LC004893

2014 -- Н 7525

STATE OF RHODE ISLAND

IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY

JANUARY SESSION, A.D. 2014

HOUSE RESOLUTION

EXPRESSING SINCERE CONDOLENCES ON THE PASSING OF LEO F. DIMAIO, JR.

Introduced By: Representatives Gallison, Fox, Mattiello, Marcello, and Lally Date Introduced: February 25, 2014 Referred To: House read and passed

1 WHEREAS, It is with utmost sadness that this House of Representatives has learned of 2 the passing of Leo F. DiMaio, Jr., a beloved husband, father, and grandfather, the well-respected 3 Director Emeritus of the Talent Development Program at the University of Rhode Island, and a dedicated advocate for education and expanding educational opportunities for minority and 4 5 disadvantaged students; and 6 WHEREAS, Leo DiMaio was born in Providence, a son of the late Leo and Mary 7 DiMaio and brother of the late Anthony DiMaio. He was a graduate of La Salle Academy, and 8 later attended Massanutten Military Academy. He continued his education graduating from 9 Providence College in 1952, and earning his Master's degree in Education from the University of

10 Rhode Island; and

WHEREAS, For the past fifty-eight years, Mr. Dimaio was the devoted husband of Ilene DiMaio. He was the loving father of Leo III, and his wife, Jamie, and daughter Mary Ellen, and was the proud and doting grandfather of three grandchildren, Stephanie, Angelica, and Leo Angelo. In addition, Mr. DiMaio is survived by many cherished nieces, nephews, grandnieces, and grandnephews; and

WHEREAS, As the first Director of Education and Recreation at the Adult Correctional Institution in Cranston, Mr. DiMaio was instrumental in initiating a GED program for inmates at the institution. He had also founded the first half-way house for ex-felons in the state; and

WHEREAS, For more than thirty years, Mr. DiMaio was employed at the University ofRhode Island and was instrumental in helping to bring diversity to the institution. Highly regarded by his peers, he had been honored with the URI Administrative Excellence Award, the URI Presidential Award, the URI Multicultural Center Lifetime Achievement Award, and induction into the URI Athletic Hall of Fame; and

WHEREAS, Mr. DiMaio has also been honored with the DaVinci Center Person of the Year Award, the Robinson-Kizirian Award, the City of Providence Martin Luther King Jr. Hall of Fame Award, and was past President and won its "Man of the Year" award of the YMCA Providence Businessmen's Association. In addition, he was a LaSalle Academy Hall of Fame inductee and had been honored with the creation of the DiMaio Scholars Program in his name. He was also the first head basketball coach at the Zuccolo Recreation Center in Providence and was honored with the dedication of the Leo DiMaio "Hall of Champions"; and

WHEREAS, Mr. DiMaio sought opportunities to further advance the community he loved and the people who were in real need of his help. Along with the late Reverend Arthur L. Hardge, Mr. DiMaio had co-founded Special Programs for Talent Development at the University of Rhode Island which helped generations of students with scholarships and academic support; and

WHEREAS, Leo DiMaio was blessed with the unconditional love of his wife, children and grandchildren and he returned their love in full measure. He was a generous and caring gentleman who left Rhode Island a far better place because of his life's endeavors and he will be always missed and dearly remembered; now, therefore be it

20 RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island and 21 Providence Plantations hereby expresses our deepest sympathies on the passing of Leo F.
22 DiMaio, Jr.; and be it further

RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to transmit a duly certified copy of this resolution to Mrs. Ilene DiMaio and Family.

LC004893