15 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

16 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 68 O.S. 2011, Section 220, is 17 amended to read as follows:

18 Section 220. A. The interest or penalty or any portion thereof
19 ordinarily accruing by reason of a taxpayer's failure to file a 20 report or return or failure to file a report or return in the 21 correct form as required by any state tax law or by this Code or to 22 pay a state tax within the statutory period allowed for its payment 23 may be waived or remitted by the Oklahoma Tax Commission or its 24 designee provided the taxpayer's failure to file a report or return

1 or to pay the tax is satisfactorily explained to the Tax Commission
2 or such designee, or provided such failure has resulted from a
3 mistake by the taxpayer of either the law or the facts subjecting
4 him to such tax, or inability to pay such interest or penalty
5 resulting from insolvency.

6 B. The Except as otherwise provided by subsections C and D of 7 this section, the waiver or remission of all or any part of any such 8 interest or penalties in excess of ~~Ten Thousand Dollars ($10,000.00)~~
9 Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00) shall not become effective 10 unless approved by one of the judges of the district court of 11 Oklahoma County after a full hearing thereon.

12 The application for the approval of such waiver or remission 13 shall be filed in the office of the court clerk of the court at 14 least twenty (20) days prior to the entry of the order of the judge 15 finally approving or disapproving the waiver or remission. The 16 order so entered shall be a final order of the district court of the 17 county.

18 C. Taxpayers who (1) are not currently under audit or 19 investigation, (2) have not collected taxes from others, such as 20 sales and use taxes or payroll taxes, and not reported those taxes,
21 and (3) have not within the preceding three (3) years entered into a 22 voluntary disclosure agreement for the type of tax owed may enter 23 into a voluntary disclosure agreement with the Tax Commission in 24 order to report a state tax liability owed by the taxpayer.

1 Taxpayers who have not collected taxes from others, such as sales
2 and use taxes or payroll taxes, and not reported those taxes, may 3 enter into a modified voluntary disclosure agreement as is provided 4 in subsection F of this section provided that they meet all the 5 other requirements provided in this subsection. If the Tax
6 Commission agrees with the proposed terms for payment of the 7 principal amount of tax due and owing, the penalty otherwise imposed
8 by law upon the principal amount shall be waived by operation of law 9 and no further action by the Tax Commission or by the taxpayer shall 10 be required for the waiver of such penalty amount and fifty percent 11 (50%) of the otherwise applicable interest amount shall be waived by 12 operation of law and no further action by the Tax Commission or by 13 the taxpayer shall be required for the waiver of such interest
14 amount.

15 D. The Tax Commission shall limit the period for which 16 additional taxes may be assessed (the lookback period) to three (3) 17 taxable years for annually filed taxes or thirty-six (36) months for 18 taxes that do not have an annual filing frequency.

19 E. Voluntary disclosure agreements may be denied or nullified
20 by the Tax Commission if a taxpayer's failure to report or pay is 21 determined to be the result of a pattern of intentional or gross
22 negligence regarding compliance with the laws.

23 F. Taxpayers who meet all of the qualifications specified in 24 subsection C of this section, except that they have collected taxes

1 from others, such as sales and use taxes or payroll taxes, and not
2 reported those taxes, may enter into a modified voluntary disclosure 3 agreement.

4 G. The provisions of a modified voluntary disclosure agreement
5 shall be the same as a voluntary disclosure agreement as specified
6 in subsection C of this section, except that (1) waiver of interest 7 shall not apply except as may be optionally granted at the 8 discretion of the Tax Commission, and (2) the period for which taxes 9 must be reported and remitted is extended beyond the three-year or 10 thirty-six-month period provided in subsection C of this section to 11 include all periods in which tax has been collected but not 12 remitted.

13 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2017.
