6 reproduced for the purpose of sale of the information;

7           6. A public body must provide prompt, reasonable access to its 8 records but may establish reasonable procedures which protect the 9 integrity and organization of its records and to prevent excessive
10 disruptions of its essential functions. A delay in providing access 11 to records shall be limited solely to the time required for 12 preparing the requested documents and the avoidance of excessive
13 disruptions of the public body's essential functions. In no event 14 may production of a current request for records be unreasonably 15 delayed until after completion of a prior records request that will 16 take substantially longer than the current request. Any public body 17 which makes the requested records available on the Internet shall 18 meet the obligation of providing prompt, reasonable access to its 19 records as required by this paragraph; and
