Research Analysis

HB1018 specifies that prior to adjudication, a parent or legal guardian may participate in services related to behaviors and conditions that led to a deprived petition being filed. This is not an admission of guilt and must not be used as evidence.

Prepared By: Suzie Nahach

Fiscal Analysis

HB 1018 allows for a parent or legal guardian to voluntarily participate in services related to the behaviors and conditions that led to the filing of a deprived petition. No fiscal considerations to the state are anticipated.

Prepared By: Stacy Johnson, House Fiscal Staff

Other Considerations

None.
