Impact:	Please see previous summary of this measure

Research Analysis

SB634 requires the Secretary of Education to create a form for the authorization of a school district's professional organization dues. School employees who want to be a part of their district's professional organization must sign the form, and their signature must be confirmed before any deduction can be made from the employee's paycheck. Professional organizations for school districts are required to reauthorize their payroll deductions annually.
