17 petition has been signed by a sufficient number of eligible
18 voters, the election official shall certify the petition and 19 immediately notify in writing the petitioners and the officer
20 named in the petition. If the petition is not signed by a 21 sufficient number of eligible voters, the election official
22 shall dismiss the petition.

23 § 1406. Recall election.

24 (a) Date.--If an election official certifies that a petition
25 bears the required number of signatures, the election official 26 shall promptly fix a date for the election to determine whether

8 election shall be filled by special election conducted in 9 accordance with the Pennsylvania Election Code.

13 person knows is false or has alleged with reckless disregard of 14 whether it is false. A person may not intentionally make any 15 false entry on a petition or aid, abet, counsel or procure
16 another to do so. A person may not use threat, intimidation, 17 coercion or other corrupt means to interfere or attempt to 18 interfere with the right of any eligible voter to sign or not to 19 sign a recall petition of the voter's own free will. A person 20 may not for any consideration, compensation, gift, reward or 21 thing of value promise to sign or not to sign a recall petition.
