10 (g) Former official or employee.--

11 (1) No former public official or public employee shall 12 represent a person, with promised or actual compensation, on 13 any matter before the governmental body with which he has 14 been associated for one year after he leaves that body.

15 Nothing in this subsection shall prevent a former public
16 official or employee from appearing before an agency in a 17 proceeding or hearing as a witness or testifying as to any 18 fact or information.

1 (2) A former public official or employee of the 2 executive branch whose duties substantially involve licensing
3 or enforcement, the development of laws or the development or 4 adoption of regulations or policy or who has other 5 discretionary authority which may affect or influence the 6 outcome of an action, proceeding or decision may not accept 7 employment with or be retained by a regulated entity for a 8 period of one year after the termination of employment.
