5 cabinet shall provide for the integration and coordination of the activities of the various agencies 6 and departments that are involved in the development of the Rhode Island economy and its 7 workforce and ensure the consistent implementation of the economic development policy and 8 strategic plan developed in accordance with section 42-64.15.

9 SECTION 2. Sections 42-64.13-3, 42-64.13-5 and 42-64.13-6 of the General Laws in 10 Chapter 42-64.13 entitled "Rhode Island Regulatory Reform Act" are hereby amended to read as 11 follows:

12 42-64.13-3. Purposes of chapter. -- The purposes of this chapter are to create within the 13 ~~office of management and budget~~ Rhode Island executive office of commerce, the office of 14 regulatory reform that will facilitate the regular review of Rhode Island's regulatory processes and 15 permitting procedures, report thereon in an effort to improve them and assist and facilitate 16 economic development opportunities within the regulatory and permitting processes and 17 procedures that exist within Rhode Island state and municipal government.

18 42-64.13-5. Creation of the office of regulatory reform. -- The ~~office of management~~ 19 ~~and budget~~ Rhode Island executive office of commerce shall create an office of regulatory reform 20 that shall be adequately staffed and supervised in order to fulfill its functions as set forth in this 21 chapter.

22 42-64.13-6. Director of office of regulatory reform. -- The office of regulatory reform 23 shall be managed by a director of office of regulatory reform who shall report to the ~~director of~~ 24 ~~the office of management and budget~~ the secretary of commerce within the Rhode Island 25 executive office of commerce.

26 SECTION 3. Title 42 of the General Laws entitled "STATE AFFAIRS AND 27 GOVERNMENT" is hereby amended by adding thereto the following chapter:

28 CHAPTER 64.18

29 EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF COMMERCE

30 42-64.18-1. Statement of intent. -- The purpose of this chapter is to develop an 31 integrated system of economic development activities while preserving and protecting the safety 32 and quality of life for the citizens of Rhode Island and to promote the economic viability of the 33 Rhode Island economy, and ensure the efficient use of all available resources by the 34 departments/divisions responsible for the regulation of growth within the state and the provision

1 of labor and training programs serving all Rhode Islanders, and to provide and promote and 2 encourage the preservation, expansion and sound development of new and existing industry, 3 business, commerce, agriculture, tourism, recreational, and renewable energy facilities, 4 promoting thereby the economic development of the state and the general welfare of its citizens 5 and to meet this need while continuing to build on the achievements that have already been made.
6 The interests of all Rhode Islanders will best be served by codifying in the state's general laws the 7 purposes and responsibilities of the executive office of commerce and the position of secretary of 8 commerce.

9 42-64.18-2. Purposes. -- The Rhode Island executive office of commerce is authorized, 10 created, and established as the state's lead agency for economic development throughout Rhode 11 Island for the following purposes: To promote and encourage the preservation, expansion, and 12 sound development of new and existing industry, business, commerce, agriculture, tourism, and 13 recreational facilities in the state, which will promote the economic development of the state and 14 the creation of opportunities for economic stability and employment through a business climate 15 that fosters opportunity for all Rhode Islanders.

16 42-64.18-3. Executive office of commerce. -- (a) There is hereby established within the 17 executive branch of state government an executive office of commerce effective February 1, 18 2015, to serve as the principal agency of the executive branch of state government for managing 19 the promotion of commerce and the economy within the state and shall have the following 20 powers and duties in accordance with the following schedule:

21 (1) On or about February 1, 2015, to operate functions from the department of business 22 regulation;

23 (2) On or about April 1, 2015, to operate various divisions and functions from the 24 department of administration;

25 (3) On or before September 1, 2015, to provide to the Senate and the House of 26 Representatives a comprehensive study and review of the roles, functions, and programs of the 27 Department of Administration and the Department of Labor and Training to devise 28 recommendations and a business plan for the integration of these entities with the office of the 29 secretary of commerce. The governor may include such recommendations in the Fiscal Year 2017 30 budget proposal.

31 (b) In this capacity, the office shall:

32 (1) Lead or assist state departments and coordinate business permitting processes in order 33 to:

34 (i) Improve the economy, efficiency, coordination, and quality of the business climate in

1 the state:

2 (ii) Design strategies and implement best practices that foster economic development and 3 growth of the state's economy;

4 (iii) Maximize and leverage funds from all available public and private sources, including 5 federal financial participation, grants and awards;

6 (iv) Increase public confidence by conducting customer centric operations whereby 7 commercial enterprise are supported and provided programs and services that will grow and 8 nurture the Rhode Island economy; and 9 (v) Be the state's lead agency for economic development.

10 (c) The office shall include the office of regulatory reform and other administration 11 functions which promote, enhance or regulate various service and functions in order to promote 12 the reform and improvement of the regulatory function of the state.

13 42-64.18-4. Secretary of commerce -- Appointment. -- The executive office of 14 commerce shall be administered by a secretary of commerce, hereafter referred to as "secretary." 15 The position of secretary is hereby created in the unclassified service. The secretary shall be 16 appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the senate. The secretary shall hold 17 office at the pleasure of the governor and until a successor is appointed and qualified. Before 18 entering upon the discharge of duties, the secretary shall take an oath to faithfully execute the 19 duties of the office. The secretary shall be appointed by February 1, 2015.

20 42-64.18-5. Responsibilities of the secretary. -- (a) The secretary shall be responsible to 21 the governor for supervising the executive office of commerce, improving the functions and 22 operations of Rhode Island state government to be clear, reliable, predictable, and as responsive 23 and user-friendly to the state's business community as is practicable, for managing and providing 24 strategic leadership and direction to the other divisions and departments under the jurisdiction of 25 this chapter, for serving as the chief executive officer of the Rhode Island commerce corporation, 26 for convening the economic development planning council to develop the economic development 27 policy and strategic plan in accordance with section 42-64.16, for serving as chair of the council 28 of economic advisors in accordance with section 42-64.17; for serving as vice-chair of the Human 29 Resources Investment Council; and for chairing the Governor's Commerce and Workforce 30 Cabinet established pursuant to section 42-6.1.

31 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the secretary shall appoint the 32 chiefs/directors of the divisions/departments within the executive office of commerce with the 33 consent of the governor.

34 42-64.18-6. Duties of the secretary. -- The secretary shall be subject to the direction and

1 supervision of the governor for the oversight, coordination and cohesive direction of state 2 economic development activities of the state and in ensuring the laws are faithfully executed, 3 notwithstanding any law to the contrary. In this capacity, the secretary of commerce shall be 4 authorized to:

5 (1) Coordinate the administration and financing of various departments or divisions 6 within the office and to supervise the work of the Rhode Island commerce corporation.

7 (2) Serve as the governor's chief advisor and liaison to federal policymakers on economic 8 development as well as the principal point of contact in the state on any such related matters.

9 (3) Review and ensure the coordination of the development of an overarching economic 10 development plan as produced by the office.

11 (4) Receive from department directors, within the timelines specified, any information 12 and resources the secretary deems necessary in order to perform the reviews authorized in this 13 section;

14 (5) Engage in regulatory reform across all state agencies to protect the health and 15 wellbeing of Rhode Islanders while meeting business needs for a clear, predictable, and reliable 16 regulatory structure in the state; including the implementation of systems to enhance customer 17 service by simplifying and expediting state permitting processes.

18 (6) Prepare and submit to the governor, the chairpersons of the house and senate finance 19 committees, and the caseload estimating conference, by no later than April 15 of each year, a 20 comprehensive overview of the Rhode Island economy. The secretary shall determine the 21 contents of the overview and shall determine the important economic data and information that 22 will inform the governor, and the revenue estimating committee on the economic conditions of 23 the state and future issues and forward looking projects of the Rhode Island economy.

24 (7) The directors of the departments, as well as local governments and school 25 departments, shall assist and cooperate with the secretary in fulfilling this responsibility by 26 providing whatever information and support shall be necessary.

27 (8) Resolve administrative, jurisdictional, operational, program, or policy conflicts 28 among departments and their executive staffs and make necessary recommendations to the 29 governor.

30 (9) Assure continued progress toward improving the quality, the accountability, and the 31 efficiency of state-administered programs to support the Rhode Island economy. In this capacity, 32 the secretary shall:

33 (i) Direct implementation of reforms in the economic development practices of the 34 departments that streamline and upgrade services, achieve greater economies of scale and

1 establish the coordinated system of the staff education, cross- training, and career development 2 services necessary to recruit and retain a highly-skilled, responsive, and engaged workforce;

3 (ii) Encourage departments to utilize consumer-centered approaches to service design and 4 delivery that expand their capacity to respond efficiently and responsibly to the diverse and 5 changing needs of the people and communities they serve;

6 (iii) Develop all opportunities to maximize resources by leveraging the state's purchasing 7 power, centralizing fiscal service functions related to budget, finance, and procurement, 8 centralizing communication, policy analysis and planning, and information systems and data 9 management, pursuing alternative funding sources through grants, awards and partnerships and 10 securing all available federal financial participation for programs and services provided through 11 the departments; and

12 (iv) Strengthen the financial support system for business and enterprises program 13 integrity, quality control and collections, and recovery activities by consolidating functions within 14 the office in a single unit that ensures all affected parties pay their fair share of the cost of 15 services and are aware of alternative financing.

16 (10) Prepare and integrate comprehensive budgets for the commerce services departments 17 and functions and duties assigned to the office. The budgets shall be submitted to the state budget 18 office by the secretary, for consideration by the governor, on behalf of the state's commerce 19 agencies in accordance with the provisions set forth in section 35-3-4 of the Rhode Island general 20 laws.

21 (11) Utilize objective data to evaluate economic development policy goals, resource use 22 and outcome evaluation and to perform short and long-term policy planning and development.

23 (12) Establishment of an integrated approach to interdepartmental information and data 24 management that complements and furthers the goals of the council of economic advisors and 25 that will facilitate the transition to consumer-centered system of state administered economic 26 development programs and services.

27 (13) At the direction of the governor or the general assembly, conduct independent 28 reviews of state-administered economic development programs, policies and related agency 29 actions and activities and assist the department directors in identifying strategies to address any 30 issues or areas of concern that may emerge thereof. The department directors shall provide any 31 information and assistance deemed necessary by the secretary when undertaking such 32 independent reviews.

33 (14) Provide regular and timely reports to the governor and make recommendations with 34 respect to the state's economic development agenda.

1 (15) Employ such personnel and contract for such consulting services as may be required 2 to perform the powers and duties lawfully conferred upon the secretary.

3 (16) Implement the provisions of any general or public law or regulation related to the 4 disclosure, confidentiality and privacy of any information or records, in the possession or under 5 the control of the executive office or the departments assigned to the executive office, that may be 6 developed or acquired for purposes directly connected with the secretary's duties set forth herein.

7 42-64.18-7. Departments/divisions assigned to the executive office -- Powers and 8 duties. -- (a) The departments and/or divisions assigned to the secretary shall:

9 (1) Exercise their respective powers and duties in accordance with their statutory 10 authority and the general policy established by the governor or by the secretary acting on behalf 11 of the governor or in accordance with the powers and authorities conferred upon the secretary by 12 this chapter;

13 (2) Provide such assistance or resources as may be requested or required by the governor 14 and/or the secretary; and 15 (3) Provide such records and information as may be requested or required by the 16 governor and/or the secretary to the extent allowed under the provisions of any applicable general 17 or public law, regulation, or agreement relating to the confidentiality, privacy or disclosure of 18 such records or information.

19 (4) Forward to the secretary copies of all reports to the governor.

20 (b) Except as provided herein, no provision of this chapter or application thereof shall be 21 construed to limit or otherwise restrict the departments, offices, or divisions assigned to the 22 secretary from fulfilling any statutory requirement or complying with any valid rule or regulation.

23 (c) The secretary shall determine in collaboration with the department directors whether 24 the officers, employees, agencies, advisory councils, committees, commissions, and task forces of 25 the departments who were performing such functions shall be transferred to the office.

26 (d) In the transference of such functions, the secretary shall be responsible for ensuring:

27 (1) Minimal disruption of services to consumers;

28 (2) Elimination of duplication of functions and operations;

29 (3) Services are coordinated and functions are consolidated where appropriate;

30 (4) Clear lines of authority are delineated and followed;

31 (5) Cost savings are achieved whenever feasible;

32 (6) Program application and eligibility determination processes are coordinated and, 33 where feasible, integrated; and 34 (7) State and federal funds available to the office and the entities therein are allocated and 1 utilized for service delivery to the fullest extent possible.

2 (d) Except as provided herein, no provision of this chapter or application thereof shall be 3 construed to limit or otherwise restrict the departments under this section from fulfilling any 4 statutory requirement or complying with any regulation deemed otherwise valid.

5 (e) To ensure an orderly transfer of functions to the office of commerce the following 6 transition shall occur at the direction of the governor, secretary of commerce and the respective 7 directors of the department affected.

8 (f) On or about February 1, 2015, the office shall commence to operate all functions 9 currently assigned to the department of business regulation (DBR)

10 (g) On or about April 1, 2015, the office shall commence to operate the regulatory reform 11 and housing/community development functions currently assigned to the department of 12 administration.

13 (h) In addition to the requirements of RIGL section 35-3-7, budgets submitted by the 14 impacted state departments for state fiscal years 2015 and 2016 shall include provisions to 15 implement this section.

16 42-64.18-8. Appointment of employees. -- The secretary, subject to the provisions of 17 applicable state law, shall be the appointing authority for all employees of the executive office of 18 commerce. The secretary may assign this function to such subordinate officers and employees of 19 the executive office as may to him or her seem feasible or desirable. The appointing authority of 20 the secretary provided for herein shall not affect, interfere with, limit, or otherwise restrict the 21 appointing authority vested in the directors for the employees of the departments under applicable 22 general and public laws.

23 42-64.18-9. Appropriations and disbursements. -- The general assembly shall annually 24 appropriate such sums as it may deem necessary for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of 25 this chapter. The state controller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his or her orders upon 26 the general treasurer for the payment of such sum or sums, or so much thereof as may from time 27 to time be required, upon receipt by him or her of proper authenticated vouchers approved by the 28 secretary of the executive office of commerce, or his or her designee.

29 42-64.18-10. Rules and regulations. -- The executive office of commerce shall be 30 deemed an agency for purposes of section 42-35-1, et seq. of the Rhode Island general laws. The 31 secretary shall make and promulgate such rules and regulations, fee schedules not inconsistent 32 with state law and fiscal policies and procedures as he or she deems necessary for the proper 33 administration of this chapter and to carry out the policy and purposes thereof.

34 42-64.18-11. Severability. -- If any provision of this chapter or the application thereof to 1 any person or circumstance is held invalid, such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or 2 applications of the chapter, which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, 3 and to this end the provisions of this chapter are declared to be severable.

4 42-64.18-12. Cooperation of other state executive branch agencies. -- As may be 5 appropriate from time to time, the departments and other agencies of the state of the executive 6 branch that have not been assigned to the executive office of commerce under this chapter shall 7 assist and cooperate with the executive office as may be required by the governor requested by 8 the secretary.

9 SECTION 4. Sections 42-102-2, 42-102-3 and 42-102-6 of the General Laws in Chapter
