Research Analysis

The proposed committee substitute to HB 2757 modifies the length of time an officer has to begin investigating a fire to within 48 hours, including Sundays, of the occurrence. The investigating officer has 48 hours from the occurrence of the fire to send a report of all civilian and firefighter injuries and fatalities to the State Fire Marshal. Within a week of the fire, the investigating officer is to complete a written statement disclosing all findings related to the cause and origin of the fire.
