Northern Watch, Southern Watch, Iraqi Freedom, New Dawn, and Enduring Freedom; and

WHEREAS, the 138th Fighter Wing has provided seamless defense of our Nation's southern border by performing the Air Combat Alert mission, 24 hours a day, seven days a week, since February 2008; and

WHEREAS, the Oklahoma Air National Guard has consistently answered the call of our State's emergencies, as evidenced by Tulsa's 138th Fighter Wing's mobilizations on State Active Duty in support of relief efforts due to tornadoes, winter storms, and other natural and manmade disasters; and

WHEREAS, the Oklahoma National Guard maintains a history of excellence, as proven by the 138th Fighter Wing's record of unequalled exercise, inspection, and evaluation success, as well as a fighter pilot cadre beyond compare; and

WHEREAS, the 138th Fighter Wing has flown many venerable aircraft, with names such as the O-38E, Vigilant, Grasshopper, Owl, Mustang, Thunderjet, Shooting Star, Sabre Interceptor, Stratofreighter, Globemaster, Super Sabre, Corsair II, and since 1993, the F-16 Fighting Falcon; and

WHEREAS, like all the great aircraft flown in the past, the F-16 Fighting Falcon, shall too eventually be replaced, in this instance by the F-35 Lightning; and

WHEREAS, Communities across the State of Oklahoma, and specifically the City of Tulsa, have partnered with the men and women of the 138th Fighter Wing to ensure the Tulsa Air National Guard Base is ready, willing, and able to receive the F-35 mission; and

WHEREAS, the people of the Great State of Oklahoma wholeheartedly support all of our military personnel, especially the citizen Soldiers and Airmen of the Oklahoma National Guard and their endeavors.
