, within 15 the preceding ~~[24 hours,]~~ 14 days, committed a battery upon:

16 (a) A person with whom he or she is actually residing;

17 (b) A sibling, if the person is not the custodian or guardian of 18 the sibling; or

19 (c) A cousin, if the person is not the custodian or guardian of the 20 cousin.

21 2. Nothing in this section shall be construed to impose liability
22 upon a peace officer or his or her employer for a determination
23 made in good faith by the peace officer not to arrest a person
24 pursuant to this section.

25 Sec. 4. NRS 178.494 is hereby amended to read as follows:

26 178.494 1. If it appears by affidavit that the testimony of a 27 person is material in any criminal proceeding and if it is shown that 28 it may become impracticable to secure the person's presence by 29 subpoena, the magistrate may require bail for the person's 30 appearance as a witness, in an amount fixed by the magistrate. If the 31 person fails to give bail the magistrate may:

32 (a) Commit the person to the custody of a peace officer pending 33 final disposition of the proceeding in which the testimony is needed;

34 (b) Order the person's release if the person has been detained for 35 an unreasonable length of time; and

36 (c) Modify at any time the requirement as to bail.

37 2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, every person 38 detained as a material witness must be brought before a judge or 39 magistrate as soon as practicable, but not later than 72 hours after 40 the beginning of the detention. The judge or magistrate shall 41 consider the least restrictive means to secure the person's presence 42 and make a determination whether:

43 (a) The amount of bail required to be given by the material 44 witness should be modified; and

1 (b) The detention of the material witness should continue. If the 2 court determines that detention of the material witness should 3 continue, the court must make written findings stating why 4 detention should continue.

5 3. A person detained as a material witness pursuant to this 6 section who is a victim of domestic violence or sexual assault:

7 (a) Must be brought before a judge or magistrate, as soon as 8 practicable, but not later than 24 hours after the beginning of the 9 detention;

10 (b) May be detained or continue detention pursuant to a 11 determination by telephone; and

12 (c) Must have an attorney appointed by the judge or magistrate, 13 who, to the extent practicable, shall participate in any determination 14 regarding detention pursuant to this section.

15 4. The judge or magistrate shall:

16 (a) Set a schedule for the periodic review of whether the amount 17 of bail required should be modified and whether detention should 18 continue; and

19 (b) Schedule the case in which the material witness will testify 20 to take place as soon as possible if substantial rights of the 21 defendant are not prejudiced.

22 5. As used in this section:

23 (a) "Domestic violence" means the commission of or the 24 attempt to commit any act described in NRS 33.018.

25 (b) "Sexual assault" has the meaning ascribed to it in 26 NRS 49.2543.

27 Sec. 5. NRS 33.018 is hereby amended to read as follows:

28 33.018 1. Domestic violence occurs when a person commits 29 or attempts to commit one of the following acts against or upon the 30 person's spouse or former spouse, any other person to whom the 31 person is related by blood or marriage, any other person with whom 32 the person has had or is having a dating relationship, any other 33 person with whom the person has a child in common, the minor 34 child of any of those persons, the person's minor child or any other 35 person who has been appointed the custodian or legal guardian for 36 the person's minor child:

37 (a) A battery.

38 (b) An assault.

39 (c) Coercion pursuant to NRS 207.190.

40 (d) A sexual assault.

41 (e) A knowing, purposeful or reckless course of conduct 42 intended to harass the other person. Such conduct may include, but 43 is not limited to:

44 (1) Stalking.

45 (2) Arson.

- 1 (3) Trespassing.
2 (4) Larceny.
3 (5) Destruction of private property.
4 (6) Carrying a concealed weapon without a permit.
5 (7) Injuring or killing an animal.
6 (8) Burglary.
7 (9) An invasion of the home.
8 (f) A false imprisonment.
9 (g) Pandering.
- 10 2. The provisions of this section do not apply to:
11 (a) Siblings, except those siblings who are in a custodial or 12 guardianship relationship with each other; or
13 (b) Cousins, except those cousins who are in a custodial or 14 guardianship relationship with each other.
- 15 3. As used in this section, “dating relationship” means
16 frequent, intimate associations primarily characterized by the 17 expectation of affectional or sexual involvement. The term does not 18 include a casual relationship or an ordinary association between 19 persons in a business or social context.
- 20 Sec. 6. NRS 33.030 is hereby amended to read as follows:
21 33.030 1. The court by a temporary order may:
22 (a) Enjoin the adverse party from threatening, physically 23 injuring or harassing the applicant or minor child, either directly or 24 through an agent;
25 (b) Exclude the adverse party from the applicant’s place of 26 residence;
27 (c) Prohibit the adverse party from entering the residence, 28 school or place of employment of the applicant or minor child and 29 order the adverse party to stay away from any specified place 30 frequented regularly by them;
31 (d) If it has jurisdiction under chapter 125A of NRS, grant 32 temporary custody of the minor child to the applicant;
33 (e) Enjoin the adverse party from physically injuring, 34 threatening to injure or taking possession of any animal that is 35 owned or kept by the applicant or minor child, either directly or 36 through an agent;
37 (f) Enjoin the adverse party from physically injuring or 38 threatening to injure any animal that is owned or kept by the adverse 39 party, either directly or through an agent; and 40 (g) Order such other relief as it deems necessary in an 41 emergency situation.
- 42 2. The court by an extended order may grant any relief 43 enumerated in subsection 1 and:

1 (a) Specify arrangements for visitation of the minor child by the 2 adverse party and require supervision of that visitation by a third 3 party if necessary;

4 (b) Specify arrangements for the possession and care of any 5 animal owned or kept by the adverse party, applicant or minor child; 6 and

7 (c) Order the adverse party to:

8 (1) Avoid or limit communication with the applicant or 9 minor child;

10 (2) Pay rent or make payments on a mortgage on the 11 applicant's place of residence;

12 (3) Pay for the support of the applicant or minor child, 13 including, without limitation, support of a minor child for whom a 14 guardian has been appointed pursuant to chapter 159A of NRS or a 15 minor child who has been placed in protective custody pursuant to 16 chapter 432B of NRS, if the adverse party is found to have a duty to 17 support the applicant or minor child;

18 (4) Pay all costs and fees incurred by the applicant in 19 bringing the action; and

20 (5) Pay monetary compensation to the applicant for lost 21 earnings and expenses incurred as a result of the applicant attending 22 any hearing concerning an application for an extended order.

23 3. If an extended order is issued by a justice court, an 24 interlocutory appeal lies to the district court, which may affirm, 25 modify or vacate the order in question. The appeal may be taken 26 without bond, but its taking does not stay the effect or enforcement 27 of the order.

28 4. A temporary or extended order must specify, as applicable, 29 the county and city, if any, in which the residence, school, child care 30 facility or other provider of child care, and place of employment of 31 the applicant or minor child are located.

32 5. A temporary or extended order must provide notice that:

33 (a) Responding to a communication initiated by the applicant 34 may constitute a violation of the protective order; and

35 (b) A person who is arrested for violating the order will not be 36 admitted to bail sooner than 12 hours after the person's arrest if:

37 (1) The arresting officer determines that such a violation is 38 accompanied by a direct or indirect threat of harm;

39 (2) The person has previously violated a temporary or 40 extended order for protection; or

41 (3) At the time of the violation or within 2 hours after the 42 violation, the person has:

44 person's blood or breath; or

1 (II) An amount of a prohibited substance in the person's 2 blood or urine, as applicable, that is equal to or greater than the 3 amount set forth in subsection 3 or 4 of NRS 484C.110.

4 6. The court may include a provision in a temporary or 5 extended order authorizing the applicant to record any 6 communication with the adverse party for the purpose of 7 obtaining evidence reasonably believed to relate to a violation of 8 the order. In determining whether to include such a provision in 9 the temporary or extended order, the court shall consider:

10 (a) Whether the adverse party and the applicant have a child 11 in common;

12 (b) Whether the adverse party has a history of engaging in 13 harassment or violent or threatening behavior; and 14 (c) Any other relevant factors.

15 Sec. 7. NRS 33.280 is hereby amended to read as follows:

16 33.280 1. A temporary or extended order for protection 17 against harassment in the workplace may:

18 (a) Enjoin the person who allegedly committed the harassment 19 from contacting the employer, an employee of the employer while 20 the employee is performing the employee's duties of employment 21 and any person while the person is present at the workplace of the 22 employer;

23 (b) Order the person who allegedly committed the harassment to 24 stay away from the workplace of the employer; and

25 (c) Order such other relief as the court deems necessary to 26 protect the employer, the workplace of the employer, the employees 27 of the employer while performing their duties of employment and 28 any other persons who are present at the workplace.

29 2. A court may not issue a temporary or extended order for 30 protection against harassment in the workplace that is against more 31 than one person.

32 3. A temporary or extended order for protection against 33 harassment in the workplace must:

34 (a) Specify, as applicable, the county and city, if any, in which 35 the workplace of the employer is located and in which the 36 employees of the employer perform their duties of employment;

37 (b) Include a provision ordering any law enforcement officer to 38 arrest the person who allegedly committed the harassment, with or 39 without a warrant, if the officer has probable cause to believe that 40 the person has been served with a copy of the order and has violated 41 a provision of the order;

42 (c) State the reasons for granting the order; and

43 (d) Include the following statement:
44
45

1 This is an official court order. If you disobey this order, you 2 may be arrested and prosecuted for the crime of violating an 3 order for protection against harassment in the workplace and 40 (b) A hearing is held on the petition.

41 5. If an extended order is issued by a justice court, an 42 interlocutory appeal lies to the district court, which may affirm,

27 Sec. 9. NRS 48.061 is hereby amended to read as follows:

45 charge against the defendant.

1 3. As used in this section, “domestic violence” means the 2 commission of or the attempt to commit any act described in 3 NRS 33.018.

4 Sec. 10. NRS 50.205 is hereby amended to read as follows:

5 50.205 1. In case of failure of a witness to attend, the court or 6 officer issuing the subpoena, upon proof of the service thereof and 7 of the failure of the witness, may issue a warrant to the sheriff of the 8 county to arrest the witness and bring the witness before the court or 9 officer where the attendance of the witness was required.

10 2. Upon the arrest of a witness pursuant to subsection 1, the 11 court or officer issuing the warrant shall appoint an attorney to 12 represent the witness and provide the attorney:

13 (a) With the last known contact information of the witness; and

16 detained pursuant to a warrant issued pursuant to this section must 17 be brought before the court or officer as soon as practicable but not 18 later than 72 hours after the beginning of the detention. The court or 19 officer shall consider the least restrictive means to secure the 20 presence of the witness and make a determination whether the 21 detention of the witness should continue. If the court determines that 22 the detention of the witness should continue, the court must make 23 written findings stating why detention should continue.

24 4. A person detained as a witness pursuant to this section who 25 is a victim of domestic violence or sexual assault:

42 attempt to commit any act described in NRS 33.018.

43 (b) “Sexual assault” has the meaning ascribed to it in 44 NRS 49.2543.

1 Sec. 11. NRS 118A.345 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2 118A.345 1. Notwithstanding any provision in a rental
3 agreement to the contrary, if a tenant, cotenant or household 4 member is the victim of domestic violence, harassment, sexual 5 assault or stalking, the tenant or any cotenant may terminate the 6 rental agreement by giving the landlord written notice of termination 7 effective at the end of the current rental period or 30 days after the 8 notice is provided to the landlord, whichever occurs sooner.

9 2. In the case of a termination of a rental agreement pursuant to 10 this section on the grounds that a tenant, cotenant or household
11 member is a victim of domestic violence, the written notice 12 provided to a landlord pursuant to subsection 1 must describe the 13 reason for the termination of the rental agreement and be 14 accompanied by:

15 (a) A copy of an order for protection against domestic violence 16 issued to the tenant, cotenant or household member who is the 17 victim of domestic violence;

18 (b) A copy of a written report from a law enforcement agency
19 indicating that the tenant, cotenant or household member notified 20 the law enforcement agency of the domestic violence; or

21 (c) A copy of a written affidavit in the form prescribed pursuant 22 to NRS 118A.347 and signed by a qualified third party acting in his 23 or her official capacity stating that the tenant, cotenant or household 24 member is a victim of domestic violence and identifying the adverse 25 party.

26 3. In the case of a termination of a rental agreement pursuant to 27 this section on the grounds that a tenant, cotenant or household 28 member is a victim of harassment, sexual assault or stalking, the 29 written notice provided to a landlord pursuant to subsection 1 must 30 describe the reason for the termination of the rental agreement and 31 be accompanied by:

32 (a) A copy of a written report from a law enforcement agency
33 indicating that the tenant, cotenant or household member notified 34 the law enforcement agency of the harassment, sexual assault or 35 stalking, as applicable; or

36 (b) A copy of a temporary or extended order issued pursuant to 37 NRS 200.378 or 200.591, as applicable.

38 4. A tenant or cotenant may terminate a rental agreement
39 pursuant to this section only if the actions, events or circumstances 40 that resulted in the tenant, cotenant or household member becoming 41 a victim of domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking 42 occurred within the 90 days immediately preceding the written 43 notice of termination to the landlord.

44 5. A tenant or cotenant who terminates a rental agreement 45 pursuant to this section is only liable, if solely or jointly liable for

1 purposes of the rental agreement, for any rent owed or required to be 2 paid through the date of termination and any other outstanding 3 obligations. If the tenant or cotenant has prepaid rent that would 4 apply for the rental period in which the rental agreement is 5 terminated, the landlord may retain the prepaid rent and no refund is 6 due to the tenant or cotenant unless the amount of the prepaid rent
7 exceeds what is owed for that rental period. Except as otherwise 8 provided in NRS 118A.242, if the tenant or cotenant has paid a 9 security deposit, the deposit must not be withheld for the early 10 termination of the rental agreement if the rental agreement is 11 terminated pursuant to this section.

12 6. A person who is named as the adverse party may be civilly 13 liable for all economic losses incurred by a landlord for the early 14 termination of a rental agreement pursuant to this section, including, 15 without limitation, unpaid rent, fees relating to early termination, 16 costs for the repair of any damages to the dwelling and any 17 reductions in or waivers of rent previously extended to the tenant or 18 cotenant who terminates the rental agreement pursuant to this 19 section.

20 7. A landlord shall not provide to an adverse party any 21 information concerning the whereabouts of a tenant, cotenant or 22 household member if the tenant or cotenant provided notice 23 pursuant to subsection 1.

24 8. If a tenant or cotenant provided notice pursuant to 25 subsection 1, the tenant, the cotenant or a household member may 26 require the landlord to install a new lock onto the dwelling if the 27 tenant, cotenant or household member pays the cost of installing the 28 new lock. A landlord complies with the requirements of this 29 subsection by:

30 (a) Rekeying the lock if the lock is in good working condition; 31 or

32 (b) Replacing the entire locking mechanism with a new locking 33 mechanism of equal or superior quality.

34 9. A landlord who installs a new lock pursuant to subsection 8 35 may retain a copy of the new key. Notwithstanding any provision in 36 a rental agreement to the contrary, the landlord shall:

37 (a) Refuse to provide a key which unlocks the new lock to an 38 adverse party.

39 (b) Refuse to provide to an adverse party, whether or not that 40 party is a tenant, cotenant or household member, access to the 41 dwelling to reclaim property unless a law enforcement officer is 42 present.

43 10. This section shall not be construed to limit a landlord's 44 right to terminate a rental agreement for reasons unrelated to 45 domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault or stalking.

1 11. Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the 2 termination of a rental agreement pursuant to this section:

3 (a) Must not be disclosed, described or characterized as an early 4 termination by a current landlord to a prospective landlord; and

5 (b) Is not required to be disclosed as an early termination by a 6 tenant or cotenant to a prospective landlord.

7 12. As used in this section:

8 (a) "Adverse party" means a person who is named in an order 9 for protection against domestic violence, harassment, sexual assault 10 or stalking, a written report from a law enforcement agency or a 11 written statement from a qualified third party and who is alleged to 12 be the cause of the early termination of a rental agreement pursuant 13 to this section.

14 (b) "Cotenant" means a tenant who, pursuant to a rental 15 agreement, is entitled to occupy a dwelling that another tenant is 16 also entitled to occupy pursuant to the same rental agreement.

17 (c) "Domestic violence" means the commission of or the 18 attempt to commit any act described in NRS 33.018.

19 (d) "Harassment" means a violation of NRS 200.571.

20 (e) "Household member" means any person who is related by 21 blood or marriage and is actually residing with a tenant or cotenant.

22 (f) "Qualified third party" means:

23 (1) A physician licensed to practice in this State;

25 and certified by the American Board of Psychiatry and Neurology, 26 Inc. or the American Osteopathic Board of Neurology and 27 Psychiatry of the American Osteopathic Association;

28 (3) A psychologist licensed to practice in this State;

29 (4) A social worker licensed to practice in this State;

30 (5) A registered nurse holding a master's degree in the field 31 of psychiatric nursing and licensed to practice professional nursing

34 counselor licensed to practice in this State pursuant to chapter 641A 35 of NRS;

36 (7) Any person who:

37 (I) Is employed by an agency or service which advises 38 persons regarding domestic violence or refers them to persons or 39 agencies where their request and needs can be met and who is 40 licensed to provide health care pursuant to the provisions of title 54 41 of NRS, or is a member of the board of directors or serves as the

2 and

3 (III) Is a resident of this State; or

4 (8) Any member of the clergy of a church or religious society
5 or denomination that is recognized as exempt under section

7 (c)(3), who has been chosen, elected or appointed in conformity 8 with the constitution, canons, rites, regulations or discipline of the 9 church or religious society or denomination and who is a resident of 10 this State.

11 (g) "Sexual assault" means a violation of NRS 200.366.

12 (h) "Stalking" means a violation of NRS 200.575.

13 Sec. 12. NRS 125C.0035 is hereby amended to read as 14 follows:

15 125C.0035 1. In any action for determining physical custody 16 of a minor child, the sole consideration of the court is the best 17 interest of the child. If it appears to the court that joint physical 18 custody would be in the best interest of the child, the court may 19 grant physical custody to the parties jointly.

20 2. Preference must not be given to either parent for the sole 21 reason that the parent is the mother or the father of the child.

22 3. The court shall award physical custody in the following 23 order of preference unless in a particular case the best interest of the 24 child requires otherwise:

25 (a) To both parents jointly pursuant to NRS 125C.0025 or to 26 either parent pursuant to NRS 125C.003. If the court does not enter 27 an order awarding joint physical custody of a child after either 28 parent has applied for joint physical custody, the court shall state in 29 its decision the reason for its denial of the parent's application.

30 (b) To a person or persons in whose home the child has been 31 living and where the child has had a wholesome and stable 32 environment.

33 (c) To any person related within the fifth degree of 34 consanguinity to the child whom the court finds suitable and able to 35 provide proper care and guidance for the child, regardless of 36 whether the relative resides within this State.

37 (d) To any other person or persons whom the court finds 38 suitable and able to provide proper care and guidance for the child.

39 4. In determining the best interest of the child, the court shall 40 consider and set forth its specific findings concerning, among other 41 things:

42 (a) The wishes of the child if the child is of sufficient age and 43 capacity to form an intelligent preference as to his or her physical 44 custody.

45 (b) Any nomination of a guardian for the child by a parent.

1 (c) Which parent is more likely to allow the child to have 2 frequent associations and a continuing relationship with the 3 noncustodial parent.

4 (d) The level of conflict between the parents.

5 (e) The ability of the parents to cooperate to meet the needs of 6 the child.

7 (f) The mental and physical health of the parents.

8 (g) The physical, developmental and emotional needs of the 9 child.

10 (h) The nature of the relationship of the child with each parent.

11 (i) The ability of the child to maintain a relationship with any 12 sibling.

13 (j) Any history of parental abuse or neglect of the child or a 14 sibling of the child.

15 (k) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical 16 custody has engaged in an act of domestic violence against the 17 child, a parent of the child or any other person residing with the 18 child.

19 (l) Whether either parent or any other person seeking physical 20 custody has committed any act of abduction against the child or any 21 other child.

22 5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6 or NRS
23 125C.210, a determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing 24 and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or 25 any other person seeking physical custody has engaged in one or 26 more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of the 27 child or any other person residing with the child creates a rebuttable 28 presumption that sole or joint physical custody of the child by the 29 perpetrator of the domestic violence is not in the best interest of the 30 child. Upon making such a determination, the court shall set forth:

31 (a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or 32 more acts of domestic violence occurred; and

33 (b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered
34 by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other 35 victim of domestic violence who resided with the child.

36 6. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 5 37 the court determines that each party has engaged in acts of domestic 38 violence, it shall, if possible, then determine which person was the 39 primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the 40 primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court 41 shall consider:

42 (a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving either party;

43 (b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the 44 persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;

45 (c) The likelihood of future injury;

1 (d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in 2 self-defense; and

3 (e) Any other factors which the court deems relevant to the 4 determination.

5 ↪ In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine
6 which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption 7 created pursuant to subsection 5 applies to both parties. If it is 8 possible for the court to determine which party is the primary
9 physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 5
10 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary 11 physical aggressor.

12 7. A determination by the court after an evidentiary hearing 13 and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either parent or 14 any other person seeking physical custody has committed any act of 15 abduction against the child or any other child creates a rebuttable 16 presumption that sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised 17 visitation of the child by the perpetrator of the abduction is not in 18 the best interest of the child. If the parent or other person seeking 19 physical custody does not rebut the presumption, the court shall not 20 enter an order for sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised 21 visitation of the child by the perpetrator and the court shall set forth:

22 (a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or 23 more acts of abduction occurred; and

24 (b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered
25 by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other 26 person from whom the child was abducted.

27 8. For the purposes of subsection 7, any of the following acts 28 constitute conclusive evidence that an act of abduction occurred:

29 (a) A conviction of the defendant of any violation of NRS
30 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other
31 jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct;

32 (b) A plea of guilty or nolo contendere by the defendant to any 33 violation of NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law 34 of any other jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct; 35 or

36 (c) An admission by the defendant to the court of the facts
37 contained in the charging document alleging a violation of NRS
38 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other
39 jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

40 9. If, after a court enters a final order concerning physical 41 custody of the child, a magistrate determines there is probable cause 42 to believe that an act of abduction has been committed against the 43 child or any other child and that a person who has been awarded 44 sole or joint physical custody or unsupervised visitation of the child 45 has committed the act, the court shall, upon a motion to modify the

1 order concerning physical custody, reconsider the previous order 2 concerning physical custody pursuant to subsections 7 and 8.

3 10. As used in this section:

4 (a) "Abduction" means the commission of an act described in 5 NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359 or a law of any other
6 jurisdiction that prohibits the same or similar conduct.

7 (b) "Domestic violence" means the commission of or the 8 attempt to commit any act described in NRS 33.018.

9 Sec. 13. NRS 125C.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

10 125C.230 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125C.210
11 and 125C.220, a determination by the court after an evidentiary
12 hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either 13 parent or any other person seeking custody of a child has engaged in 14 one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of 15 the child or any other person residing with the child creates a 16 rebuttable presumption that sole or joint custody of the child by the 17 perpetrator of the domestic violence is not in the best interest of the 18 child. Upon making such a determination, the court shall set forth:

19 (a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or 20 more acts of domestic violence occurred; and

21 (b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered
22 by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other
23 victim of domestic violence who resided with the child.

24 2. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 1 25 the court determines that more than one party has engaged in acts of 26 domestic violence, it shall, if possible, determine which person was 27 the primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the 28 primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court 29 shall consider:

30 (a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving any of the 31 parties;

32 (b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the 33 persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;

34 (c) The likelihood of future injury;

35 (d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in 36 self-defense; and

37 (e) Any other factors that the court deems relevant to the 38 determination.

39 ↪ In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine
40 which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption
41 created pursuant to subsection 1 applies to each of the parties. If it is

4 of the Supreme Court or district judge for ratification of the 5 interception. The interception must not be ratified unless the 6 applicant shows that:

7 (a) An emergency situation existed and it was impractical to 8 obtain a court order before the interception; and

9 (b) Except for the absence of a court order, the interception met 10 the requirements of NRS 179.410 to 179.515, inclusive.

11 4. NRS 200.610 to 200.690, inclusive, do not prohibit the 12 recording, and NRS 179.410 to 179.515, inclusive, do not prohibit 13 the reception in evidence, of conversations on wire communications 14 installed in the office of an official law enforcement or fire-fighting 15 agency, or a public utility, if the equipment used for the recording is 16 installed in a facility for wire communications or on a telephone 17 with a number listed in a directory, on which emergency calls or 18 requests by a person for response by the law enforcement or fire-19 fighting agency or public utility are likely to be received. In 20 addition, those sections do not prohibit the recording or reception in 21 evidence of conversations initiated by the law enforcement or fire-22 fighting agency or public utility from such a facility or telephone in 23 connection with responding to the original call or request, if the 24 agency or public utility informs the other party that the conversation 25 is being recorded.

26 5. The interception or attempted interception of a wire 27 communication is not unlawful under the circumstances set forth in 28 subsection 1 of NRS 179.463.

29 Sec. 19. NRS 432.207 is hereby amended to read as follows:

30 432.207 1. The Children's Advocate or his or her designee
31 may apply to the court for a warrant to take physical custody of a 32 missing child if, during an investigation of the missing child, it 33 appears that there is probable cause to believe that:

34 (a) An act of abduction has been committed against the child; 35 and

36 (b) The act of abduction was not committed to protect:

37 (1) The child from continued abuse or neglect or from a bona 38 fide and imminent threat of abuse or neglect; or

39 (2) The person who allegedly abducted the child from 40 continued domestic violence or a bona fide and imminent threat of 41 domestic violence.

42 2. In filing the application for a warrant, the Children's 43 Advocate and his or her designee acts on behalf of the court and not 44 on behalf of any party.

45 3. The application must include, without limitation:

- 1 (a) The name of the person having legal custody of the child;
2 (b) The name of the person alleged to have committed the act of 3 abduction of the child;
4 (c) The name of the person alleged to have possession of the 5 child, if different from the person described in paragraph (b); 6 (d) A statement of the facts and circumstances pertaining to the 7 abduction of the child;
8 (e) A statement indicating whether, to the knowledge of the 9 applicant after reasonable investigation under the circumstances, the 10 child, the person having legal custody of the child, the person 11 alleged to have committed the act of abduction or the person alleged 12 to have possession of the child has been:
13 (1) The subject of an investigation of alleged abuse or 14 neglect of a child or domestic violence; 15 (2) A party to a proceeding concerning the alleged abuse or 16 neglect of a child, an act of abduction of a child or domestic 17 violence; or
18 (3) A party against whom an order for protection against 19 domestic violence was issued;
20 (f) A statement indicating which court, if any, has exercised 21 jurisdiction over the custody or welfare of the child; 22 (g) A copy of the most recent child custody determination, if 23 any, concerning the child, or if there is no such determination, a 24 statement as to the legal basis for the custody of the child; and 25 (h) A declaration made under oath and penalty of perjury that 26 every factual representation made in the application is true and 27 correct to the best of the knowledge of the applicant.
28 4. The court may, in its discretion, supplement the allegations 29 made in the application with the sworn testimony of the applicant at 30 a hearing before the court. Any such testimony must be recorded 31 and preserved in the records of the court.
32 5. If an application is filed pursuant to this section:
33 (a) The Children's Advocate or his or her designee may not be 34 assessed a filing fee for the application; and 35 (b) Any proceedings regarding the application must be 36 expedited by the court.
37 6. If the court determines that no exigent circumstances exist in 38 relation to the issuance of the warrant, the court:
39 (a) Shall hold a hearing before it issues the warrant; 40 (b) Shall provide, or ensure that the Children's Advocate or his 41 or her designee provides, notice of the hearing to the custodial 42 parent, the person alleged to have committed the act of abduction 43 and, if different, the person alleged to have possession of the child;

1 (c) If the person alleged to have committed the act of abduction 2 or, if different, the person alleged to have possession of the child is 3 present at the hearing or otherwise appears at the hearing, may:

4 (1) Order such person to return the child in accordance with 5 the determination of the court regarding the placement of the child; 6 and

7 (2) Issue the warrant in accordance with subsection 9; and

8 (d) If the person alleged to have committed the act of abduction
9 and, if different, the person alleged to have possession of the child 10 received notice but are not present at the hearing, do not otherwise 11 appear at the hearing and do not submit statements to the court, may 12 issue the warrant in accordance with subsection 9.

13 7. If the court determines that exigent circumstances exist in 14 relation to the issuance of the warrant, including, without limitation, 15 that the child is in imminent danger of being removed from this 16 State or in imminent danger of serious physical harm, the court may 17 issue the warrant after an ex parte hearing. If the court issues the 18 warrant after an ex parte hearing:

19 (a) The court shall afford the custodial parent, the person alleged 20 to have committed the act of abduction and, if different, the person 21 alleged to have possession of the child an opportunity to be heard at 22 the earliest possible time after the warrant is executed, but not later 23 than 48 hours after the warrant is executed unless a hearing within 24 that period is impossible. If a hearing within that period is 25 impossible, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day 26 possible.

27 (b) The Children's Advocate or his or her designee shall provide 28 notice of the hearing to be held pursuant to paragraph (a) to the 29 custodial parent, the person alleged to have committed the act of 30 abduction and, if different, the person alleged to have possession of 31 the child.

32 8. The custodial parent of the child, the person alleged to have 33 committed the act of abduction and, if different, the person alleged 34 to have possession of the child may:

35 (a) Appear at a hearing held pursuant to subsection 6 or 7 in 36 person, by telephone or by video; and

37 (b) Submit written statements to the court electronically or by 38 other means.

39 9. If, after a hearing held pursuant to subsection 6 or 7, as 40 applicable, the court:

41 (a) Determines that there is probable cause to believe that an act 42 of abduction has been committed against the child and that the act of 43 abduction was not committed for the protection of the child or the 44 person who allegedly abducted the child as described in

1 subsection 1, the court may issue a warrant to take physical custody 2 of the child; or

3 (b) Finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the act of 4 abduction of the child was committed for the protection of the child 5 or the person who allegedly abducted the child as described in 6 subsection 1, the court shall:

7 (1) Assume temporary emergency jurisdiction of the matter 8 and shall enter a temporary emergency order for the custody of the 9 child which is in the best interest of the child and which is sufficient 10 to protect the safety and welfare of all interested persons; and

11 (2) Provide in the order a period of time which the court 12 considers adequate and within which the person seeking the 13 emergency order may obtain an initial or modified child custody
14 determination regarding the child from a court that has jurisdiction 15 to enter such an order.

16 10. A warrant issued by the court pursuant to this section:

17 (a) Must set forth findings of fact that establish probable cause 18 for believing that an act of abduction occurred and that the act of 19 abduction was not committed for the protection of the child or the 20 person who allegedly abducted the child as described in 21 subsection 1;

22 (b) Must direct law enforcement officers to take physical 23 custody of the child and deliver the child in accordance with the 24 determination of the court regarding the placement of the child;

25 (c) Must specify the property that may be searched and the child 26 who may be seized pursuant to the warrant;

27 (d) Must authorize law enforcement officers to enter private 28 property as described in paragraph (c) to take physical custody of 29 the child;

30 (e) Must order that the child be returned to his or her legal 31 custodian unless such placement is not in the best interest of the 32 child; and

33 (f) Is enforceable throughout this State.

34 11. As soon as reasonably practicable but not later than 24
35 hours after a law enforcement officer executes a warrant issued 36 pursuant to this section, the Children's Advocate or his or her 37 designee shall inform the court of the execution of the warrant.

38 12. As used in this section:

39 (a) "Abduction" means the commission of an act described in 40 NRS 200.310 to 200.340, inclusive, or 200.359.

41 (b) "Abuse or neglect of a child" has the meaning ascribed to it 42 in NRS 432B.020.

43 (c) "Child custody determination" means a judgment, decree or 44 other order of a court providing for the legal custody, physical

1 custody or visitation with respect to a child. The term includes a 2 permanent, temporary, initial and modification order.

3 (d) "Court" means a court of this state authorized to establish, 4 enforce or modify a child custody determination.

5 (e) "Domestic violence" means the commission of or the 6 attempt to commit any act described in NRS 33.018.

7 Sec. 20. NRS 432B.157 is hereby amended to read as follows:

8 432B.157 1. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 125C.210
9 and 432B.153, a determination by the court after an evidentiary
10 hearing and finding by clear and convincing evidence that either 11 parent or any other person seeking custody of a child has engaged in 12 one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, a parent of 13 the child or any other person residing with the child creates a 14 rebuttable presumption that it is not in the best interest of the child 15 for the perpetrator of the domestic violence to have custody of the 16 child. Upon making such a determination, the court shall set forth:

17 (a) Findings of fact that support the determination that one or 18 more acts of domestic violence occurred; and

19 (b) Findings that the custody or visitation arrangement ordered
20 by the court adequately protects the child and the parent or other 21 victim of domestic violence who resided with the child.

22 2. If after an evidentiary hearing held pursuant to subsection 1
23 the court determines that more than one party has engaged in acts of 24 domestic violence, it shall, if possible, determine which person was 25 the primary physical aggressor. In determining which party was the 26 primary physical aggressor for the purposes of this section, the court 27 shall consider:

28 (a) All prior acts of domestic violence involving any of the 29 parties;

30 (b) The relative severity of the injuries, if any, inflicted upon the 31 persons involved in those prior acts of domestic violence;

32 (c) The likelihood of future injury;

33 (d) Whether, during the prior acts, one of the parties acted in 34 self-defense; and

35 (e) Any other factors that the court deems relevant to the 36 determination.

37 ↪ In such a case, if it is not possible for the court to determine
38 which party is the primary physical aggressor, the presumption
39 created pursuant to subsection 1 applies to each of the parties. If it is 40 possible for the court to determine which party is the primary
41 physical aggressor, the presumption created pursuant to subsection 1
42 applies only to the party determined by the court to be the primary 43 physical aggressor.

44 3. A court, agency, institution or other person who places a 45 child in protective custody shall not release a child to the custody of 1 a person who a court has determined pursuant to subsection 1 has 2 engaged in one or more acts of domestic violence against the child, 3 a parent of the child or any other person residing with the child 4 unless:

5 (a) A court determines that it is in the best interest of the child 6 for the perpetrator of the domestic violence to have custody of the 7 child; or

8 (b) Pursuant to the provisions of subsection 2, the presumption 9 created pursuant to subsection 1 does not apply to the person to 10 whom the court releases the child.

11 4. As used in this section, "domestic violence" means the 12 commission of or the attempt to commit any act described in 13 NRS 33.018.
