Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

1 Existing law creates the Nevada Equal Rights Commission within the 2 Department of Employment, Training and Rehabilitation. (NRS 233.030) The 3 Commission is authorized to investigate and conduct hearings concerning acts of 4 prejudice with regard to housing, employment and public accommodation. (NRS 5 233.150) Section 2 of this bill requires: (1) an attorney who works for, contracts
6 with or provides volunteer services to the Commission to review any complaint
7 filed with the Commission alleging an unlawful discriminatory practice and prepare 8 all findings of facts and final dispositions of complaints; (2) a paralegal who is 9 employed by the Commission to annually complete a minimum number of hours 10 established by the Commission of continuing education in certain areas relating to 11 the work of the Commission; and (3) the Commission to establish programs for law 12 students to intern with the Commission and attorneys to volunteer legal services to 13 the Commission.

14 Section 3 of this bill provides that if a complaint is filed with the Commission 15 alleging an unlawful discriminatory practice in employment: (1) by a governmental 16 agency, the Commission must consider the historical patterns and practices of the 17 agency in determining whether an investigation is warranted and any actions of 18 nonfeasance and malfeasance on behalf of the agency or a public officer or public 19 employee of the agency with regard to the complaint; and (2) by a private 20 employer, the Commission must consider any historical data of discriminatory 21 practices on behalf of the private employer.

22 Sections 4 and 6 of this bill require that if the Commission determines an 23 investigation into a complaint alleging an unlawful discriminatory practice is 24 warranted, the Commission must make a final disposition of the complaint within 25 18 months after the date the complaint is received, unless the Commission 26 determines it is impracticable to do so. If the Commission determines it is 27 impracticable, section 4 requires the Commission to send the complainant and 28 person against whom the complaint was filed a statement informing the parties of 29 the reason why it was impracticable to resolve the complaint within 18 months.

30 Section 4 also prohibits the Commission from closing a complaint without a 31 final disposition, unless the complainant verbally or physically abuses or threatens 32 a member of the Commission.

33 Section 5 of this bill requires the Commission to prepare and publish on the 34 Internet website of the Commission a summary of the process by which a person 35 may file an appeal of a decision of the Commission with the United States Equal 36 Employment Opportunity Commission.
