OCTOBER 22, 2013

A RESOLUTION

1 Honoring the service and sacrifice of our nation's Korean
2 veterans of the Vietnam War.

3 WHEREAS, The United States entered the Vietnam War to prevent 4 a Communist takeover of South Vietnam and more than three
5 million American troops fought bravely in the cause of freedom 6 and democracy; and

7 WHEREAS, 58,193 American soldiers were killed and more than 8 300,000 were wounded during the conflict; and

9 WHEREAS, Korean soldiers were sent to the Vietnam War to 10 support American troops and the cause for freedom at the request
11 of the United States; and

12 WHEREAS, 325,517 Korean soldiers served valiantly in Vietnam

1 from 1964 through 1973; and

2 WHEREAS, 5,099 Korean soldiers were killed and 10,962 Korean 3 soldiers were injured during the war; and

4 WHEREAS, The Korean soldiers who fought heroically alongside 5 American soldiers were known throughout the conflict for their 6 effectiveness; therefore be it

7 RESOLVED, That the House of Representatives recognize the 8 significant and enduring accomplishments of our nation's Korean 9 veterans and confirm its commitment to preserving the memory of 10 those who made the ultimate sacrifice during the Vietnam War.
