An Act relating to criminal procedure; amending 22 O.S. 2011, Section 982, as amended by Section 1, Chapter 170, O.S.L. 2017 (22 O.S. 2018, Section 982), which relates to presentence investigations; modifying allowable fee for certain investigation; modifying requirement for certain investigation; and providing an effective date.

SUBJECT: Presentence investigations

BE IT ENACTED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF OKLAHOMA:

SECTION 1. AMENDATORY 22 O.S. 2011, Section 982, as amended by Section 1, Chapter 170, O.S.L. 2017 (22 O.S. Supp. 2018, Section 982), is amended to read as follows:

Section 982. A. Whenever a person is convicted of a violent felony offense whether the conviction is for a single offense or part of any combination of offenses, except when the death sentence is available as punishment for the offense, the court may, before imposing the sentence, require a presentence investigation be made of the offender by the Department of Corrections. The court shall order the defendant to pay a fee to the Department of Corrections of not less than ~~Five Dollars ($5.00)~~, Fifty Dollars ($50.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00) for the presentence investigation. In hardship cases, the court ~~shall set~~ may reduce the amount of the fee and establish a payment schedule.

~~B. Whenever a person has a prior felony conviction and is convicted of a nonviolent offense the court may, before imposing a sentence, order a presentence investigation be made of the offender by a private provider or someone designated by the court. The court shall order the defendant to pay to the private provider or court designee assigned to complete the presentence investigation a fee of not less than Five Dollars ($5.00) nor more than Five Hundred Dollars ($500.00). In hardship cases, the court shall set the amount of the fee and establish a payment schedule~~ Whenever a person has a prior felony conviction and enters a plea of guilty or nolo contendere to a felony offense other than a violent felony offense, without an agreement by the district attorney regarding the sentence to be imposed, the court may order a presentence investigation be made by the Department of Corrections. The fee provided in subsection A of this section shall apply to persons subject to this subsection.

C. Whenever a person has entered a plea of not guilty to a nonviolent felony offense and is found guilty by a court following a non-jury trial, the court may require a presentence investigation be made by the Department of Corrections. The fee provided in subsection A of this section shall apply to persons subject to this subsection.

D. When conducting a presentence investigation, the Department shall inquire into the circumstances of the offense and the characteristics of the offender. The information obtained from the investigation shall include, but not be limited to, a voluntary statement from each victim of the offense concerning the nature of the offense and the impact of the offense on the victim and the immediate family of the victim, the amount of the loss suffered or incurred by the victim as a result of the criminal conduct of the offender, and the age, marital status, living arrangements, financial obligations, income, family history and education, prior juvenile and criminal records, associations with other persons convicted of a felony offense, social history, indications of a predisposition to violence or substance abuse, remorse or guilt about the offense or the harm to the victim, job skills and employment history of the offender. The Department shall make a report of information from such investigation to the court, including a recommendation detailing the punishment which is deemed appropriate for both the offense and the offender, and specifically a recommendation for or against probation or suspended sentence. The report of the investigation shall be presented to the judge within a reasonable time, and upon failure to present the report, the judge may proceed with sentencing. Whenever, in the opinion of the court or the Department, it is desirable, the investigation shall include a physical and mental examination or either a physical or mental examination of the offender.

~~D.~~ E. The district attorney ~~shall~~ may have a presentence investigation made by the Department on each person charged with a violent felony offense and entering a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere as part of or in exchange for a plea agreement for a violent felony offense. The presentence investigation shall be completed before the terms of the plea agreement are finalized. The court shall not approve the terms of any plea agreement without reviewing the presentence investigation report to determine whether or not the terms of the sentence are appropriate for both the offender and the offense. The fee provided in subsection A of this section shall apply to persons subject to this subsection and shall be a condition of the plea agreement and sentence.

~~E.~~ F. The presentence investigation reports specified in this section shall not be referred to, or be considered, in any appeal proceedings. Before imposing a sentence, the court shall advise the defendant, counsel for the defendant, and the district attorney of the factual contents and conclusions of the presentence investigation report. The court shall afford the offender a fair opportunity to controvert the findings and conclusions of the reports at the time of sentencing. If either the defendant or the district attorney desires, a hearing shall be set by the court to allow both parties an opportunity to offer evidence proving or disproving any finding contained in a report, which shall be a hearing in mitigation or aggravation of punishment.

~~F.~~ G. The required presentence investigation and report may be waived upon written waiver by the district attorney and the defendant and upon approval by the Court.

~~G.~~ H. As used in this section, "violent felony offense" means:

1. Arson in the first degree;

2. Assault with a dangerous weapon, battery with a dangerous weapon or assault and battery with a dangerous weapon;

3. Aggravated assault and battery on a police officer, sheriff, highway patrol officer, or any other officer of the law;
