

1 Section 201. A. The owner of any real property, ~~including any~~ 2 ~~improvements~~ consisting of dwelling units, acquired or improved in 3 connection with an allocation of income tax credits pursuant to the 4 provisions of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as 5 amended, or in connection with an allocation of income tax credits
6 pursuant to the provisions of Section 2357.403 of Title 68 of the 7 Oklahoma Statutes shall have the right to impose conditions in any 8 lease agreement for the occupancy of any dwelling located on real 9 property as described by this section which allow the owner to 10 accept or decline to enter into the lease agreement, or to terminate 11 a previously executed lease agreement based upon the discovery of 12 incomplete or false information, with respect to the prior felony 13 conviction of any person identified as a tenant pursuant to the 14 terms of the lease agreement, including occupants of the dwelling
15 whether or not those occupants formally execute a lease agreement.

16 B. The owner of real property as described in subsection A of 17 this section may either accept or decline to enter into a lease
18 agreement or to terminate a previously executed lease agreement
19 based upon felony convictions, whether pursuant to federal law or 20 the laws of any state or other governmental jurisdiction, for the 21 following types of offenses:

- 22 1. Possession of any drug or chemical;
- 23 2. Possession of any drug or chemical with intent to 24 manufacture or distribute;

1 3. Sex offenses, including but not limited to any form of 2 sexual assault, rape, indecent exposure, or other sexually related 3 offense if such offense was a felony;

4 4. Assault or battery or both if the offense was a felony;

5 5. Any felony involving violence against another person; and

6 6. Such other felony offenses as the owner of the real property
7 as described in subsection A of this section includes in the terms
8 of the lease agreement.

9 C. When making a decision pursuant to subsection B of this 10 section for property acquired, developed, or improved in connection
11 with an allocation of income tax credits pursuant to the provisions
12 of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or 13 in connection with an allocation of income tax credits pursuant to 14 the provisions of Section 2357.403 of Title 68 of the Oklahoma
15 Statutes, during the compliance period for the credits the owner of 16 real property shall conduct an individualized review of the criminal 17 record and its impact on the household's suitability for admission.
18 The individualized review should include consideration of the 19 following factors:

20 1. The seriousness of the case, especially with respect to how 21 it would affect other residents;

22 2. The age of the household member at the time of the offense;

23 3. The length of time since the violation occurred;

24 4. Evidence of participation in rehabilitative programming;

1 5. Other evidence of rehabilitation such as employment,
2 participation in job training, education, treatment programs, or 3 letters of recommendation;

4 6. A determination that, if the crime were to occur again, it
5 would pose a threat to the health, safety, and peaceful enjoyment of 6 residents and property;

7 7. If the crime is connected to how the prospective tenant or 8 household member would perform as a tenant and neighbor; and

9 8. Any risk mitigation services the applicant will be receiving 10 during the tenancy.

11 D. The provisions of this section shall supersede the 12 administrative rule of any state agency, board, commission, 13 department, statewide beneficiary public trust or other entity of 14 state government to the extent of any conflict.

15 ~~D.~~ E. The provisions of subsections A through D of this section 16 shall be applicable with respect to lease transactions occurring on 17 or after the effective date of this act without regard to the 18 construction date of the improvements to real property as described 19 by subsection A of this section.

20 F. For awards beginning on or after January 1, 2025, an award
21 recipient for the Affordable Housing Tax Credit Program pursuant to 22 the provisions of Section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986,
23 as amended, or in connection with an allocation of income tax
24 credits pursuant to the provisions of Section 2357.403 of Title 68

1 of the Oklahoma Statutes must have a clearly defined criminal
2 history screening policy in the tenant selection plan that
3 establishes criteria for renting to prospective residents and, at a
4 minimum, include the following:

5 1. Applicants with a criminal conviction may be denied housing
6 only after conducting an individualized review that considers the 7 safety of residents and/or property;

8 2. Lookback periods, or the amount of time following a 9 conviction, during which these records will be considered in 10 determining admissions;

11 3. No blanket terms such as "Any criminal convictions will be 12 denied.";

13 4. An established procedure for conducting individualized 14 reviews of applicants with a criminal record, which will include, at 15 a minimum, a notification to the applicant that an individualized 16 review will be conducted, and the applicant's right to provide 17 supporting documents and mitigating evidence for the individualized 18 review.

19 G. The Oklahoma Housing Finance Agency shall review the tenant
20 selection plan to ensure compliance with subsection F of this 21 section during compliance monitoring review. The Agency shall 22 provide guidance to owners of real property who receive an award of 23 Affordable Housing Tax Credit as to creating policies and practices
24 to comply with this section.

1 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2024.
