School districts 7 shall have the option of determining when each area of instruction 8 9 listed in subsection A of this section shall be presented to 10 students. Beginning with the 2020-2021 school year school, 11 districts shall provide instruction in personal financial literacy

12 to students during grades nine through twelve.

D. Personal financial literacy instruction shall be integrated into one or more existing courses of study or provided in a separate personal financial literacy course. School districts shall have the option of determining into which course or courses each area of instruction listed in subsection A of this section shall be integrated.

E. Students with the most significant cognitive disabilities (MSCD) who have an Individualized Education Program (IEP) that directs that the student is to be assessed with alternate achievements standards through the Oklahoma Alternative Assessment Program may demonstrate satisfactory knowledge in each area of instruction listed in subsection A of this section upon a

1 determination, supported by documentation, by the school district 2 that the student has met the following criteria:

3 1. Receives substantive and substantial instruction in life-4 skills curriculum; and

5 2. Demonstrates the acquired knowledge of the student with MSCD6 by alternate measures as required by the IEP.

F. The State Board of Education shall identify and adopt curriculum standards for personal financial literacy instruction that reflect the areas of instruction listed in subsection A of this section. The standards shall be incorporated into the state academic content standards adopted by the Board pursuant to Section 11-103.6 of this title and known as the Priority Academic Student Skills Curriculum.

G. The State Department of Education shall:

Develop guidelines and material designed to enable schools to infuse personal financial literacy within any course of study currently offered by the school district or offer personal financial literacy as a separate course. The guidelines shall outline the areas of instruction to be taught based on the curriculum standards adopted by the Board;

Develop professional development programs that are designed to help teachers provide instruction in personal financial literacy and incorporate the curriculum into an existing course or courses or

1 develop curriculum for a separate personal financial literacy 2 course;

Provide and identify resources, including on-line modules 3 3. 4 online curricula, for integrating the teaching of personal financial 5 literacy into an existing course or courses of study or for developing a separate personal financial literacy course.
