Research Analysis

The floor amendment to SB 808 adds a new subsection to section 1, pertaining to the responsibilities of any Board created and tasked with overseeing the duties and operations of the Authority for defining and determining when emergencies or environmental emergencies exist that may require immediate action in order to control damages caused by a medical marijuana business licensee.

The amendment also authorizes the Board to issue orders and take any necessary action to meet the emergency or environmental emergency including, but not limited to, the assessment of fines and penalties.
