AN ACT relating to the use of force; revising the provisions governing justifiable homicide; revising the provisions governing civil liability in actions involving the use of force; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law provides that justifiable homicide is the killing of a human being 2 in necessary self-defense, or in defense of habitation, property or person against a 3 person who manifestly intends or endeavors to commit a felony or to enter the 4 habitation of another for the purpose of assaulting a person who is in the habitation.
5 (NRS 200.120) Section 1 of this bill revises the definition of “justifiable homicide” 6 to include specifically the killing of a person in defense of a motor vehicle or in 7 defense against any person who manifestly intends and endeavors to enter the 8 motor vehicle of another for the purpose of assaulting a person who is in the motor 9 vehicle.

10 Existing law provides that a killing is justifiable if the circumstances were 11 sufficient to excite the fears of a reasonable person and the person killing really 12 acted under the influence of those fears and not in a spirit of revenge. (NRS 13 200.130) Section 2 of this bill establishes a presumption that the killing is 14 justifiable under the standard set forth in NRS 200.130 if the person killing: (1) 15 knew or had reason to believe that the person who was killed was entering 16 unlawfully and with force, or attempting to enter unlawfully and with force, the 17 habitation or property of another; (2) knew or had reason to believe that the person 18 who was killed was committing or attempting to commit a felony; and (3) did not 19 provoke the person who was killed.

20 Existing law provides that in a civil action brought by or on behalf of a person 21 against whom force which is intended or likely to cause death or bodily injury was 22 used: (1) there is a presumption that the person who used such force had a 23 reasonable fear of imminent death or bodily injury to himself or herself or another

24 person if the person against whom such force was used was committing burglary or 25 invasion of the home; and (2) that presumption must be overcome by clear and 26 convincing evidence to the contrary for the civil action to be maintained. (NRS 27 41.095) Section 3 of this bill extends that presumption to circumstances in which 28 the person who used such force was in his or her motor vehicle and the other person 29 was committing grand larceny of the motor vehicle with the use or threatened use 30 of a deadly weapon. Section 3 also enacts a provision, based upon Texas law, 31 which provides that a person is immune from civil liability for using force which is 32 intended or likely to cause death or bodily injury if the person was justified in using 33 such force under the applicable provisions of Nevada criminal law. (Texas Civil 34 Practice and Remedies Code, § 83.001)
