

Senate Bill No. 31–Committee on Judiciary

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to public safety; authorizing the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History to monitor the agencies of criminal justice in this State for compliance with certain requirements relating to the submission or transmission of certain information and records concerning public safety; providing that if the Central Repository chooses to perform such monitoring, the Central Repository must prepare and post on its Internet website an annual report relating to the compliance of such agencies of criminal justice in this State with such requirements; revising the definition of a record of criminal history; revising the requirements for publication of certain statistical data; revising provisions relating to the information provided to an authorized participant of a service to conduct a name-based search of records of criminal history; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law creates the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History to collect and maintain certain information relating to records of criminal history. (NRS 179A.075) Existing law requires a court, within 5 business days, to transmit to the Central Repository any record concerning the appointment of a guardian for a person with a mental defect, plea or finding of guilty but mentally ill, verdict acquitting a person by reason of insanity, finding that a person is incompetent to stand trial or involuntary admission of a person to a mental health facility, along with a statement that the record is being transmitted for inclusion in each appropriate database of the National Instant Criminal Background Check System. (NRS 159.0593, 174.035, 175.533, 175.539, 178.425, 433A.310) Existing law also provides that, upon receiving such a record, the Central Repository: (1) must take reasonable steps to ensure that the information reported in the record is included in each appropriate database of the National Instant Criminal Background Check System; and (2) may take reasonable steps to ensure that the information reported in the record is included in each appropriate database of the National Crime Information Center. (NRS 179A.163)

Additionally, existing law requires: (1) each agency of criminal justice to submit information to the Central Repository relating to records of criminal history that it creates, issues or collects and certain information in the agency’s possession relating to the DNA profile of certain persons; (2) each state and local law enforcement agency to submit Uniform Crime Reports. (NRS 179A.075) Finally, any time that a court issues a temporary or extended order for protection against domestic violence, an ex parte or extended order for protection against high-risk behavior, a temporary or extended order for protection against a person alleged to have committed the crime of sexual assault or a temporary or extended order for protection against stalking, aggravated stalking or harassment and any time that a person serves such an order, registers such an order or takes certain other actions relating to such orders, existing law requires the person to transmit certain information to the Central Repository. (NRS 33.095, 33.650, 200.37835, 200.599)

Section 1 of this bill: (1) authorizes the Central Repository to monitor the agencies of criminal justice in this State for compliance with the statutory requirements relating to the submission or transmission of certain information relating to mental health records and certain other records, reports, compilations and information; and (2) if the Central Repository chooses to perform such monitoring, requires the Central Repository to prepare an annual report regarding such compliance and post the report on its Internet website. Section 1 also authorizes the Central Repository to contact the agencies of criminal justice in this State to coordinate efforts to ensure the timely submission or transmission of such information and records.

Under existing law, the term “record of criminal history” includes decisions of a district attorney not to prosecute a person. (NRS 179A.070) Section 1.5 of this bill revises the definition of “record of criminal history” to refer to decisions of a prosecuting attorney, rather than a district attorney, which expands the definition to include other types of prosecuting attorneys, such as city attorneys.

Existing law requires the Central Repository to prepare and post on its Internet website certain reports containing statistical data relating to crime and domestic violence. (NRS 179A.075) Section 2 of this bill eliminates the requirement to prepare and post such reports and instead requires the Central Repository to provide an electronic means to access on the Central Repository’s Internet website statistical data relating to crime and domestic violence.

Existing law establishes within the Central Repository a service to conduct a name-based search of records of criminal history of an employee, prospective employee, volunteer or prospective volunteer and provides that the Central Repository shall disseminate to an authorized participant of the service information which: (1) reflects convictions only; or (2) pertains to an incident for which an employee, prospective employee, volunteer or prospective volunteer is currently within the system of criminal justice, including parole or probation. (NRS 179A.103) Existing law also defines the term “record of criminal history” to include information contained in records collected and maintained by agencies of criminal justice, such as warrants, arrests, citations, detentions, decisions not to prosecute, indictments, charges and dispositions of charges. (NRS 179A.070) Section 3 of this bill provides that in conducting a name-based search of records of criminal history of an employee, prospective employee, volunteer or prospective volunteer, the Central Repository shall disseminate to an authorized participant information which reflects convictions only.

Existing law creates the Repository for Information Concerning Orders for Protection, which contains a record of all: (1) temporary and extended orders for protection against domestic violence issued or registered in this State and all Canadian domestic-violence protection orders registered in this State; (2) temporary and extended orders for protection against stalking, aggravated stalking or harassment issued in this State; and (3) temporary and extended orders for protection against a person alleged to have committed the crime of sexual assault issued in this State. Existing law also requires the Director of the Department of Public Safety, on or before July 1 of each year, to submit to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau a written report concerning all temporary and extended orders for protection against domestic violence, sexual assault, stalking, aggravated stalking or harassment issued during the previous calendar year that were transmitted to the Repository for Information Concerning Orders for Protection. (NRS 179A.350) Section 4 of this bill eliminates the requirement to submit such a report and instead requires the Director of the Department of Public Safety to provide an electronic means to access on the Central Repository’s Internet website statistical data concerning such orders for protection.

Existing law creates the Repository for Information Concerning Crimes Against Older Persons or Vulnerable Persons, which contains a record of all reports of the abuse, neglect, exploitation, isolation or abandonment of older persons or vulnerable persons in this State. Existing law also requires the Director of the Department of Public Safety, on or before July 1 of each year, to prepare and submit to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau for transmittal to the Legislature a report on the abuse, neglect, exploitation, isolation or abandonment of older persons or vulnerable persons. (NRS 179A.450) Section 5 of this bill eliminates the requirement to submit such a report and instead requires the Director of the Department of Public Safety to provide an electronic means to access on the Central Repository’s Internet website statistical data on the abuse, neglect, exploitation, isolation or abandonment of older persons or vulnerable persons.
