SECTION 47. AMENDATORY 43 O.S. 2011, Section 601-611, is amended to read as follows:

Section 601-611. A. If Section 601-613 of this title does not apply, ~~except as otherwise provided in Section 41 of this act,~~ upon petition a tribunal of this state may modify a child support order issued in another state which is registered in this state if, after notice and hearing, the tribunal finds that:

D. In a proceeding to modify a child support order, the law of the state that is determined to have issued the initial controlling order governs the duration of the obligation of support. The obligor's fulfillment of the duty of support established by the order precludes imposition of a further obligation of support by a tribunal of this state.

B. A tribunal of this state exercising jurisdiction under this section shall apply the provisions of ~~Sections 601-101 through 601-209~~ of this title article, and the procedural and substantive law of this state to the proceeding for enforcement or modification. ~~Sections 601-301 through 601-507 and 601-701 through 601-802 of this title~~ Articles 3, 4, 5, 7, and 8 do not apply.

SECTION 49. AMENDATORY 43 O.S. 2011, Section 601-614, is amended to read as follows:

Section 601-614. Within thirty (30) days after issuance of a modified child support order, the party obtaining the modification shall file a certified copy of the order with the issuing tribunal that had continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over the earlier order, and in each tribunal in which the party knows the earlier order has been registered. A party who obtains the order and fails to file a certified copy is subject to appropriate sanctions by a tribunal in which the issue of failure to file arises. The failure to file does not affect the validity or enforceability of the modified order of the new tribunal having continuing, exclusive jurisdiction.

SECTION 50. AMENDATORY 43 O.S. 2011, Section 601-615, is amended to read as follows:

Section 601-615. A. ~~If~~ Except as otherwise provided in Section 601-711, if a foreign country ~~or political subdivision that is a state will not or may not modify its order~~ lacks or refuses to exercise jurisdiction to modify its child support order pursuant to its laws, a tribunal of this state may assume jurisdiction to modify the child support order and bind all individuals subject to the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal whether or not the consent to modification of a child support order otherwise required of the individual pursuant to Section 601-611 of Title 43 of the Oklahoma Statutes has been given or whether the individual seeking modification is a resident of this state or of the foreign country ~~or political subdivision.~~

B. An order issued by a tribunal of this state modifying a foreign child support order pursuant to this section is the controlling order.

SECTION 51. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 601-616 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

D. A tribunal of this state may vacate the registration of a Convention support order without the filing of a contest under Section 601-707 of Title 43 of the Oklahoma Statutes only if, acting on its own motion, the tribunal finds that recognition and enforcement of the order would be manifestly incompatible with public policy.

E. The tribunal shall promptly notify the parties of the registration or the order vacating the registration of a convention support order.

SECTION 58. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 601-707 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

B. B. The following grounds are the only grounds on which a tribunal of this state may refuse recognition and enforcement of a registered convention support order:

1. Recognition and enforcement of the order is manifestly incompatible with public policy, including the failure of the issuing tribunal to observe minimum standards of due process, which include notice and an opportunity to be heard;

2. The issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction consistent with Section 601-201 of Title 43 of the Oklahoma Statutes;

3. The order is not enforceable in the issuing country;

4. The order was obtained by fraud in connection with a matter of procedure;

5. A record transmitted in accordance with Section 601-706 lacks authenticity or integrity;

6. A proceeding between the same parties and having the same purpose is pending before a tribunal of this state and that proceeding was the first to be filed;

7. The order is incompatible with a more recent support order involving the same parties and having the same purpose if the more recent support order is entitled to recognition and enforcement under this act in this state;

8. Payment, to the extent alleged arrears have been paid in whole or in part;

9. In a case in which the respondent neither appeared nor was represented in the proceeding in the issuing foreign country:

a. if the law of that country provides for prior notice of proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard, or

- b. if the law of that country does not provide for prior notice of the proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice of the order and an opportunity to be heard in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal, or

10. The order was made in violation of Section 601-711 of Title 43 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

C. If a tribunal of this state does not recognize a convention support order under paragraphs 2, 4 or 9 of subsection B of this section:

1. The tribunal may not dismiss the proceeding without allowing a reasonable time for a party to request the establishment of a new convention support order; and

2. The appropriate governmental entity shall take all appropriate measures to request a child support order for the obligee if the application for recognition and enforcement was received under Section 601-704 of Title 43 of the Oklahoma Statutes.

A. Except as otherwise provided in subsections C and D of this section, a tribunal of this state shall recognize and enforce a foreign support agreement registered in this state.

B. An application or direct request for recognition and enforcement of a foreign support agreement must be accompanied by:

1. A complete text of the foreign support agreement; and
2. A record stating that the foreign support agreement is enforceable as an order of support in the issuing country.

C. A tribunal of this state may vacate the registration of a foreign support agreement only if, acting on its own motion, the tribunal finds that recognition and enforcement would be manifestly incompatible with public policy.

D. In a contest of a foreign support agreement, a tribunal of this state may refuse recognition and enforcement of the agreement if it finds:

1. Recognition and enforcement of the agreement is manifestly incompatible with public policy;
2. The agreement was obtained by fraud or falsification;
3. The agreement is incompatible with a support order involving the same parties and having the same purpose in this state, another state or a foreign country if the support order is entitled to recognition and enforcement under this act in this state; or
4. The record submitted under subsection B of this section lacks authenticity or integrity.

E. A proceeding for recognition and enforcement of a foreign support agreement must be suspended during the pendency of a challenge to or appeal of the agreement before a tribunal of another state or a foreign country.

SECTION 62. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 601-711 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

A. A tribunal of this state may not modify a convention child support order if the obligee remains a resident of the foreign country where the support order was issued unless:

1. The obligee submits to the jurisdiction of a tribunal of this state, either expressly or by defending on the merits of the case without objecting to the jurisdiction at the first available opportunity; or

2. The foreign tribunal lacks or refuses to exercise jurisdiction to modify its support order or issue a new support order.

B. If a tribunal of this state does not modify a convention child support order because the order is not recognized in this state, subsection C of Section 601-708 of Title 43 of the Oklahoma Statutes applies.

SECTION 63. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 601-712 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

SECTION 65. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 601-714 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

This act applies to proceedings begun on or after November 1, 2015, to establish a support order or determine parentage of a child or to register, recognize, enforce or modify a prior support order, determination or agreement whenever issued or entered.

SECTION 66. NEW LAW A new section of law to be codified in the Oklahoma Statutes as Section 601-903 of Title 43, unless there is created a duplication in numbering, reads as follows:

If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are severable.

SECTION 67. REPEALER 43 O.S. 2011, Section 601-100, is hereby repealed.
