BE IT RESOLV

WHEREAS, Free and fair elections are essential to democracy	10
and effective self-governance; and	11
WHEREAS, Persons are rightfully recognized as human beings	12
whose essential needs include clean water and safe and secure	13
food; and	14
WHEREAS, Corporations are entirely human-made legal	15 government of We the People; and

WHEREAS, The great wealth of large corporations allows them 22
to wield coercive force of law to overpower human beings and 23
communities, thus denying We the People's exercise of our 24
constitutional rights; and 25

WHEREAS, Corporations are not mentioned in the 26
Constitution, and We the People have never granted 27 constitutional rights to corporations, nor have we decreed that 28 corporations have authority that exceeds the authority of We the 29
People of the United States; and 30

WHEREAS, Interpretation of the United States Constitution 31 by appointed Supreme Court justices to include corporations in 32 the term "persons" has long denied We the People's exercise of 33 self-governance by endowing corporations with constitutional 34 protections intended for We the People; and 35

WHEREAS, The judicial bestowal of civil and political rights upon corporations can usurp basic human and constitutional rights guaranteed to human persons, and also empowers corporations to sue municipal and state governments for adopting laws that violate "corporate rights," even when those laws serve to protect and defend the rights of human persons and communities; and

WHEREAS, Corporations are not and never have been human beings, and therefore are rightfully subservient to human beings and governments as our legal creations; and

WHEREAS, The recent decision of the United States Supreme Court in Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission, 558

47

U.S. 310 (2010), which rolled back the legal limits on spending in the electoral process, creates an unequal playing field and allows unlimited spending by wealthy individuals, corporations, and other entities to influence elections, candidate selection, and policy decisions and to sway votes and compels elected	52

officials to divert their attention from the People's business	53 or even to vote against the interest of their human constituents	54
in order to ensure competitive campaign funds for their own	55
reelection; and	56
WHEREAS, The judicial interpretation that construes	57 spending money in political campaigns as speech is contrary to	58
the notion of one person, one vote and allows those with the	59
most money to have an unfair advantage in a political system	60 that should ensure that all citizens have equal access to the	61 political process and an equal ability to influence the outcome	62
of elections; and	63
WHEREAS, Money is property, not speech; and	64
WHEREAS, Large corporations own most of America's mass	65 media and use that media as a megaphone to express loudly their	66 political agenda and to convince Americans that their primary	67 role is that of consumers, rather than sovereign citizens with	68 rights and responsibilities within our democracy; and	69
WHEREAS, Tens of thousands of people and municipalities	70 across the nation are joining with the Move to Amend campaign to	71
call for an amendment to the United States Constitution to	72
abolish corporate personhood and the doctrine of money as	73

thousands of citizens, grassroots organizations, and local	77 governments across the country in the Move to Amend campaign to	78
call for an amendment to the United States Constitution to	79
abolish corporate personhood and the doctrine of money as speech	80
and thereby return our democracy, our elections, and our	81
