If the Administrator shall not so find, the Administrator 7 (2) shall notify the applicant, who shall, on request within thirty (30) 8 9 days be entitled to a hearing on such application within sixty (60) days after the date of the request. The investigation fee shall be 10 11 retained by the Administrator, but the annual fee shall be returned 12 to the applicant in the event of denial.

Each application for a license shall be granted or denied 13 (3) within ninety (90) days from its filing with the required fees, or, 14 from the hearing thereon, if any, unless the period is extended by 15 written agreement between the applicant and the Administrator or the 16 independent hearing examiner. 17

Each license shall state the address of the office from (4)18 which the business is to be conducted and the name of the licensee. 19 The license shall be displayed at the place of business named in the 20 license. The license shall not be transferable or assignable except 21 upon approval by the Administrator. 22

Each license shall remain in full force and effect until (5) 23 relinquished, suspended, revoked or expired. Every licensee shall, 24 SB375 HFLR on or before each December 1, pay to the Administrator a fee for 1 2 each license held by the licensee, as the annual fee for the 3 succeeding calendar year. If the annual fee remains unpaid fifteen 4 (15) days after written notice of delinquency has been given to the 5 licensee by the Administrator, the The license shall thereupon expire but not before December 31 of any year for which an annual 6 7 fee has not been paid. There shall be a late fee for a late application for renewal of a license received after December 1. 8 The 9 fee for a duplicate or amended license shall be prescribed by rule 10 of the Commission on Consumer Credit.

11 (6) Every licensee shall maintain net assets of at least 12 Twenty-five Thousand Dollars ($25,000.00), either used or readily 13 available for use, in the conduct of the business of each licensed 14 office.

(7) A separate license shall be required for each office operated under this title. The Administrator may issue more than one license to any one person upon compliance with this part as to each license. Nothing contained herein, however, shall be construed to require a license for any place of business devoted to accounting or other record keeping and where supervised loans are not made.

(8) When a licensee wishes to move an office to another location, the licensee shall give thirty (30) days' written notice to the Administrator, who shall amend the license accordingly.
