9 SOCIAL REFERRAL SERVICE CONTRACTS

10 Section 301. Payments to social referral service provider.

11 (a) General rule.--No contract for social referral service 12 shall require payment by a purchaser of the service of more than 13 $1,000. Services to be rendered to the purchaser under the 14 contract may extend over a period not to exceed two years from 15 the date the contract is entered into.

16 (b) Ancillary service.--No social referral service provider
17 shall require the purchase of an ancillary service by a 18 purchaser of the service as a condition of entering into a 19 social referral service contract with the provider.

20 Section 302. Social referral service contract requirements.

21 (a) Number of social service referrals.--The following shall 22 apply:

23 (1) Every contract for social referral service which 24 requires payment by the purchaser of the service of a total 25 amount in excess of $25 shall provide that the provider must 26 furnish to the purchaser a specified number of social 27 referrals per month.

28 (2) Every contract for social referral service
29 which requires payment by the purchaser of the service of a 30 total amount in excess of $25 shall provide that if

1 the provider does not furnish to the purchaser the specified 2 certain number of social referrals for two or more successive 3 months, the purchaser shall have the option to cancel the 4 contract and to receive a refund of all money paid under the 5 canceled contract. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the 6 provider shall be entitled to retain 15% of the cash price or 7 a pro rata amount for the number of referrals furnished to 8 the purchaser, whichever is greater, as a cancellation fee.

9 (b) Determination of cancellation fee.--Every contract for 10 social referral service shall set forth in the contract and in 11 the bill of rights the manner in which the service provider 12 determines its cancellation fee.

13 (c) Sale, assignment or transfer of contract.--Every 14 contract for social referral service shall provide that the 15 provider will not, without the prior written consent of the 16 purchaser, sell, assign or otherwise transfer for business or 17 for any other purpose to any person any information and material 18 of a personal or private nature acquired from a purchaser
19 directly or indirectly, including, but not limited to, answers
20 to tests and questionnaires, photographs or background 21 information.

22 (d) Suspension of membership.--Every contract for a social 23 referral service shall provide each purchaser with the 24 unilateral right to place his or her membership on hold for a 25 period of up to one year. The purchaser and provider may 29 intent to do so.

30 (e) Return of personal or private information and

1 material.--Every contract for social referral service shall 2 provide that at the expiration of the contract or at the 15 to meet any social referral. No social referral shall be

19 (h) Relocation outside service area.--Every social referral
20 service provider must establish and administer a fair 21 and reasonable policy for the situation in which a purchaser
22 moves to permanently reside at a location outside the service 23 area of the provider. This policy must be set forth in every 24 contract for social referral service.

25 Section 303. Furnishing and cancellation of social referral
26 service contract.

27 (a) General rule.--In every social referral service sale, 28 the provider shall furnish to the buyer a fully completed copy 29 of the contract pertaining to such sale at the time of its 30 execution, which is in the same language as that principally

1 used in the oral sales presentation and which shows the date of 2 the transaction and contains the name and address of the 3 provider, and in the immediate proximity to the space reserved
4 in the contract for the signature of the buyer and in not less 5 than 10-point boldface type, a statement in substantially the 9 Section 304. Dating Service Consumer Bill of Rights.

10 In every social referral service sale or renewal, the 11 provider shall provide each purchaser with a clear and 12 conspicuous, separate written notice, to be known as the "Dating 13 Service Consumer Bill of Rights," which shall contain at least 14 the following information:

15 Dating Service Consumer Bill of Rights

16 (1) No social referral service contract shall require 17 the payment by you, the purchaser, of an amount greater than 18 $1,000. In addition, no such contract may extend over a 19 period of time greater than two years.

20 (2) No social referral service contract shall require 21 you, the purchaser, to purchase a good or service which is 22 directly or indirectly related to the social referral
23 service. These extra services are known as ancillary 24 services, and, while these ancillary services may be offered 25 to you, the law prohibits the seller from requiring that you
26 purchase this service as a condition of your social referral
27 service contract.

28 (3) If your social referral service contract costs more 29 than $25, the seller must furnish a minimum number of 30 referrals per month to you. If this minimum amount is not

1 furnished to you for two successive months, you have the 2 option of canceling the contract and receiving a full refund 3 of all the money you paid, less a cancellation fee which 4 cannot exceed either 15% of the cash price or a pro rata
5 amount for the number of referrals furnished to you.

6 (4) Your social referral service contract must specify 7 the distance which you, the purchaser, are willing to 8 travel to meet any social referral. No social referrals 9 shall be furnished where you and the referral live at a 10 distance greater than the distance specified in the contract.

11 (5) The provider must have an established policy to 12 address the situation of your moving outside the area it 13 services. This policy must be explained in your contract.

14 (6) If any provision of the social referral service
15 contract is violated, you have the right to bring a court 16 action against the provider which has violated the contract.

17 Section 305. Civil action.

18 (a) General rule.--Any person who has been injured by reason 19 of a violation of this chapter may bring an action in his or her 20 own name to enjoin such violation, an action to recover his or 21 her actual damages or $50, whichever is greater, or both such 22 actions.

23 (b) Attorney General.--Whenever there shall be a violation
24 of this chapter, an application may be made by the Attorney 25 General in the name of the people of the Commonwealth of 26 Pennsylvania to a court having jurisdiction to issue an 27 injunction and, upon notice to the defendant of not less than 28 five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such 29 violations; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the 30 court that the defendant has, in fact, violated this chapter, an

1 injunction may be issued by such court enjoining and restraining 2 any further violation without requiring proof that any person
3 has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. Whenever a court 4 shall determine that a violation of this chapter occurred, the 5 court may impose a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 for 6 each violation.

7 (c) Cities of the first class.--In cities of the first 8 class, the provisions of this chapter may be enforced 9 concurrently with the Attorney General by the director of the 10 consumer affairs office of the city of the first class. A city 11 of the first class may also require social referral 12 services to be licensed. Licensing requirements may be 13 promulgated as are reasonably necessary to effectuate licensure.
14 A city of the first class may not impose substantive 15 requirements that are inconsistent with or more restrictive 16 than those set forth in this chapter. Any fee for a license may 17 not exceed $340 for a two-year period.

18 CHAPTER 5

19 INTERNET DATING SAFETY

20 Section 501. Internet dating service provider duties.

21 (a) General rule.--An Internet dating service provider
22 offering services to Pennsylvania members shall provide safety 23 awareness notification that includes, at minimum, a list and 24 description of safety measures reasonably designed to increase 25 awareness of safer dating practices in a clear and conspicuous 26 manner. Such notification shall include, but not be limited to, 27 the following statements or substantially similar statements:

28 (1) "There is no substitute for acting with caution when 29 communicating with any stranger who wants to meet you."

30 (2) "Never include your last name, e-mail address, home

1 address, phone number, place of work or any other 2 identifying information in your Internet profile or initial 3 e-mail messages. Stop communicating with anyone who 4 pressures you for personal or financial information or 5 attempts in any way to trick you into revealing it."

6 (3) "If you choose to have a face-to-face meeting with 7 another member, always tell someone in your family or a 8 friend where you are going and when you will return. Never 9 agree to be picked up at your home. Always provide your own 10 transportation to and from your date and meet in a public 11 place with many people around."

12 (b) Time of notification.--Such notification shall be 13 given at the time a Pennsylvania member registers with the 14 service and by way of a link on the publicly accessible Internet 15 website, or the first entry point, of the service.

16 Section 502. Civil action.

17 (a) General rule.--The Attorney General may bring an action
18 against an Internet dating service that violates the provisions 19 of this chapter:

20 (1) to enjoin further violation of the provisions of 21 this chapter; and

22 (2) to recover up to $250 for each Pennsylvania member 23 registered with the Internet dating service during the time 24 period that the Internet dating service was in violation of 25 this chapter.

26 (b) Increase in damages.--In an action under subsection (a) 27 (2), a court may increase the damages up to three times the 28 damages permitted where the defendant has been found to have 29 engaged in a pattern and practice of violating the provisions of 30 this chapter.

1 (c) Nonliability.--No Internet dating service shall be 2 deemed to have violated the provisions of this chapter if such 3 Internet dating service shows, by a preponderance of the 4 evidence, that the violation was not intentional and resulted 5 from a bona fide error made notwithstanding the maintenance of 6 procedures reasonably adopted to avoid such error.

7 (d) Nonviolation.--An Internet service provider does not 8 violate this chapter solely as a result of serving as an 9 intermediary for the transmission of electronic messages between 10 members of an Internet dating service.

11 (e) Construction.--Nothing in this section shall be 12 construed to restrict any right which any person may have under 13 any other statute or common law.

14 CHAPTER 7

17 This act shall apply to all contracts entered into on or 18 after the effective date of this section.
