6 An Act relating to motor vehicles; providing for 7 child support payments after certain vehicle
8 accidents resulting in death; requiring court to 9 consider certain factors when determining reasonable 10 or necessary child support; listing factors for 11 consideration; requiring court to be trustee for 12 support payments; requiring court remit certain 13 payments by certain time; requiring court deposit
14 certain receipts by certain time; allowing for a one-15 year grace period for certain payments; requiring 16 certain payments be made in full including any 17 arrearage; requiring certain civil action judgment
18 against a convicted person not require certain child
19 support order; allowing certain civil action judgment 20 to offset certain child support orders; providing for 21 codification; and providing an effective date.

22 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

23 SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified 24 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 11-902e of Title 47, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. If a person is convicted of an offense of driving while under the influence of alcohol or other intoxicating substance as provided for in subsection A of Section 11-902 of Title 47 of the Oklahoma Statutes and such offense caused the death of a parent or parents of a child or children, the sentencing court may order the

1 defendant to pay restitution in the form of child support to each of 2 the victim's children until each child reaches eighteen (18) years
3 of age and has graduated from high school, or the class of which the 4 child is a member, when the child reaches eighteen (18) years of 5 age, has graduated from high school.

6 B. The court shall determine an amount that is reasonable and 7 necessary for the support of the victim's child after considering 8 all relevant factors, including:

9 1. The financial needs and resources of the child;

10 2. The financial resources and needs of the surviving parent or 11 guardian of the child, including the state if the child is in the 12 custody of the state;

13 3. The standard of living to which the child is accustomed;

14 4. The physical and emotional condition of the child and the 15 child's educational needs;

16 5. The child's physical and legal custody arrangements; and 17 6. The reasonable work-related child care expenses of the 18 surviving parent or guardian.

19 C. The court shall order that child support payments be made to 20 the court as trustee for remittance to the child's surviving parent 21 or guardian. The court shall remit the payments to the surviving 22 parent or guardian within ten (10) working days of receipt by the 23 court. The court shall deposit all payments no later than the next 24 working day after receipt.

1 D. If a defendant who is ordered to pay child support under 2 this section is incarcerated and unable to pay the required child 3 support, the defendant shall have up to one (1) year after his or 4 her release from incarceration to begin payment, including entering 5 a payment plan to address any arrearage. If a defendant's child
6 support payments are set to terminate but the defendant's obligation
7 is not paid in full, then the child support payments shall continue 8 until the entire arrearage is paid.

9 E. 1. If the surviving parent or guardian of the child brings 10 a civil action against the defendant prior to the sentencing court 11 ordering child support payments as restitution and the surviving 12 parent or guardian obtains a judgment in the civil suit, then no
13 child support shall be ordered under this section.

14 2. If the court orders the defendant to make child support
15 payments as restitution under this section and the surviving parent 16 or guardian subsequently brings a civil action and obtains a 17 judgment, then the child support order shall be offset by the amount 18 of the judgment awarded in the civil action.

19 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2023.
