4 largest industries, employing more than 5 million individuals in 5 the United States; and

6 WHEREAS, This Commonwealth relies on more than 200,000
7 construction workers and has the fifth largest construction 8 workforce in the nation; and

9 WHEREAS, The construction industry needs more than 1 million 10 new craft professionals; and

11 WHEREAS, "Careers in Construction Month" increases public
12 awareness and appreciation of construction craft professionals 13 and the entire construction workforce; and

14 WHEREAS, During this month, employers, associations and 15 schools are encouraged to conduct job fairs, panel discussions
16 and local community events to inform students of the vast 17 employment opportunities in construction; and

18 WHEREAS, There are many avenues available for individuals to

1 receive training in the field of construction, including trade
2 schools, joint apprenticeships, nonjoint apprenticeships,
3 community college programs, vocational training programs,
4 employer-provided industry training and online programs, each 5 tailored to suit the diverse aspirations and learning styles of 6 aspiring builders and craftsmen; and

7 WHEREAS, The variety of training and programs available helps
8 to narrow the skill gap by guiding America's youth and displaced
9 workers into opportunities that lead to long-term, rewarding
10 careers in construction and provide many paths for individuals
11 to become craft professionals; therefore be it
