SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION—Proposing to amend the Nevada Constitution to provide for limited annual regular legislative sessions and for legislative compensation and expenses to be paid in a manner fixed and determined by law.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 The Nevada Constitution provides for biennial regular sessions of the 2 Legislature of not more than 120 consecutive calendar days beginning on the first 3 Monday of February in each odd-numbered year. (Nev. Const. Art. 4, § 2) This 4 resolution proposes to amend the Nevada Constitution to provide for limited annual 5 regular sessions. Beginning on the first Monday of February in each odd-numbered 6 year, the Legislature would hold a regular session of not more than 90 legislative 7 days during a maximum period of 120 consecutive calendar days. Beginning on the 8 first Tuesday of March in each even-numbered year, the Legislature would hold a 9 regular session of not more than 30 legislative days during a maximum period of 45 10 consecutive calendar days. This resolution defines a “legislative day” as any 11 calendar day on which either House of the Legislature is in session or any 12 legislative committee holds a meeting during a session.

13 The Nevada Constitution authorizes Legislators to: (1) receive compensation 14 for the first 60 days of each regular session and the first 20 days of each special 15 session; and (2) appropriate funds for the payment of the actual expenses members 16 of the Legislature may incur for postage, express charges, newspapers and 17 stationery in an amount not to exceed $60 per member for each general or special

18 session. (Nev. Const. Art. 4, § 33) This resolution proposes to amend the Nevada 19 Constitution to remove those provisions and to provide that Legislators must be 20 paid at regular intervals as set by law and may appropriate funds for the payment of 21 the actual expenses members of the Legislature may incur for each regular or 22 special session.

23 If this resolution is passed by the 2013 Legislature, it must also be passed by 24 the next Legislature and then approved and ratified by the voters in an election
25 before the proposed amendments to the Nevada Constitution become effective.

21 RESOLVED, That Section 2 of Article 19 of the Nevada
22 Constitution be amended to read as follows:

23 Sec. 2. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1
24 of Article 4 of this Constitution, but subject to the limitations
25 of Section 6 of this Article, the people reserve to themselves 26 the power to propose, by initiative petition, statutes and 27 amendments to statutes and amendments to this Constitution, 28 and to enact or reject them at the polls.

29 2. An initiative petition shall be in the form required by 30 Section 3 of this Article and shall be proposed by a number of 31 registered voters equal to 10 percent or more of the number of 32 voters who voted at the last preceding general election in not 33 less than 75 percent of the counties in the State, but the total 34 number of registered voters signing the initiative petition 35 shall be equal to 10 percent or more of the voters who voted 36 in the entire State at the last preceding general election.

37 3. If the initiative petition proposes a statute or an 38 amendment to a statute, the person who intends to circulate it
39 shall file a copy with the Secretary of State before beginning
40 circulation and not earlier than ~~{January 1 of the year~~ 41 ~~preceding the year in which a}~~ 1 year before the 42 commencement of the regular session of the Legislature ~~{is~~ 43 ~~held-}~~ to which the petition will be transmitted. After its 44 circulation, it shall be filed with the Secretary of State not less 45 than 30 days ~~{prior to any}~~ before the commencement of the

1 regular session of the Legislature H to which the petition will 2 be transmitted. The circulation of the petition shall cease on 3 the day the petition is filed with the Secretary of State or such 4 other date as may be prescribed for the verification of the 5 number of signatures affixed to the petition, whichever is 6 earliest. The Secretary of State shall transmit such petition to 7 the Legislature as soon as the Legislature convenes and 8 organizes. The petition shall take precedence over all other 9 measures except appropriation bills, and the statute or 10 amendment to a statute proposed thereby shall be enacted or 11 rejected by the Legislature without change or amendment
12 within 40 days. If the proposed statute or amendment to a 13 statute is enacted by the Legislature and approved by the 14 Governor in the same manner as other statutes are enacted, 15 such statute or amendment to a statute shall become law, but 16 shall be subject to referendum petition as provided in Section 17 1 of this Article. If the statute or amendment to a statute is 18 rejected by the Legislature, or if no action is taken thereon 19 within 40 days, the Secretary of State shall submit the 20 question of approval or disapproval of such statute or 21 amendment to a statute to a vote of the voters at the next
22 succeeding general election. If a majority of the voters voting 23 on such question at such election votes approval of such 24 statute or amendment to a statute, it shall become law and 25 take effect upon completion of the canvass of votes by the 26 Supreme Court. An initiative measure so approved by the 27 voters shall not be amended, annulled, repealed, set aside or 28 suspended by the Legislature within 3 years from the date it 29 takes effect. If a majority of such voters votes disapproval of 30 such statute or amendment to a statute, no further action shall 31 be taken on such petition. If the Legislature rejects such 32 proposed statute or amendment, the Governor may 33 recommend to the Legislature and the Legislature may 34 propose a different measure on the same subject, in which 35 event, after such different measure has been approved by the 36 Governor, the question of approval or disapproval of each
37 measure shall be submitted by the Secretary of State to a vote 38 of the voters at the next succeeding general election. If the 39 conflicting provisions submitted to the voters are both 40 approved by a majority of the voters voting on such 41 measures, the measure which receives the largest number of 42 affirmative votes shall thereupon become law. If at the 43 session of the Legislature to which an initiative petition 44 proposing an amendment to a statute is presented which the 45 Legislature rejects or upon which it takes no action, the

* S J R 8 R 2 *

1 Legislature amends the statute which the petition proposes to 2 amend in a respect which does not conflict in substance with 3 the proposed amendment, the Secretary of State in submitting 4 the statute to the voters for approval or disapproval of the 5 proposed amendment shall include the amendment made by 6 the Legislature.

7 4. If the initiative petition proposes an amendment to the 8 Constitution, the person who intends to circulate it shall file a 9 copy with the Secretary of State before beginning circulation 10 and not earlier than September 1 of the year before the year in 11 which the election is to be held. After its circulation it shall 12 be filed with the Secretary of State not less than 90 days 13 before any regular general election at which the question of 14 approval or disapproval of such amendment may be voted 15 upon by the voters of the entire State. The circulation of the 16 petition shall cease on the day the petition is filed with the 17 Secretary of State or such other date as may be prescribed for 18 the verification of the number of signatures affixed to the 19 petition, whichever is earliest. The Secretary of State shall 20 cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation,
21 on three separate occasions, in each county in the State, 22 together with any explanatory matter which shall be 23 placed upon the ballot, the entire text of the proposed 24 amendment. If a majority of the voters voting on such 25 question at such election votes disapproval of such 26 amendment, no further action shall be taken on the petition. If 27 a majority of such voters votes approval of such amendment,
28 the Secretary of State shall publish and resubmit the question 29 of approval or disapproval to a vote of the voters at the 30 next succeeding general election in the same manner as such 31 question was originally submitted. If a majority of such 32 voters votes disapproval of such amendment, no further 33 action shall be taken on such petition. If a majority of such 34 voters votes approval of such amendment, it shall, unless 35 precluded by subsection 5 or 6, become a part of this 36 Constitution upon completion of the canvass of votes by the 37 Supreme Court.

38 5. If two or more measures which affect the same
39 section of a statute or of the Constitution are finally approved
40 pursuant to this Section, or an amendment to the Constitution 41 is finally so approved and an amendment proposed by the 42 Legislature is ratified which affect the same section, by the 43 voters at the same election:

44 (a) If all can be given effect without contradiction in 45 substance, each shall be given effect.

1 (b) If one or more contradict in substance the other or 2 others, the measure which received the largest favorable vote, 3 and any other approved measure compatible with it, shall be 4 given effect. If the one or more measures that contradict in 5 substance the other or others receive the same number of 6 favorable votes, none of the measures that contradict another 7 shall be given effect.

8 6. If, at the same election as the first approval of a 9 constitutional amendment pursuant to this Section, another
10 amendment is finally approved pursuant to this Section, 11 or an amendment proposed by the Legislature is ratified, 12 which affects the same section of the Constitution but is 13 compatible with the amendment given first approval, the 14 Secretary of State shall publish and resubmit at the next 15 general election the amendment given first approval as a 16 further amendment to the section as amended by the 17 amendment given final approval or ratified. If the amendment 18 finally approved or ratified contradicts in substance the 19 amendment given first approval, the Secretary of State 20 shall not submit the amendment given first approval to the 21 voters again.
