records may ask a requester to make the request in writing, may 420 ask for the requester's identity, and may inquire about the 421 after disclosing to the requester that a written request is not 423 mandatory and that the requester may decline to reveal the 424 requester's identity or the intended use and when a written 425 request or disclosure of the identity or intended use would 426 benefit the requester by enhancing the ability of the public 427 office or person responsible for public records to identify, 428 locate, or deliver the public records sought by the requester. 429

(6) If any person ~~chooses to obtain~~ requests a copy of a 430 requester under this division. The public office or the person 436 responsible for the public record shall permit ~~that person~~ the 437 person responsible for the public record keeps it, or upon any 440 other medium upon which the public office or person responsible 441 for the public record determines that it reasonably can be 442 duplicated as an integral part of the normal operations of the 443 public office or person responsible for the public record. When 444 the ~~person seeking the copy~~ requester makes a choice under this 445 division, the public office or person responsible for the public 446 record shall provide a copy of it in accordance with the choice 447 made by the ~~person seeking the copy~~ requester. Nothing in this 448 section requires a public office or person responsible for the 449 public record to allow the ~~person seeking~~ requester of a copy of 450 the public record to make the copies of the public record. 451

(7) (a) Upon a request made in accordance with division (B) 452 of this section and subject to division (B) (6) of this section, 453 a public office or person responsible for public records shall 454 transmit a copy of a public record to any person by United 455 States mail or by any other means of delivery or transmission 456 within a reasonable period of time after receiving the request 457 in advance the cost of postage if the copy is transmitted by 460 United States mail or the cost of delivery if the copy is 461 transmission pursuant to division (B) (7) of this section. A 469 public office that adopts a policy and procedures under division 470

(B) (7) of this section shall comply with them in performing its 471 maintenance, and that charges no fee to search, access, 486 download, or otherwise receive records provided on the web site, 487 may limit to ten per month the number of records requested by a 488 person that the office will deliver in a digital format, unless 489 the requested records are not provided on the web site and 490 unless the person certifies to the office in writing that the 491 person does not intend to use or forward the requested records, 492 or the information contained in them, for commercial purposes. 493

(iii) For purposes of division (B) (7) of this section, 494 activities of government, or nonprofit educational research. 498

(8) A public office or person responsible for public 499 pursuant to a criminal conviction or a juvenile adjudication to 501 inspect or to obtain a copy of any public record concerning a 502 criminal investigation or prosecution or concerning what would 503 be a criminal investigation or prosecution if the subject of the 504 investigation or prosecution were an adult, unless the request 505 to inspect or to obtain a copy of the record is for the purpose 506 of acquiring information that is subject to release as a public 507 record under this section and the judge who imposed the sentence 508 or made the adjudication with respect to the person, or the 509 judge's successor in office, finds that the information sought 510 in the public record is necessary to support what appears to be 511 a justiciable claim of the person. 512 interest. 549

(b) Division (B) (9) (a) of this section also applies to 550 journalist requests for customer information maintained by a 551 municipally owned or operated public utility, other than social 552 security numbers and any private financial information such as 553 credit reports, payment methods, credit card numbers, and bank 554 account information. 555

(c) As used in division (B) (9) of this section, 556
"journalist" means a person engaged in, connected with, or 557 employed by any news medium, including a newspaper, magazine, 558 press association, news agency, or wire service, a radio or 559 television station, or a similar medium, for the purpose of 560 gathering, processing, transmitting, compiling, editing, or 561 disseminating information for the general public. 562

(C) (1) If a person allegedly is aggrieved by the failure 563 of a public office or the person responsible for public records 564 to promptly prepare a public record and to make it available to 565 the person for inspection in accordance with division (B) of 566 this section or by any other failure of a public office or the 567 person responsible for public records to comply with an 568 obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section, the 569 person allegedly aggrieved may do only one of the following, and 570 not both: 571

(a) File a complaint with the clerk of the court of claims 572 or the clerk of the court of common pleas under section 2743.75 573 of the Revised Code; 574

(b) Commence a mandamus action to obtain a judgment that 575 orders the public office or the person responsible for the 576 public record to comply with division (B) of this section, that 577 awards court costs and reasonable attorney's fees to the person 578 that instituted the mandamus action, and, if applicable, that 579 includes an order fixing statutory damages under division (C) (2) 580 of this section. The mandamus action may be commenced in the 581 court of common pleas of the county in which division (B) of 582 this section allegedly was not complied with, in the supreme 583 court pursuant to its original jurisdiction under Section 2 of 584 Article IV, Ohio Constitution, or in the court of appeals for 585 the appellate district in which division (B) of this section 586 allegedly was not complied with pursuant to its original 587 jurisdiction under Section 3 of Article IV, Ohio Constitution. 588

(2) If a requester transmits a written request by hand 589 delivery or certified mail to inspect or receive copies of any 590 public record in a manner that fairly describes the public 591 record or class of public records to the public office or person 592 responsible for the requested public records, except as 593 otherwise provided in this section, the requester shall be 594 entitled to recover the amount of statutory damages set forth in 595 this division if a court determines that the public office or 596 the person responsible for public records failed to comply with 597 an obligation in accordance with division (B) of this section. 598

The amount of statutory damages shall be fixed at one 599 hundred dollars for each business day during which the public 600 office or person responsible for the requested public records 601 failed to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 602
(B) of this section, beginning with the day on which the 603 requester files a mandamus action to recover statutory damages, 604 up to a maximum of one thousand dollars. The award of statutory 605 damages shall not be construed as a penalty, but as compensation 606 for injury arising from lost use of the requested information. 607
The existence of this injury shall be conclusively presumed. The 608 award of statutory damages shall be in addition to all other 609 remedies authorized by this section. 610

The court may reduce an award of statutory damages or not 611 award statutory damages if the court determines both of the 612 following: 613

(a) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory 614 law and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 615 threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 616
for the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a 617 failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 618
(B) of this section and that was the basis of the mandamus 619 action, a well-informed public office or person responsible for 620
the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 621 conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 622 responsible for the requested public records did not constitute 623
a failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with 624
division (B) of this section; 625

(b) That a well-informed public office or person 626 responsible for the requested public records reasonably would 627 believe that the conduct or threatened conduct of the public 628
office or person responsible for the requested public records 629
would serve the public policy that underlies the authority that 630 is asserted as permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 631

(3) In a mandamus action filed under division (C)(1) of 632 this section, the following apply: 633

(a) (i) If the court orders the public office or the person 634 responsible for the public record to comply with division (B) of 635 this section, the court shall determine and award to the relator 636 all court costs, which shall be construed as remedial and not 637 punitive. 638

(ii) If the court makes a determination described in 639 division (C) (3) (b) (iii) of this section, the court shall 640 determine and award to the relator all court costs, which shall 641 be construed as remedial and not punitive. 642

(b) If the court renders a judgment that orders the public 643 office or the person responsible for the public record to comply 644 with division (B) of this section or if the court determines any 645 of the following, the court may award reasonable attorney's fees 646 to the relator, subject to ~~the provisions of~~ division (C) (4) of 647 this section: 648

(i) The public office or the person responsible for the 649 public records failed to respond affirmatively or negatively to 650 the public records request in accordance with the time allowed 651 under division (B) of this section. 652

(ii) The public office or the person responsible for the 653 public records promised to permit the relator to inspect or 654 receive copies of the public records requested within a 655 specified period of time but failed to fulfill that promise 656 within that specified period of time. 657

(iii) The public office or the person responsible for the 658 public records acted in bad faith when the office or person 659 voluntarily made the public records available to the relator for 660 the first time after the relator commenced the mandamus action, 661 but before the court issued any order concluding whether or not 662 the public office or person was required to comply with division 663
(B) of this section. No discovery may be conducted on the issue 664 of the alleged bad faith of the public office or person 665 responsible for the public records. This division shall not be 666 construed as creating a presumption that the public office or 667 the person responsible for the public records acted in bad faith 668 when the office or person voluntarily made the public records 669 available to the relator for the first time after the relator 670 commenced the mandamus action, but before the court issued any 671 order described in this division. 672

(c) The court shall not award attorney's fees to the 673 relator if the court determines both of the following: 674

(i) That, based on the ordinary application of statutory 675
law and case law as it existed at the time of the conduct or 676
threatened conduct of the public office or person responsible 677
for the requested public records that allegedly constitutes a 678
failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with division 679
(B) of this section and that was the basis of the mandamus 680
action, a well-informed public office or person responsible for 681
the requested public records reasonably would believe that the 682
conduct or threatened conduct of the public office or person 683
responsible for the requested public records did not constitute 684
a failure to comply with an obligation in accordance with 685
division (B) of this section; 686

(ii) That a well-informed public office or person 687
responsible for the requested public records reasonably would 688
believe that the conduct or threatened conduct of the public 689
office or person responsible for the requested public records 690
would serve the public policy that underlies the authority that 691 is asserted as permitting that conduct or threatened conduct. 692

(4) All of the following apply to any award of reasonable 693 attorney's fees awarded under division (C) (3) (b) of this 694 section: 695

(a) The fees shall be construed as remedial and not 696
punitive. 697

(b) The fees awarded shall not exceed the total of the 698 reasonable attorney's fees incurred before the public record was 699 made available to the relator and the fees described in division 700

(C) (4) (c) of this section. 701

(c) Reasonable attorney's fees shall include reasonable 702 fees incurred to produce proof of the reasonableness and amount 703 of the fees and to otherwise litigate entitlement to the fees. 704

(d) The court may reduce the amount of fees awarded if the 705 court determines that, given the factual circumstances involved 706 with the specific public records request, an alternative means 707 should have been pursued to more effectively and efficiently 708 resolve the dispute that was subject to the mandamus action 709 filed under division (C) (1) of this section. 710

(5) If the court does not issue a writ of mandamus under 711 division (C) of this section and the court determines at that 712 time that the bringing of the mandamus action was frivolous 713 conduct as defined in division (A) of section 2323.51 of the 714 Revised Code, the court may award to the public office all court 715 costs, expenses, and reasonable attorney's fees, as determined 716 by the court. 717

(D) Chapter 1347. of the Revised Code does not limit the 718 provisions of this section. 719

(E) (1) To ensure that all employees of public offices are 720 appropriately educated about a public office's obligations under 721 division (B) of this section, all elected officials or their 722 appropriate designees shall attend training approved by the 723 attorney general as provided in section 109.43 of the Revised 724 Code. In addition, all public offices shall adopt a public 725 records policy in compliance with this section for responding to 726 public records requests. In adopting a public records policy 727 under this division, a public office may obtain guidance from 728 the model public records policy developed and provided to the 729 public office by the attorney general under section 109.43 of 730 the Revised Code. Except as otherwise provided in this section, 731 the policy may not limit the number of public records that the 732 public office will make available to a single person, may not 733 limit the number of public records that it will make available 734 during a fixed period of time, and may not establish a fixed 735 period of time before it will respond to a request for 736 inspection or copying of public records, unless that period is 737 less than eight hours. 738

(2) The public office shall distribute the public records 739 policy adopted by the public office under division (E)(1) of 740 this section to the employee of the public office who is the 741 records custodian or records manager or otherwise has custody of 742 the records of that office. The public office shall require that 743 employee to acknowledge receipt of the copy of the public 744 records policy. The public office shall create a poster that 745 describes its public records policy and shall post the poster in 746 a conspicuous place in the public office and in all locations 747 where the public office has branch offices. The public office 748 may post its public records policy on the internet web site of 749 the public office if the public office maintains an internet web 750 site. A public office that has established a manual or handbook 751 of its general policies and procedures for all employees of the 752 public office shall include the public records policy of the 753 public office in the manual or handbook. 754 pursuant to Chapter 119. of the Revised Code to reasonably limit 756 forward the copies for surveys, marketing, solicitation, or 775 resale for commercial purposes. "Bulk commercial special 776 extraction request" does not include a request by a person who 777 gives assurance to the bureau that the person making the request 778 does not intend to use or forward the requested copies for 779 surveys, marketing, solicitation, or resale for commercial 780
