A RESOLUTION

1 Recognizing June 27, 2017, as "Post-Traumatic Stress Injury
2 Awareness Day" and the month of June 2017 as "Post-Traumatic
3 Stress Injury Awareness Month" in Pennsylvania.

4 WHEREAS, The brave men and women of the United States Armed 5 Forces, who proudly serve the United States and risk their lives
6 to protect our freedom, deserve the investment of every possible
7 resource to ensure their lasting physical, mental and emotional 8 well-being; and

9 WHEREAS, The challenges of serving in combat do not stop for 10 many veterans when they return home, but a new challenge begins 11 that many of our servicemen and servicewomen must fight every 12 day that causes them to struggle in silence; and

13 WHEREAS, The diagnosis now known as post-traumatic stress
14 disorder or PTSD was first defined to commonly and more
15 accurately understand and treat veterans who had endured severe 16 traumatic combat stress; and

17 WHEREAS, Post-traumatic stress has historically been viewed

1 as a mental illness caused by a preexisting flaw in the 2 individual's brain or character, and the term carries a stigma 3 that perpetuates this misconception; and

4 WHEREAS, Post-traumatic stress injury occurs after a person
5 has experienced a trauma and can result from not only the stress
6 of combat but also rape, sexual assault, battery, torture,
7 confinement or child abuse or a car accident, train wreck, plane 8 crash, bombing or natural disaster; and

9 WHEREAS, Post-traumatic stress is a very common injury to the 10 brain that is treatable and repairable; and

11 WHEREAS, Referring to post-traumatic stress injury as a 12 disorder perpetuates the stigma of and bias against mental 13 illness, and the stigma discourages those suffering from post-14 traumatic stress from seeking proper and timely medical 15 treatment; and

16 WHEREAS, Making the condition less stigmatizing and more 17 honorable can favorably influence those affected and encourage 18 them to seek help without fear of retribution or shame; and

19 WHEREAS, Proper and timely treatment can diminish suicide 20 rates; and

21 WHEREAS, All citizens suffering from post-traumatic stress 22 injury deserve recognition, while those who have received these 23 wounds in service to our nation further deserve our respect and 24 special honor; therefore it be

25 RESOLVED, That the Senate recognize June 27, 2017, as "Post-
26 Traumatic Stress Injury Awareness Day" and the month of June 27 2017 as "Post-Traumatic Stress Injury Awareness Month" in 28 Pennsylvania; and be it further

29 RESOLVED, That the Senate commend the Adjutant General and 30 the Department of Military and Veterans Affairs for working to

1 educate service members, veterans, the families of service
2 members and veterans, victims of abuse, crime and natural 3 disaster and the general public about the causes, symptoms and 4 treatment of post-traumatic stress injury.
