THE GIST OF THE PROPOSITION IS AS FOLLOWS:

This measure amends the Oklahoma Constitution. It amends Section 8E of Article 10. This section allows certain disabled veterans to be exempt from paying property tax on their homestead. Currently, the veteran must be determined to be one hundred percent (100%) disabled to qualify. This measure would change the amount of the exemption based on the percentage of disability. A one hundred percent (100%) disabled veteran would still be exempt from payment of property tax on the homestead.
If the veteran has a disability less than one hundred percent (100%) but at least seventy percent (70%) the exemption would be for one-half (1/2) the fair cash value of the homestead. If the veteran has a disability of less than seventy percent (70%),
