AN ACT relating to redevelopment; revising provisions relating to the termination of certain redevelopment plans; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Under existing law, a redevelopment plan adopted by a redevelopment agency on or after January 1, 1991, must terminate not later than 30 years after the date on which the original redevelopment plan was adopted. (NRS 279.439) This bill provides that, if a redevelopment area includes real property conveyed by the Federal Government which contains certain abandoned mine or milling facilities, a redevelopment plan adopted on or after January 1, 1991, must terminate not later than 45 years after the effective date of the conveyance of the land by the Federal Government if: (1) within 15 years after the date on which the original redevelopment plan was adopted, the State enters into one or more agreements, with respect to the real property conveyed by the Federal Government, for mine remediation and reclamation; and (2) before entering into any agreement for mine remediation and reclamation, the State consults with the legislative body of the city or county in which the redevelopment area is located.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 279.439 is hereby amended to read as follows:

279.439
1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, a redevelopment plan adopted on or after January 1, 1991, and any amendments to the plan must terminate not later than 30 years after the date on which the original redevelopment plan is adopted.

2. If a redevelopment area includes any real property conveyed by the Federal Government which contains an abandoned mine or milling operation with open pits, large volumes of mine overburden and tailings piles and mill facility foundations, or a hazardous level of contaminants, a redevelopment plan adopted on or after January 1, 1991, and any amendments to the plan must terminate not later than 45 years after the date of the conveyance of the real property if:

(a) Within 15 years after the date on which the original redevelopment plan is adopted, the State enters into one or more agreements, with respect to the real property conveyed by the Federal Government, for mine remediation and reclamation; and
(b) Before entering into any agreement for mine remediation and reclamation, the State consults with the legislative body of the community in which the real property is located.

Sec. 2. This act becomes effective on July 1, 2015.
