Bill Analysis

SB 1576 imposes a limit of 30 requests to produce or copy documents requested in discovery. The measure provides that if counsel believes more than 30 requests are needed, both opposing counsel and counsel shall attempt to reach a written stipulation as to a reasonable number of additional requests. If an agreement cannot be reached, the requesting party may file a motion showing a good faith attempt was made to reach an agreement, the reasons made for additional requests, and the proposed requests.
