2 SECTION 1. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified
3 in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 215.1A of Title 19, unless there
4 is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

5 A. All persons, in both their official capacities and their 6 individual capacities, have a right to be able to speak
7 confidentially to their legal counsel and receive confidential
8 advice from that counsel. It is a conflict of interest for a 9 district attorney's office to investigate or prosecute any person or 10 entity, or the employees, trustees and agents of an entity, for whom 11 the prosecutor's office has acted as legal counsel, whether that 12 person or entity was acting in their official capacity or in their 13 individual capacity.

14 B. If a district attorney's office becomes aware of potential
15 criminal activity by a person or entity for whom the district
16 attorney's office has acted at any time as legal counsel, the 17 district attorney's office may:

18 1. Inform the person or entity, and ask if the person or entity 19 wishes to waive the conflict of interest; or

20 2. Refer the matter to the Attorney General's office; or

21 3. Take no action.

22 C. If the person or entity waives the conflict of interest, 23 then the district attorney's office may proceed with the 24 investigation and/or prosecution.

1 D. If the district attorney's office refers the matter to the 2 Attorney General, the Attorney General may:

- 3 1. Investigate and/or prosecute the matter; or
- 4 2. Refer the matter to a different district attorney's office
5 for investigation and/or prosecution; or
- 6 3. Take no action.

7 E. A district attorney whose office investigates and/or 8 prosecutes a matter in violation of this act shall be subject to 9 impeachment.

10 F. The use of state resources for an investigation and/or 11 prosecution in violation of this act shall constitute a misuse of

8 times request the assistance of district attorneys, assistant
9 district attorneys, district attorney investigators from other
10 districts, or any attorney employed by the District Attorneys
11 Council who then may appear and assist in the prosecution of actions 12 for crime or assist in investigation of crime in like manner as 13 assistants or investigators in the district. Nothing in this 14 section shall be construed to inhibit county officers from retaining 15 their own separate counsel as allowed by law. This section shall 16 apply only to counties with a population exceeding two hundred fifty 17 thousand (250,000).

2 which the state or counties may have an interest. Nothing in this
3 section shall be construed to inhibit county officers from retaining
4 their own separate counsel as allowed by law. This section shall
5 apply only to counties with a population exceeding two hundred fifty
6 thousand (250,000).

14 provided by contract with a private attorney. The costs of such 15 contract shall be paid by the board of county commissioners out of

20 of the district attorney's office in determining whether a conflict
21 of interest exists pursuant to this act.

23 school district agree, legal representation in any ad valorem tax 24 matter in which the district attorney is required to represent the

2 by the school district. The board of education is authorized to pay
3 the costs of such representation out of its account for general
