Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law sets forth certain unlawful acts that constitute domestic violence when committed against certain persons. (NRS 33.018) Section 1 of this bill revises the unlawful acts that constitute domestic violence to include coercion, burglary, home invasion and pandering. Section 1 also provides that such acts if committed by siblings against each other, unless those siblings are in a custodial or guardianship relationship, or such acts if committed by cousins against each other, unless those cousins are in a custodial or guardianship relationship, do not constitute domestic violence. Section 1.5 of this bill makes a conforming change.

Existing law requires a peace officer, under certain circumstances, to arrest a person when the officer has probable cause to believe that the person has committed a battery upon: (1) a spouse; (2) a former spouse; (3) a person to whom he or she is related by blood or marriage; (4) a person with whom he or she is or was actually residing; (5) a person to whom he or she is in a dating relationship; (6) a person with whom he or she has a child; (7) the minor child of any such person; or (8) his or her minor child. (NRS 171.137) Section 1.5 additionally requires a peace officer to make such an arrest if the person committed such a battery upon the custodian or guardian of the person’s minor child. Section 1.5 also removes the requirement that the officer make such an arrest for a battery committed upon a person with whom he or she is or was actually residing.

Section 1.1 of this bill authorizes a peace officer, under certain circumstances, to arrest a person when the officer has probable cause to believe that the person has committed a battery within the preceding 24 hours upon: (1) a person with whom he or she is actually residing; (2) a sibling, if the person is not the custodian or guardian of the sibling; or (3) a cousin, if the person is not the custodian or guardian of the cousin. Sections 1.1 and 1.5 also provide that liability cannot be imposed against a peace officer or his or her employer for a determination made in good faith not to arrest a person suspected of committing such a battery or a battery which constitutes domestic violence, as applicable. Section 1.3 makes a conforming change.

Existing law authorizes a court to order the videotaping of a deposition under certain circumstances. (NRS 174.227) Existing law also authorizes, under certain circumstances, the use of such a videotaped deposition instead of the deponent's testimony at trial. (NRS 174.228) Section 2 of this bill authorizes the court to order the videotaping of a deposition of a victim of facilitating sex trafficking. Section 3 of this bill makes a conforming change to allow such a videotaped deposition to be used instead of the deponent's testimony at trial.

When a person is convicted of a battery which constitutes domestic violence, existing law requires the court to order the person to pay an administrative assessment of $35 to be deposited in the Account for Programs Related to Domestic Violence. (NRS 200.485) Section 3.5 of this bill requires the court to order a $35 fee to be paid and deposited into the Account for Programs Related to Domestic Violence if a person is convicted of certain unlawful acts which constitute domestic violence. Section 3.5 requires the court to enter a finding of fact that a person has committed an act which constitutes domestic violence in such a person's judgment of conviction. Section 3.5 also requires the court to order such a person to attend such counseling sessions relating to the treatment of persons who commit domestic violence under certain circumstances. Section 40 of this bill requires such fees to be deposited with the State Controller for credit to the Account.

Under existing law, a person convicted of a battery which constitutes domestic violence, for the first offense, is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished by: (1) imprisonment in a city or county jail or detention center for not less than 2 days, but not more than 6 months; (2) community service; and (3) a fine of not less than $200 and not more than $1,000. Existing law authorizes a court to impose the term of imprisonment intermittently, except that each period of confinement cannot last less than 4 consecutive hours and cannot be served when the person is required to be at his or her place of employment. (NRS 200.485) Section 15 of this bill requires the court to impose intermittent confinement of not less than 12 consecutive hours for the first offense of such an act.

Additionally, under existing law, a person convicted for his or her second offense of a battery which constitutes domestic violence is guilty of a misdemeanor and is required to be imprisoned in a city or county jail or detention facility for not less than 10 days and not more than 6 months and pay a fine of not less than $500 or more than $1,000. (NRS 200.485) Section 15 increases the minimum term of imprisonment to 20 days.

Under existing law, a person convicted for his or her third or any subsequent offense of a battery which constitutes domestic violence is guilty of a category C felony. (NRS 200.485) Section 15 increases the penalty for such an act to a category B felony.

Existing law provides that any person who has previously been convicted of a battery which constitutes domestic violence that is punishable as a felony or a conviction for a similar felony of another state and who commits a battery that constitutes domestic violence is guilty of a category B felony. (NRS 200.485) Section 15 instead provides that a person who has previously been convicted of any felony that constitutes domestic violence or a similar offense in another state and who commits a battery which constitutes domestic violence is guilty of a category B felony.

Section 15 also provides a penalty for a battery which constitutes domestic violence where the act was committed against a victim who was pregnant at the time of such a battery. Under section 15, a person who commits such a battery: (1) for the first offense is guilty of a gross misdemeanor; and (2) for the second or any subsequent offense is guilty of a category B felony and authorizes the court to impose a minimum fine of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000.

Section 15 also provides that if a person is convicted of a battery which constitutes domestic violence, where such a battery causes substantial bodily harm to the victim, the person: (1) is guilty of a category B felony; and (2) the court is authorized to impose a fine of $1,000 to $15,000.

Existing law provides that a person is guilty of: (1) a category D felony if the person commits an assault upon an officer; and (2) a category B felony if the person commits an assault upon an officer with the use of a deadly weapon or the present ability to use a deadly weapon. (NRS 200.471) Existing law also provides that a person is guilty of: (1) a category B felony if the person commits a battery upon an officer which causes substantial bodily harm or is committed by strangulation; and (2) a gross misdemeanor if the person commits a battery upon an officer and the person knew or should have known that the victim was an officer. (NRS 200.481) Sections 14 and 14.5 of this bill revise the definition of "officer" for such purposes to include a prosecuting attorney of an agency or political subdivision of the United States or of this State.

Existing law provides that a person who, without lawful authority, willfully or maliciously engages in conduct that would cause a reasonable person to feel terrorized, frightened, intimidated, harassed or fearful for the immediate safety of a family or household member, and the conduct actually causes the victim to feel such emotions, is guilty of the crime of stalking. Existing law makes such a crime punishable as a misdemeanor for the first offense, and as a gross misdemeanor for any subsequent offense. (NRS 200.575) Section 17 of this bill revises the definition of stalking to: (1) provide that the course of conduct must be directed at the victim; and (2) clarify that the conduct would cause the victim to be fearful for his or her immediate safety. Section 17 also increases the penalty for a third or any subsequent offense of stalking to a category C felony and authorizes a court to impose a fine of not more than $5,000. Section 17 also provides that if the crime of stalking is committed against a victim who is under the age of 16 and the person is 5 or more years older than the victim: (1) for the first offense, the person is guilty of a gross misdemeanor; (2) for the second offense, the person is guilty of a category C felony and may be further punished by a fine of not more than $5,000; and (3) for a third or any subsequent offense, the person is guilty of a category B felony and may be further punished by a fine of not more than $5,000.

Existing law authorizes a court to impose an additional fine of $500,000 on certain persons who are convicted of sex trafficking or living from earnings of a prostitute. (NRS 201.352) Section 21 of this bill similarly authorizes a court to impose an additional fine of $500,000 on a person convicted of facilitating sex trafficking.

Existing law provides for the compensation of certain victims of crime. (NRS 217.010-217.270) Section 38 and 39 of this bill expand the definition of "victim" to include victims of the crime of facilitating sex trafficking so that such persons may be compensated under certain circumstances.

Existing law requires the Attorney General to appoint a Committee on Domestic Violence whose duties include, among other things: (1) increasing awareness of domestic violence within the State; and (2) reviewing certain programs related to the treatment of persons who commit domestic violence and making recommendations concerning those programs to the Division of Public and Behavioral Health of the Department of Health and Human Services. Existing law also requires a quorum of six members of the Committee for voting purposes. (NRS 228.470) Section 41 of this bill: (1) authorizes the Attorney General to appoint a subcommittee to carry out the Committee's duty to review and make recommendations concerning such treatment programs; (2) requires a quorum of six members for all purposes; and (3) authorizes the Committee to adopt regulations necessary to carry out its duties.

Under existing law, the duties of the Office of Advocate for Missing or Exploited Children of the Office of the Attorney General include investigating and prosecuting any alleged crime involving the exploitation of children. (NRS 432.157) Section 42 of this bill expands the Office's duties to include investigating and prosecuting the crime of facilitating sex trafficking involving children.
