INTRODUCED AND ADOPTED, SEPTEMBER 23, 2019

A RESOLUTION

1 Designating the week of September 23 through 29, 2019, as 2 "Safe2Say Something Week" in Pennsylvania.

3 WHEREAS, Act 44 of 2018 established the Safe2Say Something
4 Program in Pennsylvania; and

5 WHEREAS, The Safe2Say Something Program was established to be 6 an anonymous resource for students, teachers and community
7 members to report behavior perceived to be threatening to an 8 individual or a school entity; and

9 WHEREAS, The Safe2Say Something Program includes a reporting
10 system within the Office of Attorney General to accept and refer 11 anonymous reports of threatening behavior; and

12 WHEREAS, The Office of Attorney General partners with Sandy 13 Hook Promise to administer the Safe2Say Something Program; and

14 WHEREAS, The Office of Attorney General and Sandy Hook
15 Promise train individuals to do all of the following:

16 (1) Recognize warning signs and signals from individuals

1 who may be a threat to themselves or others.

2 (2) Report concerns about individuals who may be a
3 threat to themselves or others through the Safe2Say Something
4 Program;

5 and

6 WHEREAS, On January 14, 2019, the Safe2Say Something Program
7 began accepting reports and continues to accept reports 24 hours
8 per day, seven days per week and 365 days per year; and

9 WHEREAS, From January 2019 through the end of the 2018-2019
10 school year, the Office of Attorney General and Sandy Hook 11 Promise have trained approximately 864,333 students on the 12 Safe2Say Something Program; and

13 WHEREAS, The Office of Attorney General's first annual report
14 on the Safe2Say Something Program was released on August 1, 15 2019; and

16 WHEREAS, The report stated that since the Safe2Say Something 17 Program began accepting reports in January 2019, more than 18 23,490 reports have been submitted; and

19 WHEREAS, While initially intended to prevent threats against 20 schools in this Commonwealth, the Safe2Say Something Program has 21 highlighted a variety of behavior and mental health concerns in 22 students; and

23 WHEREAS, Bullying, self-harm, suicidal intentions, depression
24 and anxiety are the top five event types reported through the 25 Safe2Say Something Program; and

26 WHEREAS, The United States Secret Service, National Threat
27 Assessment Center, released a report that stated:

28 (1) more than 1 million students have reported being 29 harassed, threatened or bullied;

30 (2) eighty percent of school shooters admitted their

1 plans ahead of time to at least one person; and

2 (3) seventy percent of individuals who took their own
3 lives told someone of their plans or provided warning signs
4 ahead of time;

5 and

6 WHEREAS, The Safe2Say Something Program is considered a
7 national model to protect students, teachers, school employees
8 and the community; therefore be it

9 RESOLVED, That the Senate designate the week of September 23
10 through 29, 2019, as "Safe2Say Something Week" in Pennsylvania.
