A resolution urging Congress to award a 1
Congressional Gold Medal to the late Senator John 2
Glenn and Mrs. Annie Glenn. 3

BE IT RESOLVED BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE STATE OF OHIO:

WHEREAS, John Glenn was born on July 18, 1921, in Cambridge, 4
Ohio, in a white clapboard house to father John Herschel Glenn 5 and mother Clara Sproat Glenn on Foster Avenue; and 6

WHEREAS, John Glenn's parents grew up in historic 7
Cambridge, Ohio, a city internationally recognized for the 8 manufacture of quality glass products and located in the 9 foothills of the Appalachian mountains in southeastern Ohio; and 10

WHEREAS, Annie Glenn was born on February 17, 1920, in 11
Columbus, Ohio, to Dr. Homer and Margaret Castor and soon moved 12 to New Concord, Ohio, where the Castor family and Glenn family 13 would soon become family friends; and 14

WHEREAS, John Glenn and Annie Castor Glenn met as infants 15 in Concord, Ohio, and became best friends; and 16

WHEREAS, John Glenn launched a career of exploration and service to his nation that would take him from a small city in southeast Ohio firmly rooted in America's heartland to the skies and beyond into outer space; and

WHEREAS, John Glenn graduated from New Concord High School and attended Muskingum College before enlisting in the Navy and later transferred to the Marine Corps, where he flew one hundred forty-nine missions during World War II and the Korean War; and

WHEREAS, John Glenn married his beloved friend Annie Castor Glenn in 1943; and

WHEREAS, John Glenn was accepted into the United States space program on February 20, 1962, and piloted the Friendship 7 spacecraft around the earth three times, becoming the first American to orbit the earth; and

WHEREAS, John Glenn's orbit around the earth inspired other Ohio astronauts, including Neil Armstrong from Wapakoneta, Ohio, who was the first man to walk on the moon and Judith Resnik from Akron, Ohio, who was the second American female astronaut; and

WHEREAS, Thanks to the achievements of the Wright brothers, John Glenn, Neil Armstrong, and Judith Resnick, Ohio is known as the birthplace of aviation pioneers; and

WHEREAS, John Glenn retired from the Marine Corps as a colonel and became a United States Senator representing Ohio from 1975 to 1999; and

WHEREAS, John Glenn sought the democratic party's presidential nomination in 1984; and

WHEREAS, After John Glenn's return from space and upon his retirement from the Senate, John and Annie Glenn founded the John Glenn Institute for Public Service and Public Policy at the Ohio State University to improve the quality of public service and encourage young people to pursue careers in government; and

WHEREAS, Annie Glenn suffered from a stuttering problem and 48 completed an intensive program at the Communications Research 49
Institute at Hollins College in Roanoke, Virginia; and 50

WHEREAS, Annie Glenn is one of the nation's leading 51
advocates for Americans with communicative disorders; and 52

WHEREAS, Annie Glenn has a special interest in programs 53 aiding children, the elderly, and Americans with communicative 54 disorders; and 55

WHEREAS, Ohio law designates the seventeenth day of 56
February as Annie Glenn Communication Disorders Awareness Day; 57 and 58

WHEREAS, John Glenn passed away in Columbus, Ohio, on 59
December 8, 2016, at the age of ninety-five and millions of 60
Americans mourned the passing of a true American hero; and 61

WHEREAS, John and Annie Glenn have touched the lives of 62
millions of Ohioans and Americans; and 63

WHEREAS, John and Annie Glenn have made our nation a better 64
place; and 65

WHEREAS, John and Annie Glenn have inspired America's 66 newest generation to achieve its goals and to give back to its 67 state and nation through public service; and 68

WHEREAS, John and Annie Glenn are deserving of receiving a 69
Congressional Gold Medal; now therefore be it 70

RESOLVED, That we, the members of the Ohio House of 71
Representatives of the 133rd General Assembly of the State of 72
Ohio, urge Congress to pass legislation awarding the late 73
Senator John Glenn and Mrs. Annie Glenn a Congressional Gold 74
Medal; and be it further 75

RESOLVED, That the Clerk of the House of Representatives 76 transmit duly authenticated copies of this resolution to the 77

members of the Ohio Congressional delegation and the news media of Ohio.
