6 AS INTRODUCED

7 An Act relating to jury assessment of punishment;
8 amending 22 O.S. 2011, Section 926.1, which relates 9 to punishments assessed and declared by juries;
10 establishing sentencing procedures for juries that 11 assess and declare punishment in criminal cases;
12 providing for consideration of aggravating and 13 mitigating circumstances unless waived by the state
14 and defendant; directing court to follow specific 15 sentencing procedure under certain circumstances;
16 directing court to instruct juries on laws relating 17 to punishment and sentencing alternatives; defining 18 terms; and providing an effective date.

19 BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

20 SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 22 O.S. 2011, Section 926.1, is 21 amended to read as follows:

22 Section 926.1. A. In all cases of a verdict of conviction for 23 any offense against any of the laws of the State of Oklahoma, the 24 jury may~~r~~ and shall~~,~~ upon the request of the defendant~~,~~ assess and 25 declare the punishment in their verdict within the limitations fixed 26 by law, and the court shall render a judgment according to such 27 verdict, except as hereinafter provided.

1 B. In any case in which a jury may assess and declare
2 punishment:

3 1. At the conclusion of the evidence, the court shall instruct 4 the jury on the offense charged. The jury shall be further
5 instructed to determine only the guilt or innocence of the defendant
6 on the offense charged and that punishment shall not be determined 7 by the jury at this time; and

8 2. If the jury reaches a verdict that the defendant is guilty 9 of the offense charged or guilty of a lesser included offense, the 10 court shall proceed to a second stage in which the jury shall assess 11 punishment within the limitations fixed by law including sentencing 12 alternatives available to the court pursuant to the provisions of 13 Section 991a, 991a-3 or 991c of this title as applicable to the 14 case.

15 C. If the defendant is not prosecuted for a second or 16 subsequent offense, evidence of aggravating and mitigating 17 circumstances and argument on punishment shall be received by the 18 jury unless waived by the state and the defendant. The court shall 19 instruct the jury on the penalty fixed by law for the offense and 20 the jury may assess and declare its punishment within the penalty
21 fixed by law including any such sentencing alternatives available to 22 the court including the provisions of Section 991a, 991a-3 or 991c
23 of this title as applicable to the case. The jury may assess and 24

1 declare in its punishment any such sentencing alternatives available
2 to the court.

3 D. If the defendant is prosecuted for a second or subsequent 4 offense, except in those cases in which the former conviction is an 5 element of the offense, the court shall follow the procedures set 6 forth in Section 860.1 of this title. In addition to evidence of 7 prior convictions, evidence of aggravating and mitigating
8 circumstances and argument on punishment shall be received by the 9 jury unless waived by the state and the defendant. The court shall 10 instruct the jury on the penalty fixed by law for the offense and 11 the jury may assess and declare its punishment within the penalty
12 fixed by law including sentencing alternatives available to the 13 court pursuant to the provisions of Section 991a, 991a-3 or 991c of 14 this title as applicable to the case. The jury may assess and 15 declare in its punishment any such sentencing alternatives available
16 to the court.

17 E. For purposes of this section:

18 1. "Aggravating circumstances" means evidence of the conduct of 19 the defendant relating to the circumstances of the offense itself 20 that would support a more severe sentence within the range of 21 punishment fixed by law; and

22 2. "Mitigating circumstances" means evidence of factors that 23 would support leniency in sentencing including, but not limited to,
24 lack of a prior criminal record, minor participation in the offense,

1 culpability of the victim, past circumstances such as abuse that 2 resulted in the criminal activity, circumstances at the time of the 3 offense such as provocation, stress or emotional problems that,
4 while not excusing the crime, may offer an explanation, mental or 5 physical illness and genuine remorse.

6 SECTION 2. This act shall become effective November 1, 2021.
