AN ACT relating to labor; creating a private right of action for an employee who has been improperly classified as an independent contractor by an employer; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Under existing law, if the Administrator of the Division of Industrial Relations
2 of the Department of Business and Industry determines that an employer knowingly 3 misrepresented the classification or duties of an employee, the Administrator will 4 charge the employer for the amount of the premiums that the employer would have 5 paid to secure industrial insurance had the employer submitted the proper 6 information. (NRS 616D.220) The Attorney General may also commence a civil 7 action to collect any amount due, as well as certain other civil penalties.
8 (NRS 616D.230)
9 This bill creates a private right of action for an employee who has been 10 misclassified as an independent contractor. This remedy is in addition to the 11 existing remedies and penalties under NRS 616D.220 and 616D.230. (NRS 12 616D.010) This bill allows the employee to bring the action against his or her 13 employer only after filing a complaint with a state agency that has jurisdiction to 14 address the misclassification, if any such agency exists. This bill also allows the 15 employee to bring the action without exhausting any applicable administrative 16 remedies.
