4 2 of this bill provides that if a juvenile court determines that a child is in need of 5 protection, an agency which provides child welfare services is authorized to file a 6 motion for the termination of parental rights as part of the proceeding concerning 7 the abuse or neglect of the child. Section 2 also requires an agency which provides 8 child welfare services to file such a motion if a child has been placed outside of his 9 or her home for a period of not less than 12 months. Sections 2 and 10 of this bill 10 provide that the provisions of existing law governing the termination of parental 11 rights apply to all proceedings concerning the termination of parental rights that are 12 commenced by an agency which provides child welfare services, but only to the 13 extent they do not conflict with the provisions established in this bill.

14 Section 3 of this bill establishes provisions concerning notice of the hearing on 15 the motion for the termination of parental rights and requires the court to ensure 16 that any prospective adoptive parent is provided a copy of the notice. Section 3 also 17 provides that the name and address of a prospective adoptive parent generally must 18 be kept confidential. Section 4 of this bill authorizes a party who has been informed 19 of the allegations set forth in the motion to contest such allegations and request an 20 evidentiary hearing or voluntarily relinquish his or her parental rights. Section 5 of 22 adoptive parent and a representative from an agency which provides child welfare 23 services to participate in mediation for the purpose of negotiating the terms of an

25 Section 6 of this bill establishes certain procedural provisions relating to an 26 evidentiary hearing on a motion for the termination of parental rights. Section 7 of 27 this bill requires the court to use its best efforts to ensure that a final written 28 decision on such a motion is rendered not later than 30 days after the conclusion of 29 the evidentiary hearing, and section 8 of this bill requires the appellate court of 30 competent jurisdiction to use its best efforts to ensure that any appeal is resolved
31 not later than 6 months after the appeal is filed or, if the court orders full briefings
32 on the matter, not later than 12 months after the appeal is filed. Section 9 of this bill 33 requires that a petition for the restoration of parental rights be filed as part of a 34 proceeding concerning the abuse or neglect of a child in certain circumstances.
