15 part of the stock or other share, capital or the assets of 16 any other person or persons where the effect of the 17 acquisition may be to lessen competition substantially or to 18 tend to create a monopoly in any line of trade or commerce.

19 § 905. Powers and duties of Attorney General.

20 (a) Civil action.--The Attorney General may bring a civil 21 action in the Commonwealth's proprietary capacity on behalf of 22 the Commonwealth, as parens patriae on behalf of any agency,
23 political subdivision or municipal authority or as parens
24 patriae on behalf of natural persons residing in this 25 Commonwealth to recover threefold the actual damages and the 26 costs of the suit, including a reasonable attorney fee, for any 27 violation of section 904 (relating to prohibited acts).

28 (b) Limitation of actions.--A civil action for damages for a
29 violation of section 904 must be commenced within four years
30 after the accrual of a cause of action, except that no statute

1 of limitation shall bar any civil action for the recovery of 2 damages sustained by the Commonwealth.

3 (c) Equitable remedy.--The Attorney General may bring a 4 civil action in the Commonwealth's proprietary capacity on 5 behalf of the Commonwealth, as parens patriae on behalf of any 6 agency, political subdivision or municipal authority or as

8 Commonwealth for injunctive relief or other equitable relief 9 against loss or damage, whether threatened or actual, for a 10 violation of section 904.

11 (d) Damages for indirect purchasers.--In a civil action
12 under this section, the fact that the Commonwealth or any 13 agency, political subdivision, municipal authority or natural 14 person who has sustained damages by reason of a violation of 15 section 904 has not dealt directly with the defendant shall not 16 bar or otherwise limit recovery, except to avoid duplicate
17 liability for the same injury.

18 § 906. Proof of damages.

19 In any action under section 905 (relating to powers and

5 authorize. Where it is impossible or economically impractical to 6 identify the persons on whose behalf a suit was brought, the 7 amounts recovered shall be paid to any charitable organization
8 in good standing with the Department of State, whose interests 9 reasonably approximate the interests of the persons on whose 10 behalf the suit was brought. For the purposes of this section 11 reasonable approximation shall be determined by evaluating:

12 (1) The purposes of the underlying laws claimed to have 13 been violated.

14 (2) The nature of the injury to the persons on whose 15 behalf the suit was brought.

16 (3) The characteristics and interests of the persons on 17 whose behalf the suit was brought.

18 (4) The geographical scope of the persons on whose 19 behalf the suit was brought.

20 (5) The reasons why the amounts recovered have gone
21 unclaimed.

22 (6) The closeness of the fit between the persons on 23 whose behalf the suit was brought and the cy pres recipient.

26 believes that a person may be in control of information relevant
27 to any civil investigation under this chapter, the Attorney 28 General may issue and serve subpoenas, administer oaths or 29 affirmations and examine witnesses and receive evidence. Each 30 subpoena shall state the subject matter of the civil

1 investigation, describe the conduct constituting the alleged 2 violation which is under investigation and list the provisions
3 of this chapter applicable to the alleged violation.

4 (b) Form and use.--

5 (1) The subpoena shall prescribe the date, time and 6 place at which oral testimony shall be taken, describe the 7 material to be produced with reasonable particularity so as 8 to fairly identify the documents subpoenaed and prescribe a
9 date within which the material is to be produced. Under terms
10 as the Attorney General shall prescribe, the documentary 11 material shall be available for inspection and copying by the 12 person who produced the material.

13 (2) The Attorney General may use the information in a 14 civil action brought under this chapter. Information which 15 contains trade secrets or other highly confidential matters
16 shall not be presented, except with the approval of the court 17 in which a proceeding is pending after adequate notice to the 18 person furnishing the documentary material.

19 (c) Applicability of rules.--Except as otherwise specified
20 by this chapter, compliance with the subpoena shall be governed
21 by the Pennsylvania Rules of Civil Procedure.

22 (d) Confidentiality.--Any testimony, documentary material or 23 other tangible evidence produced or answer made under this 24 chapter shall be kept confidential by the Attorney General prior 25 to the institution of a civil action brought under this chapter
26 for the alleged violation of the provisions of this chapter 27 under investigation, unless:

28 (1) confidentiality is waived by the person subpoenaed;

29 (2) disclosure is authorized by the Commonwealth Court;

30 or

1 (3) disclosure is made pursuant to section 909 (relating 2 to cooperation with Federal Government and other states).

3 (e) Failure to obey subpoena.--In the event a witness served
4 with a subpoena under this chapter by the Attorney General fails
5 or refuses to produce documentary material, to answer written 6 interrogatories or to give testimony, the Attorney General may 7 petition the Commonwealth Court for an order requiring the 8 witness to answer, testify or produce the documentary material
9 demanded.

10 (f) Prohibited acts.--Any person who obstructs compliance
11 with a subpoena of the Attorney General issued under authority 12 of this section or knowingly removes or falsifies any 13 documentary material that is the subject of a subpoena issued by 14 the Attorney General under authority of this section commits a 15 misdemeanor of the second degree.

16 § 909. Cooperation with Federal Government and other states.

17 The Attorney General may cooperate with and coordinate 18 enforcement of the provisions of this chapter with the Federal 19 Government and other states, including, but not limited to,
20 sharing information and evidence obtained in accordance with 21 section 908 (relating to subpoenas).

22 § 910. Construction.

23 Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as making illegal
24 any activity or conduct exempt under any Commonwealth statute or 25 any statute of the United States.

26 § 911. Consistency with Federal law.

27 If any provision of this chapter is identical to or similar 28 to that of a Federal antitrust statute, it shall be interpreted 29 in a manner consistent with comparable Federal antitrust law as 30 decided by the Federal courts whose jurisdiction includes this

1 Commonwealth.

2 § 912. Jurisdiction of Commonwealth Court.

3 The Commonwealth Court shall have original jurisdiction over
4 all actions for violations of this chapter.

5 § 913. Action not barred as affecting or involving interstate 6 or foreign commerce.

7 No action under this chapter shall be barred on the grounds
8 that the activities or conduct complained of in any way affects 9 or involves interstate or foreign commerce.

10 § 914. Remedies cumulative.

11 The remedies afforded by this chapter are cumulative.

12 Section 4. This act shall take effect in 60 days.
