THE UNITED STATES

Introduced By: Representatives Handy, Keable, Ruggiero, Marcello, and Hull

Date Introduced: February 24, 2016

Referred To: House Judiciary

1 WHEREAS, The 1st President of the United States George Washington stated, "The 2 basis of our political systems is the right of the people to make and to alter their Constitutions of 3 Government"; and

4 WHEREAS, It was the stated intention of the framers of the Constitution of the United 5 States of America that the Congress of the United States of America should be "dependent on the 6 people alone." (James Madison, Federalist 52); and

7 WHEREAS, That dependency has evolved from a dependency on the people alone to a 8 dependency on those who spend excessively in elections, through campaigns or third-party 9 groups; and

10 WHEREAS, The United States Supreme Court ruling in Citizens United v. Federal 11 Election Commission, 558 U.S. 310 (2010) removed restrictions on amounts of independent 12 political spending; and

13 WHEREAS, The removal of those restrictions has resulted in the unjust influence of 14 powerful economic forces, which have supplanted the will of the people by undermining our 15 ability to choose our political leadership, write our own laws, and determine the fate of our state; 16 and

17 WHEREAS, Article V of the United States Constitution requires the United States
18 Congress to call a convention for proposing amendments upon application of two-thirds of the 19 legislatures of the several states for the purpose of proposing amendments to the United States

1 Constitution; now, therefore be it

2 RESOLVED, That this House of Representatives of the State of Rhode Island and 3 Providence Plantations hereby sees the need for a convention to propose amendments in order to 4 address concerns such as those raised by the decision of the United States Supreme Court in 5 Citizens United v. Federal Election Commission and related cases and events including those 6 occurring long before or afterward or for a substantially similar purpose, and desires that said 7 convention should be so limited; and be it further

8 RESOLVED, That this House hereby respectfully requests that the delegates to said 9 convention be comprised equally of individuals currently elected to state and local office, or be 10 selected by election, in each Congressional district for the purpose of serving as delegates, though 11 all individuals elected or appointed to federal office, now or in the past, be prohibited from 12 serving as delegates to the Convention, and furthermore requests the ability to restrict or expand 13 the power of its delegates within the limits expressed above; and be it further

14 RESOLVED, That this House hereby intends that this be a continuing application
15 considered together with applications calling for a convention passed in the 2013-2014 Vermont
16 legislature as R454, the 2013-2014 California legislature as Resolution Chapter 77, the 2013-
17 2014 Illinois legislature as Senate Joint Resolution No. 42, the 2014-2015 New Jersey legislature 18 Senate concurrent Resolution No. 132, and all other passed, pending, and future applications, the 19 aforementioned concerns of Rhode Island notwithstanding until such time as two-thirds of the 20 several states have applied for a Convention and said Convention is convened by Congress; and 21 be it further

22 RESOLVED, That the citizenry of the State of Rhode Island, speaking through this 23 House of Representatives, and pursuant to Article V of the United States Constitution, hereby 24 petitions the United States Congress to call a Convention for the purpose of proposing 25 Amendments to the Constitution of the United States of America as soon as two-thirds of the 26 several states have applied for a Convention; and be it further

1 RESOLVED, That the Secretary of State be and hereby is authorized and directed to 2 transmit duly certified copies of this resolution to the President of the United States; the Vice 3 President of the United States in his capacity as President of the United States Senate and 4 addressed to him at the office he maintains in the United States Capitol; the Speaker of the United
